Pastor Dan's Weekly Message

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do we trust that God will take care of us and has things under control? When life gets difficult, shaky or painful, we may find ourselves wondering what we may have done to deserve this fate. Often, we go to great lengths to explain suffering away, as if it has no purpose and ought not to exist. In an attempt to get God on our side in our battle against suffering, our prayer can mirror a question asked by the disciples: do you not care that we are perishing? As we are asking that question of God, God is asking of us: do you not yet have faith? It is for certain that God does not intentionally inflict pain upon us. God has no sinister plot to test our faith or trip us up. Rather, the unconditional, restorative and rejuvenating power of God's love can bring light out of the greatest darkness and gives hope in the midst of deep despair. We have to be patient and ride out the storm. It is our task to deepen our faith that God will calm the wind and draw meaning out of that which seems senseless.

Stewardship: Belong, Believe, Become

What I am struck by in today's Gospel is the line that reads, "The wind ceased and there was great calm." (emphasis added) After a year and a half of pandemic related turmoil and other national and global crises, I don't know about you, but that great calm is what I long for! On our journey to becoming Jesus' disciples, a hallmark of the Spirit within us is peace. Just like calming the storm at sea, Jesus gives us His peace whenever we need it but especially when we ask for it. I often revisit the book, "Searching For and Maintaining Peace" by Fr. Jacques Philippe to remind myself I am a temple of the Holy Spirit and the state of my soul is important to sharing God with others:

"Consider the surface of a lake, above which the sun is shining. If the surface of the lake is peaceful and tranquil, the sun will be reflected in this lake; and the more peaceful the lake, the more perfectly will it be reflected. If, on the contrary, the surface of the lake is agitated, undulating, then the image of the sun can not be reflected in it.

It is a little bit like this with regard to our soul in relationship to God. The more our soul is peaceful and tranquil, the more God is reflected in it, the more His image expresses itself in us, the more His grace acts through us. On the other hand, if our soul is agitated and troubled, the grace of God is able to act only with much greater difficulty. All the good that we can do is a reflection of the Essential Good, which is God…

Acquiring and maintaining interior peace, which is impossible without prayer, should consequently be considered a priority for everybody, above all for those who claim to want to do good for their neighbor. Otherwise, more often than not they would simply be communicating their own restlessness and distress."

May God's deep and abiding peace be with you today!

To God be the Glory, Kelsey - kdemarais@stpaulgenesee.net

THE CHOSEN

The Chosen is a multi-season show introducing us to people like Simon Peter, Nicodemus, Mary Magdalene, Matthew, and of course Jesus, in a way never before seen on film. The first episode of Season 1 will be shown at St Bruno (9-10:30am) on Monday, June 28. We will watch the episode together and then have time for discussion after. We will watch the rest of Season 1 every couple of weeks during the summer and finish in September. Come when you are able. Contact Mary Kral (mkral@stpaulgenesee.net). "I was one way and now I am completely different and the thing that happened in between was Him."

Archdiocesan Exemplary Award!!

It is with great pride and a sense of communal accomplishment that we announce that St. Bruno Parish School is a winner of the Archdiocesan Exemplary Award for Mission and Catholic Identity.

The Exemplary Recognition Program in the Archdiocese of Milw. is based upon the National Standards and Benchmarks for Effective Catholic Schools. In the category of Mission and Catholic Identity, as in all categories, these standards and benchmarks served as the lens through which each school was uniquely viewed and experienced by the evaluation team.

The award will be presented on Friday, October 8, 2021 at the Archdiocesan Educators' Convention at the Wis. Center in Milw. We may claim - and proclaim! - this award for five years.

We express sincere thanks to the staff members, school parents and parishioners who participated in the interviews with the Archdiocesan team who visited us in March, 2021.

Child and Family Ministry

Fun Facts for Catholic Kids of ALL Ages

How can we grow during Ordinary Time?

Growing in Faith
This is the first in a series about ways to grow in faith during Ordinary Time.
Use Faith Talk
In our modern culture, it can sometimes feel strange talking about God in our daily lives. Equipping kids with sacred language helps them to articulate their faith as well as their values and beliefs. Prayer before meals and at bedtime is a great time to thank God for the blessings of the day and ask for his blessing. Remind your kids that "God loves them" each day and that you "pray for them" as they head off to school. Source: Teaching Catholic Kids.com
Many years ago a priest told me that we as parents can bless our children. It's something I started to do on a regular basis, especially when my children starting driving. "I love you and I bless you" is what I said as they set out on their adventures. As a Youth Minister I encouraged parents to bless their children. Blessings from a priest or deacon are amazing—but consider blessing your children on a regular basis.
Angel of God is a great prayer to say each morning with your children:

Angel of God, my guardian dear,
to whom God's love commits me here. Ever this day, be at my side, to light, to guard, to rule, to guide.

God bless — Amy Golden aldgolden@gmail.com

Adult Formation

A New Creation

One of the small groups recently had a conversation about the news - all the bad news. As a group, we try to build each other up in Christ. So we challenged ourselves to look for good news, for the hand of God in our lives instead and it was uplifting to share the next week! One saw a sunset that looked like a star with the sun shining through. Another related overhearing a teaching conversation between the young grandchildren about Jesus. LOOKING for signs of Christ in life (rather than giving time to the bad news) is a powerful reminder of God at work. CHALLENGE: look for signs of God and share them with others!

Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to continue show God's love and care to others by assisting many families, providing money for food, utilities and rent bills.
