Prayer of Pope Francis for Protection and Help

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You…know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love,
to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of those of us who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

God Bless Fr. Kevin J. Sweeney!

Online Giving Will Help Sustain Our Church

Meeting your giving goal will help support our church's many ministries dedicated to strengthening our church's community and community at large.

Online Giving allows you to make donations, payments and pledges via your smart device or computer to our church. Search the App Stores for Online Giving or go to www.OLGapp.com and register with our parish.

Set up your gift today or consider an additional gift via our website on your smart device. Visit www.holyangelsrc.org and click on the "Donate" tab to make a one-time or recurring donation.

For parishioners who want to avoid credit card and bank transaction fees, we strongly encourage the free bank bill-payment services that many local banks offer. For example, both Bank of America and Chase offer Bill Pay services that allow the account owner to set up a weekly automatic payment via check in a set amount to the parish. This paper check is then mailed by the bank to the parish on the date the account holder sets. This works very well and is easy for most parishioners to set up and use.

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Msgr. T. Mark Condon

Third Sunday of Easter
"Stay with us Lord"

In the gospel reading from Saint Luke for the Third Sunday of Easter, we hear one of the most beautiful accounts of an encounter of the Risen Lord with his disciples. Two disciples are on the road to Emmaus feeling dejected and confused; these two disciples had thought that Jesus would be the answer to all of their hopes. Now all was lost. Or at least they thought that they were living without hope. Perhaps because of the pandemic, we can identify with these two disciples on the road to Emmaus more than ever this year because of the suffering and losses of so many members of our community, country, and world.

We can empathize with those first disciples when we experience great losses, grieves, and disappointments in our lives. In these dark hours it is difficult to be confident and sometimes we can even doubt whether or not God is really close to us or listening to our prayers. Now having lived more than a month with "shelter in place" orders, and worse yet, having experienced and witnessed the devastation that COVID-19 has brought to so many families and loved ones, we too can feel that wandering aimlessly. And aimlessly in a closed environment; but in those moments when the light is dim and confidence in a brighter future well beyond our grasp we turn to the Risen Lord who walks with us and ask him to explain what all of this dreadful experience means. The Lord opens our eyes to meaning of suffering and loss by commending us to look at the selfless power of love that is found in his way of the cross that leads to eternal life.

There are no clear explanations for the kind of suffering that we are experiencing. I am not sure that it would make any difference to us if we had a plausible explanation for the meaning this kind of death, disruption, and despair. In our humanity and mortality we can only hold fast to the power of the cross to be firmly rooted in the power of our faith.

Faith gives us the key to understanding our present circumstances with a view toward the future. God's view is the long view. Our concerns are usually more immediate and practical. We are all participating in God's plan for salvation when we are aware of what we can do to lighten the burdens of others.

Sometimes we are so worried with the concerns of the moment that we can't see anything else. Nothing wrong with that; but there is more, hope does not disappoint. In our first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, Peter stands in with the Eleven and boldly proclaims: "God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear" (Acts 2:22-23). Even with his confident faith, Peter needed the support of the Eleven.

No one of us can face the present travails without relying on the faith of others; the more that we pray for the grace that comes from faith the more that we are able to strengthen one another. The Apostles faced a crisis in their own lives. Jesus whom they followed and loved was put to death in the most horrible way. Now risen from the dead he continues to call them to a demanding way of life that includes preaching the gospel to the ends of the earth. The more that we seek to hear the voice of the Good Shepherd the more that we can be sure that we will be led away from the danger through the strength that comes from serving him in our daily lives. The path that we are on now is not easy. Standing with one another, being confident in faith, and compassionate and self-giving we will share in the healing purposes of God who never abandons us.

The experience of the disciples on the road to Emmaus helps to assure us that God is always with us. The disciples had thought with the crucifixion of Jesus all was lost; he was dead, crucified. That was the end. Or so they thought. The early followers of Jesus could not have been more heartbroken or anxious. Now a stranger appears on the road, or so they thought. But he was no stranger: "And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus drew himself near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him" (Luke 24:15-16). The disciples were prevented from seeing Jesus by their own sadness, anxiety, and worry. They had not understood that the mission of the Messiah would include suffering and death. Jesus walks with them and opens their eyes through explaining all of the scriptures to them. It is in the context of a meal, at table, that their eyes are opened and they implore the one whom they thought just a wayfarer also on a journey to nowhere in particular to "stay with us" (24:29). The presence of the risen Lord among us gives us never failing hope and confidence.

The Eucharist is at the heart of our faith. The Eucharist nourishes and sustains our faith. In the Eucharist, the Risen Christ stands in our midst and offers us this precious gift: "Peace be with you." We pray for the grace to more and more live the mission that the Eucharist empowers us for: to be the presence of Christ in the world. As we continue to celebrate the Easter season we reflect and celebrate the risen Christ who is with us in the gift of the Blessed Eucharist. We look forward to the day that we can all be united around the altar again to give praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God and to receive his Body and Blood in the Eucharist.

While we have been unable to join together for the celebration of Mass and to receive the Eucharist, I recommend to you to offer this Act of Spiritual Communion that can be offered when you participate in Mass via live-streaming or through watching Mass on television. We look forward to the day when we will gather again but we take consolation in this Act of Spiritual Communion.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

The Eighth Bishop of Paterson
Most Reverend Kevin J. Sweeney
Welcome!

On April 15, 2020, the Holy Father, Pope Francis, accepted the resignation of Bishop Serratelli, who has faithfully served our diocese for sixteen years, and appointed Father Kevin J. Sweeney, Priest of the Diocese of Brooklyn, to serve as our eighth bishop. Born January 17, 1970, the son of Irish immigrants, his mother arriving in the United States in 1951 and his father in 1970, and ordained June 28, 1997, Bishop-Elect Sweeney is the Pastor of Saint Michael Church, in Sunset Park, Brooklyn. During these days before his ordination and installation as Bishop of Paterson, we keep Bishop-Elect Sweeney in our prayers and asking for an outpouring of the grace and power of the Holy Spirit upon him. A date has not yet been set for his ordination and installation because of the current crisis. The Holy Father has appointed Bishop Serratelli to serve as Apostolic Administrator until the installation of our new bishop. We thank God for the ministry of Bishop Serratelli and we look forward to welcoming our new Bishop in person. Please continue to pray for our Bishop-Elect so that he is strengthened to begin his apostolic ministry.

Honoring Mother's Day
Spiritual Bouquets

It is Mom's Day soon. In these days, it is a time to remember Mom more than ever. If you go to our parish website: www.holyangelsrc.org and click on our donate button, look at the pull down and there is a category for Mother's Day, continue to scroll down to record your Mom's name for our Book of Remembrance which will be kept in church despite our absence. There are few days in the year that are as important as Mother's Day. We honor our mothers, we respect them and we love them. We ask God to bless them with good health and we pray that their faithful nurturing of their children will come back to them as a blessing. We also pray for those mothers who have gone home to the Lord. May they rest in the peace of the Good Shepherd who calls them to eternal life and promises them light, happiness, and peace. Both living and deceased mothers can be remembered with Spiritual Bouquets. Please make use of the website to enroll your mother in this spiritual gift.

A Way Forward

I do not like to turn to subjects that will only add to your concerns as we pass through this dark valley. I ask however, that you please do as much as you are able to in maintaining your generous support of our parish.

In order for us to maintain at least a minimal staff, and keep the lights on, we require a weekly income. You can make contributions through your own bank through their bill pay options, through online giving at www.OLGapp.com, or through our parish website: www.holyangelsrc.org. Thank you for your generosity.

Financial concerns are one concern but certainly not the most important or the only one. The first concern is always you and your families. Please know that during these days I remember you and your families each day at private Mass. It is reassuring to celebrate Mass, even when no other person is present, because in the confines of the quiet church, the song of the angels reverberates in the silence and is our promise of deliverance from these hardships: "Holy, holy, holy Lord God of host. Heaven and earth are full of your glory." Our parish dedicated to the Our Lady of the Holy Angels relies on the powerful intercession of our Blessed Mother and her band of angels to see us through this storm. I have no doubt that she will and that the angels will guide our steps.

I pray that this time of constant apprehension and confusion will soon pass. In the meantime, we rely upon the protection of the angels, and I commend to the care of the Blessed Virgin Mary as I ask God's blessing upon you and your families.

God bless you and your families.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Mark Condon
