CELEBRATING CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK 2018

January 28—February 3

From the Desk of Father Raaser

CATHOLIC SCHOOL WEEK

Sponsored by the National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA), National Catholic Schools Week is an annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. This year's theme is "Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed."

How I wish that Catholic education could be free. However, that is not the case. Parents who send their children to our Catholic school sacrifice much to do so. We should be very proud of St. Margaret's school. The school has so much to offer. We can teach to the whole person, body, mind and most importantly their souls. Catholic values are infused into all the classes; the behavior and attitude of our students is evident. We pray together daily as a school family, attend daily Mass as well as School Masses, be of Christian service to our brothers and sisters, and other important Catholic culture.

And when we look at the academic skills of our children. This past year in the New York State standardize tests for language and math, our students in St. Margaret scored higher than the Pearl River school system, Rockland County, the State and even the majority of the other Catholic Schools in the Archdiocese. It is a great accomplishment and our sincere thanks to the very dedicated teachers and staff and our Principal, Mrs. Maldonado.

Please continue to support Catholic schools. They are vital not only to our church but to the world around us. Alumni of Catholic schools have changed the world for the better. So many of you are the recipients of Catholic education and the dedication of the teachers and principals through the years. The value of Catholic education is certainly worth the sacrifice and it is priceless.

We welcome some of the students and their parents who will speak at all the Masses this weekend. May I suggest you go and visit our school on Sunday from 10 AM until 2:00 PM. The school looks good and the children love to talk about their school.

This Friday, February 2nd is the dual Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple and the Purification of Mary. It will be 40 days since Christmas.

According to the Mosaic Law, a woman who gives birth to a boy is unable for forty days to touch anything sacred or to enter the temple area by reason of her legal impurity. At the end of this period she is required to offer a year-old lamb as a burnt offering and a turtledove or young pigeon as an expiation of sin. A woman who could not afford a lamb offered instead two turtledoves or two young pigeons, as Mary and Joseph did. They took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord: as the firstborn son Jesus was consecrated to the Lord as the law required.

It is customary on this day also known as Candlemas to bless candles, which will be used throughout the liturgical year. The candlelight is an outward and visible sign of Christ who illumines our heart and inner being. Simeon in his prayer says of the Lord, you are the "light to the gentiles."

The following day is the Feast of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr of the Church. Traditionally, it is the day our throats are blessed with the newly blessed candles. The blessing of throats will only take place during the 9:00 AM and Noonday Mass.

Readings for Next Sunday

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Job 7:1-4, 6-7 In this passage, Job laments the drudgery and pain all people sometimes experience in life. He talks of troubled days and restless nights. But he does mention that the days move along swiftly, which can remind us that our time here on earth is quite limited and should be well spent.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23
Paul explains to the Corinthians that he has no choice, but must preach the gospel. He tells of making himself all things to all people, in order to save some of them. He reminds them that he does this willingly, in the hope of sharing in the blessings of the gospel.

Gospel: Mark 1:29-39
Jesus cured Simon and Andrew's mother of a fever, then others with illnesses or demons came to see him. He cured those who were ill, and cast out the demons of the others. Then he went off and prayed alone until his followers sought him out. Jesus and his disciples then moved on to other villages to proclaim the good news.

Feast of the Presentation of Lord
Friday, February 2nd
Candles for the Liturgy are blessed on this day.
Please bring a candle from your home to also be blessed.
