Deacon's Blog

Prayer and Speaking, The Secret. Has not every person, at one time, climbed a grassy hill and contemplated the quilt of fields and forests [or, stood on the sandy Emerald Coast beaches watching the painted skies of a sunset] and asked "Why all this? What secret does it hold? Why the new calf walking with its mother? Why the sun warming plowed fields? Why the buttercups bobbing in the breeze? Why the world – birthing, growing, dying? What secret does it hold?"

And hardly has the question formed, when stems of grass and blades of wheat point skyward - short of telling the secret. But what they say is more than sufficient.

Come, let us praise the Lord!. . .He rules over the whole earth, from the deepest caves to the highest hills. He rules over the sea, which he made; the land also, which he himself formed. Come, let us bow down and worship him; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker! He is our God; we are the people he cares for.

What question might I ask God about the beauty of nature?[1]

It is our destiny to ponder the riddle of existence and, as a by-produce of our wonderment, create a new life on earth. Charles Kettering

Father Hank's Pick of the Week

Mary: Handmaid of the Lord by St. Teresa of Kolkata

St. Teresa of Kolkata is known throughout the world as a woman who was totally committed to the Gospel. In this inspiring talk, she shares her insights on the Blessed Virgin Mary as a model of womanhood and perfect discipleship. She shows us that we, too, can do the will of God by saying "yes" to the Lord in the big and little things in our lives; nothing is too insignificant.

Baptism Preparation Classes

In order to have their children baptized, parents need to be registered in our parish, practice the Catholic faith and attend a baptismal preparation class. Baptism preparation is required of all first-time parents anticipating Baptism. These preparation classes are held on the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 7:00pm in the church. To register for class, please call the parish office, 477-3221.

The next class will be September 8th.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS RAFFLE

Winner: Kinda Hagan
Dallas, GA

A relationship of faith and commitment exists between the Catholic Church and its members and the public, whether they are children, young people, adults or elderly. Sexual abuse is this context, or any other relationship, is a matter of grave concern. Knowledge of such abuse requires a special response in order to facilitate the healing process and assure the safety of the community. With this in mind, The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is committed to healing the hurting hearts of sexual abuse victims and has established Victims Assistance Coordinators, experienced and trained counselors. These coordinators are available to help persons who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon or other church personnel.

RCIA

ARE YOU THINKING OF BECOMING CATHOLIC?

Would you like to learn more about your Catholic Faith? If you or somebody you know may be interested in participating in these "Classes" call Pat in the front office (850) 477-3221 and give her your name and telephone number. RCIA is the process of becoming Catholic … it's for those who are interested in joining the Catholic Faith, those who want to know more, those who have been away from practice, and those just seeking a faith-home. Pray for discernment– now may be your time!

CLASSES START IN SEPTEMBER

Do We Need to Make a Reservation for Mass Every Week?

Yes you do! The great news is each week more parishioners are coming back to Mass. However, our parishioner's health and safety is important to Father Hank and the staff here at Nativity. In order to properly prepare for the weekend Mass, we need to have an accurate number of who is attending.
How you can help... Make a Reservation, Keep Social Distance, Wear a Mask! Thank you.
What we are doing…We are taking steps to stream Mass from the church to the parish hall to accommodate overflow. Without a reservation, we will kindly ask you to sit in the available seats in the narthex.

A big Nativity salute to Boy Scout Troop #T-425 for finishing the landscaping around the retention pond and cleaning the west side of the property off Hillview. The crew was comprised of two adult scout leaders and eight scouts. The scouts attend CHS, St. Paul's, EDS, CLA and the IB program. Thank you!
