FROM YOUR PASTOR

Hello, St. Luke family!!

I would like to offer a summary of my homily from last weekend regarding the rather difficult and heavy topic of divorce:

First things first, it is important that you know this one simple truth: You are never too far lost to be found. There is always a way back to the Lord. But the question may be: Are you willing to make the effort to journey back to the Lord?

Now, that being said, we can return to the beginning. In the beginning, after God created all other created things, he created man… And God and man were in a communion of love, a union. …But the man desired communion with one like himself, one with a body and a soul, one who was beautifully and specially created to suit him, one whom he could love His God with. And thus, we know, God created a suitable helpmate, a suitable partner for the man — woman. And God made a union of them, a marriage, one that could not be separated. In fact, man and woman are fully themselves only when they are fully united to each other. "The vocation to marriage is written in the very nature of man and woman as they came from the hand of the Creator," the Catechism tells us (no. 1603).

Now, as we know, our first parents freely and deliberately sinned against God, causing a catastrophic divorce from God. To rectify this great divorce, to remedy this great schism caused by the sin of man, God sent His Son to become a New Adam, to become a new and perfect Groom… to heal and unify what had been severed. The great remedy, the "Big Fix"… was the Cross. His ministry was His courtship, forming His Church — His proposal, His Passion — the vows, His Crucifixion — the consummation. God made whole, made a communion, what was once divorced. And so, when man and woman participate in marriage, participate in this great sacrament instituted by Christ, they are a sign of THIS wedding… the wedding of Christ on the Cross. Husband and wife become living and breathing signs to the world of the love of Christ for His Church, and the love the Church should have for Christ.

Now, what happens when this sign of unity, when this united couple becomes divided? The Catechism tells us: this communion is ruptured. If a wife decides to abandon her husband, this wife has not only ruptured the unity but left her husband alone on the Cross, alone to suffer this vocation. If a husband decides to abandon his wife, he thereby climbs down from the Cross, leaving his wife — like our Lady — clinging to the Cross… only in this case, to painfully mourn the loss of what once was. And the solidifying of this rupture is divorce.

So then, what do we make of all of this? How do we heal the brokenness of messy marital situations?

1. We - as a Church, especially as a parish family - must uphold and promote the dignity of marriage and family life. We need build each other up, form a community of love, compliment and encourage families at Mass, engage in conversations with new parishioners.
2. As individual family units, we owe it to our children to be good examples of married life — teaching them as they mature how to resolve conflicts, how to sacrifice, how to be humble and selfless; teaching them their dignity and worth; teaching them what a holy marriage should look like.
3. As married couples, reach out when you need help. Our Blessed Mother needed the support of St. John the Beloved beside the Cross. It is highly probably that you will need support at times, as you attempt to live out this vocation and carry this Cross… with the ever-increasing difficulties of our world.

4. If you find yourself in a situation currently where you are already divorced,…you are not doomed. The Lord does not love you any less. But you may be having trouble hearing Him call you back to Himself. If this is you, if you are already divorced, please contact me at the office. It may be that you were not freely consenting to this marriage in the first place, which would be grounds for annulment.

5. If you are living in an irregular marital situation — for instance, you are divorced and have remarried civilly - you too, please come meet with me. Let us allow the Lord to heal and make whole what has been broken.

6. If your parents are divorced, or are getting divorced,… you have nothing to worry about. None of this is your fault. And none of this makes you any less loved. God loves you so much. Your parents love you so much. It's just that your parents may be very hurt right now and can't show you or tell you all the time… but they do, God does, and we too at St. Luke… love you and care about you.

7. Pray for married couples and those preparing for marriage, that they may faithfully live out their vocations and be tangible signs of God's love, to be living signs of the union with God that we all long for.

8. Pray for those discerning the call to married life, that they may cultivate a spirit of generosity, prayer, virtue, purity, and perseverance.

And may all of us, young and old, continually beg God to form us into good and holy families, and into a good and holy parish family, too.

To Jesus through Mary,
In union with St. Joseph,
Your pastor,

Fr. Jared

M E T A L - A FIRE BREAKOUT GROUP JUST FOR MEN

Our FIRE nights have small breakout groups for guys looking to build their prayer lives and become the men God is calling them to be. If you want to be a better husband, a better dad, a better friend, a better son - METAL is the place to begin your journey.

This season we begin with INTO THE BREACH, a series on the call to battle for Catholic men which urges them to embrace wholeheartedly the masculine virtues they need to be powerful men in this world in crisis. WE'RE READY TO START! OCTOBER 19!!

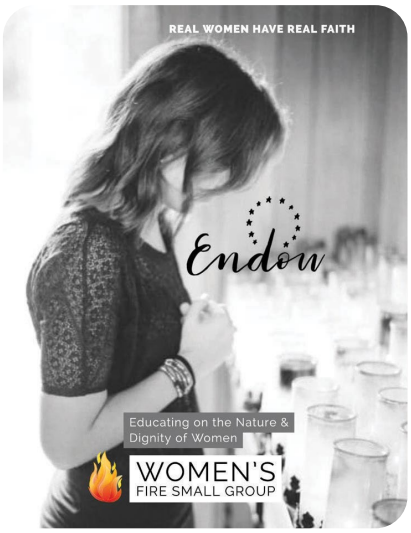
For more information or questions please contact Michael Pergola at RHGoalie@gmail.com or (985) 768-2953.



E N D O W - A FIRE BREAKOUT GROUP JUST FOR WOMEN

FIRE also includes a small breakout group for women who are looking for prayer and support in their roles as sisters, daughters, wives, and mothers. ENDOW has had a powerful impact on the prayer lives of women all over the country - and this season, we begin with an 8 session study (once a month) on St. Pope John Paul II's incredible LETTER TO WOMEN.

The dignity of women is a value and a top priority of the Catholic Church—and sadly most Catholics don't know it. ENDOW groups have two main goals: to help you develop your unique feminine genius and discover how your life is also a call to spiritual motherhood and sisterhood to priests. Babies are welcome, and we're looking to build a babysitting ministry for ENDOW nights, too! WE'RE READY TO START! OCTOBER 20!!

For more information or questions, please contact Jeannie Callaway at jcallaway@saintlukeslidell.org or 985-641-6648.

IF YOU'RE CONCERNED ABOUT THE WORLD YOUR CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN WILL INHERIT, IT'S TIME TO BECOME A PRAYER WARRIOR...

In 2007, a Public Square Rosary Crusade began with 2,100 Rosary Rallies. Ten years later, there are now more than 16,000 rallies all over the country. Saint Luke's will take place on October 16th, 2021, at 12 p.m., on Cross Gates Blvd.

WHY A PUBLIC ROSARY?

The difficulties our country is facing are pretty severe. As a nation, we are deeply affected by division, a lack of respect for the life and dignity of all people, and a growing disregard for God and family life. Right here in Slidell we are battling pornography, human trafficking, drugs, and more. We have to do something, but the culture is going to have to change for anything to happen. Come help us reclaim and recommit our community for Christ.

HALOS
HEALING AFTER LOSS TO OVERDOSE OR SUICIDE

HEALING HAPPENS WHEN WE FACE OUR PAIN WITH LOVE AND SUPPORT

Losing a child is difficult for any parent or family. But, for those whose child died from a drug overdose, alcohol or suicide, the loss is even harder. There's shame and the guilt of constantly asking themselves, "Could I have done more?"

St. Luke supports a group that exists at St. Margaret Mary Parish to support parents and others dealing with this specific loss. It's called HALOS: "Healing After Loss to Overdose or Suicide." The group is facilitated by Deacon Chris Schneider, who describes it as having three C's: Community, Conversation, and Commitment. Having someone to talk with and help you discover a new journey to peace and closure. HALOS has a great team of support in Donna Oster and Ester Smith, Spiritual Director.

Monthly Meetings are held the Second Monday of each month at 7 p.m. at SMM's E-building, behind the church. For more information, call Donna at Saint Margaret Mary at 985-643-6124.
