FLYING NOVENA

When needing an answer to prayers quickly and without delay, St. (Mother) Teresa of Calcutta famously prayed a "Flying" novena. This is a simple and quick way to pray a 'novena' when you don't have the full nine days!Mother Teresa would pray the Memorare prayer nine times in a row rather than praying it once a day for 9 days. Her religious sisters, the Missionaries of Charity, continue this practice today.Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To you I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your clemency hear and answer me. Amen.

SAINT BONAVENTURE ON SACRED SCRIPTURE

The source of sacred Scripture was not human research but divine revelation. This revelation comes from the Father of Light from whom the whole concept off at her hood in heaven and on earth derives. From him, through Jesus Christ his Son, the Holy Spirit enter sin to us. Then, through the Holy Spirit who allots and apportions his gifts to each person as he wishes, we receive the gift of faith, and through faith Christ lives in our hearts. So we come to know Christ and this knowledge becomes the main source of a firm understanding of the truth of all sacred Scripture. It is impossible, therefore, for anyone to achieve this understanding unless he first receives the gift of faith in Christ. This faith is the foundation of the whole Bible, a lamp and a key to its understanding. As long as our earthly state keeps us from seeing the Lord, this same faith is the firm basis of all supernatural enlightenment, the light guiding us to it, and the doorway through which we enter upon it. What is more, the extent of our faith is the measure of the wisdom which God has given us. Thus, no one should over estímate his wisdom; instead, he should soberly make his assessment according to he extent of the faith which God has given him.

The outcome or the fruit of Reading holy Scripture is by no means negligible: it s the fullness of eternal happiness. For these are the books which tell us of eternal life, which were written not only that we might believe but also that we might have everlasting life. When we do live that life we shall understand fully, we shalll ove completely, and our desires will be totally satisfied. Then, with all our needs fulfilled, we shall truly know the love that surpasses understanding and so be filled with the fullness of God. The purpose of the Scriptures, which come to us from God, is to lead us to this fullness according to the truths contained in those saying so fthe apostles to which I have referred. In order to achieve this, we must study holy Scripture carefully, and teach it and listen to it in the same way.

If we are to attain the ultímate goal of eternal happiness by the path of virtue described in the Scriptures, we have to begin at the very beginning. We must come with a pure faitht of the Father of Light and acknowledge him in our hearts. We must ask him to give us, through his Son and in the Holy Spirit, a true knowledge of Jesus Christ, and along with that knowledge a love of him. Knowing and loving him in this way, confirmed in our faith and grounded in our love, we can know the length and breadth and height and depth of his sacred Scripture. Through that knowledge we can come at last to know perfectly and love completely the most blessed Trinity, whom the saints desire to know and love and in whom all that is good and true finds its meaning and fulfillment. (Office of Readings, Monday Week 5)

BREVILOQUIO DE SAN BONAVENTURA

El origen de la sagrada Escritura no hay que buscarlo en la investigación humana, sino en la revelación divina, que procede del Padre de los astros, de quien toma nombre toda familia en el cielo y en la tierra, de quien, por su Hijo Jesucristo, se derrama sobre nosotros el Espíritu Santo, y, por el Espíritu Santo, que reparte y distribuye a cada uno sus dones como quiere, se nos da la fe, y por la fe habita Cristo en nuestros corazones. En esto consiste el conocimiento de Jesucristo, conocimiento que es la fuente de la que dimana la firmeza y la comprensión de toda la sagrada Escritura. Por esto, es imposible penetrar en el conocimiento de las Escrituras, si no se tiene previamente infundida en sí la fe en Cristo, la cual es como la luz, la puerta y el fundamento de toda la Escritura. En efecto, mientras vivimos en el destierro lejos del Señor, la fe es el fundamento estable, la luz directora y la puerta de entrada de toda iluminación sobrenatural; ella ha de ser la medida de la sabiduría que se nos da de lo alto, para que nadie quiera saber más de lo que conviene, sino que nos estimemos moderadamente, según la medida de la fe que Dios otorgó a cada uno. La finalidad o fruto de la sagrada Escritura no es cosa de poca importancia, pues tiene como objeto la plenitud de la felicidad eterna. Porque la Escritura contiene palabras de vida eterna, puesto que se ha escrito no sólo para que creamos, sino también para que alcancemos la vida eterna, aquella vida en la cual veremos, amaremos y serán saciados todos nuestros deseos; y, una vez éstos saciados, entonces conoceremos verdaderamente lo que trasciende toda filosofía: el amor cristiano, y así llegaremos a la plenitud total de Cristo. En esta plenitud, de que nos habla el Apóstol, la sagrada Escritura se esfuerza por introducirnos. Ésta es la finalidad, ésta es la intención que ha de guiarnos al estudiar, enseñar y escuchar la sagrada Escritura. Y, para llegar directamente a este resultado, a través del recto camino de las Escrituras, hay que empezar por el principio, es decir, debemos acercarnos, sin otro bagaje que la fe, al Padre de los astros, doblando las rodillas de nuestro corazón, para que él, por su Hijo, en el Espíritu Santo, nos dé el verdadero conocimiento de Jesucristo y, con el conocimiento, el amor, para que así, conociéndolo y amándolo, fundamentados en la fe y arraigados en la caridad, podamos conocer lo ancho, lo largo, lo alto y lo profundo de la sagrada Escritura y, por este conocimiento, llegar al conocimiento pleno y al amor extático de la santísima Trinidad; a ello tienden los anhelos de los santos, en ello consiste la plenitud y la perfección de todo lo bueno y verdadero.
