MASS BOOK OPENING

The Mass Book for 2018 will open to begin scheduling Masses on:

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, FOLLOWING THE 9:00 AM MASS IN THE MULTI-PURPOSE ROOM OF THE PARISH CENTER

In order to accommodate those families and friends of the recently deceased throughout the year and enable the majority of our parishioners to participate in the celebration of the liturgy, the total number of Mass requests accepted from each individual, on that day, will be limited to two weekday Masses and two weekend Masses. Please note, in addition to Masses, we offer Memorials for the hosts, wine and sanctuary candle in the church and the chapel. We are hopeful that these guidelines will allow the majority of St. Andrew's parishioners the ongoing benefit of obtaining a Mass or Memorial for their loved ones during the course of the year.

Pastoral Reflection

DO YOU ACT AS A STEWARD OR AS A CONSUMER?

"A hired hand, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them."
(John 10:12)

We're all used to being consumers.

We go to the mall, and somebody provides the services. We go to the stores we like … and we don't go to a store we don't like. The staff is there to wait on us, and that's the way business is run.

But when it comes to this earth, we're not consumers. Everything belongs to God, and we are stewards of this earth. This is something that we're part of. We come from the earth.

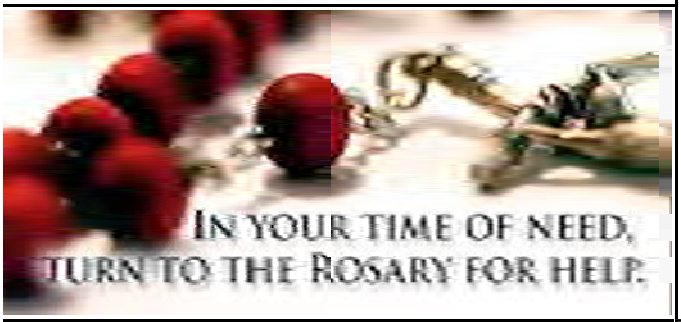
God created the earth and said, "It's good." God said, "You're my daughters and you're my sons." This is our family earth, and we must not treat it like consumers, for someone else to worry about, and just take what we want from it.

Picture God saying: "This is mine. This is our earth. These people around the world are our family, our brothers and sisters. They are my children. They are your brothers and sisters."

The Scripture talks about shepherd and hired hand, but I could substitute steward and consumer. With the Spirit of God within me, I become a caretaker of this earth and all the people in it.

If I remember that, I will see it all as God sees it. My earth. My people.

Do I act as a steward … or as a consumer?



Stewardship is . . .

. . . Everything we think, say and do after we say, "I believe".
