Easter Sunday, April 4th

8 am & 10 am, 12 Noon

(10 am Mass live streamed & overflow in Kolbe Hall)

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will resume TODAY, Easter Sunday after the 12 Noon Mass.

April 4, 2021

Dear Friends in Christ,

Today, Easter Sunday, we celebrate the central truth of the Christian faith: Jesus Christ resurrected! We are called to sing out with joy the Psalm response: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad." Our gospel speaks of the empty tomb and coming to faith. The first reading tells us the early church proclaimed the salvation story of Jesus teaching, dying and rising and being seen by witnesses. Jesus commanded them to go and share the Good News. All the hymns have the same message for Easter Sunday: Jesus Christ is Risen. Our Collect (Opening) Prayer of today's Mass reflects this same truth: "O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life." The same is true with the Prayer over the Offerings (Offertory time): "Exultant with paschal gladness, O Lord,…." and the Prayer after Communion: "….renewed by the paschal mysteries, she (the Church) may come to the glory of the resurrection."

All the above points out the following truth of "Lex orandi, lex credendi." This is Latin which is loosely translated as "the law of prayer [is] the law of belief". It is a saying in Christian tradition, which means that it is prayer which leads to belief, or that it is liturgy (formal worship of the church) which leads to theology. In essence, what and how we pray is what we believe. Everything we say, sing and do in the Mass and other liturgies reflect our belief, our faith.

Even the beauty of our church in various art reflects the faith we profess. The beautiful crucifix that reminds us of St. Paul who preached: "we proclaim Christ crucified" (1 Cor. 1:23). Even the architecture of our church reflects this truth. The outside roofline is in the shape of an "arrow" pointing to the cross at the peak of the church. The same is true with the inside ceiling with a white "arrow" beginning with the baptismal font, to the altar, to the tabernacle and to Jesus on the crucifix. This is a visible reminder that Jesus is victorious and invites us to come to praise Him in the church and in the world. Or as two of the dismissals for the Mass: "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord" or "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life." May this be a visible reminder of our privilege and responsibility to proclaim the Risen Christ!

To all our visitors, welcome to St. Maximilian Kolbe. For those who are from out of town, enjoy your family / friends, our city and safe travels home. For those who are visiting and live in the area, know you are always welcome here. If you do not have a parish home, please consider us as your parish home. All people are welcome to worship here at St. Maximilian Kolbe Parish.

Though I will be ordained 34 years as a priest on May 23rd and was the Pastor / Rector of the Co-Cathedral for 12 years, this is only the second time as pastor I have been the celebrant for the Sacred Easter Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday Vigil Mass). When I was pastor at the Co-Cathedral, the Cardinal was always the celebrant except that one year when he had his stroke and was not able to be present. For major feast days, the Cardinal rightfully celebrated them since he is the true pastor of the cathedral.

How well do we know the sacred scriptures? Want to be part of a Bible study? See p. 5 for more info on the Bible study on Paul's letter to the Romans. There will be 2 different times for this bible study to be offered, beginning on Sunday, April 18th & Friday, April 23rd.

Next weekend is Divine Mercy Sunday. More info on this important devotional will be included in next week's bulletin. See p. 8 for more info about the novena.

Let us pray for peace, reconciliation and healing in our world, nation, church and families. Pray also for a willingness to listen, dialogue and compromise so as to come to just solutions to our many challenges in society (health care issues, life issues, immigration, etc.). Pray for those who received the Easter Sacraments; holiness for all people; and more vocations to the priesthood and religious life—cf. p. 7.

Let our lives reveal we are an Easter people!

"The Cross is the school of love."

"The most deadly poison of our time is indifference."

—St. Maximilian Kolbe

St. Maximilian Kolbe, pray for us!

p. 4 REJOICE AND BE GLAD

During the first three or four centuries of Christianity, if you asked a Christian to name the feast days of the church, your answer would have been a puzzled stare, for there was only one feast: the Resurrection of the Lord. Every Sunday was a feast celebrating the one great feast. Even though our calendar now has many beautiful and holy feasts, we must continually be called back to the fact that all these other feasts exist because of the feast of Christ's passover from death to life. The psalm today proclaims this message well: "This is the day." It is not one of many days, but it is the day of all days, the one that gives all the others their origin, purpose, meaning, and destiny. Listen carefully to Peter's speech in Acts with its recollection of the Passion, to the words of the apostle Paul, and to the account of Mary Magdalene, John, and Peter finding the empty tomb, and you will hear the many wonderful works that God has done for us through Christ. Rejoice and be glad!

SIGNIFICANCE of BOWING

A bow signifies reverence & honor shown to the names or event being mentioned. We are to do the following:
1) A bow *of the head is made when the three Divine Persons (the Trinity) are named together and at the names of Jesus, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of the Saint in whose honor Mass is being celebrated.
2) A bow *of the body (a profound bow) is made during the Creed with the words "and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man."

FEAST OF FAITH The Eucharist: Food for Resurrection

How do we celebrate Easter, the greatest of our Christian feasts? By doing what we do every Sunday and every day: celebrating the Mass. On the first Easter, as the heartbroken disciples walked the road to Emmaus, the Lord was with them but they did not realize it. They only recognized him "in the breaking of the bread" (Luke 22:35).

It is the same for us. In the Mass—the breaking of the bread—we meet the risen Lord together. We meet him in each other—for by our baptism into his death and resurrection, we have become members of one body, the Body of Christ. We meet him in his word—in the liturgy the scriptures are proclaimed to us, that they might take root and grow in us. And we meet him in a special way in the Eucharist, the sacrament of his Body and Blood, which is food for resurrection: "whoever eats this bread will live forever" (John 6:51). The Lord is risen indeed, and it is the Risen One who truly presides at this and every Eucharist.

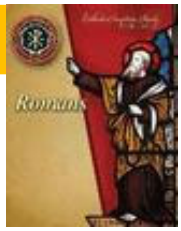
ADULT FAITH BIBLE STUDY



Romans

St Paul's letter to the Christian Community of Rome is full of theology. Join us for a 25 week study which discusses salvation, obedience to the law, and Christ as the fulfillment of the law and prophets. This study will be offered at two different times: Sunday evenings at 6:30 pm and Friday mornings at 10 am. They begin on Sunday, April 18th and Friday, April 23rd. Feel free to contact Molly Smith at mollys@stmaximilian.org for more information.

I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the LORD.
Psalm 118:17

Ignorance of Scripture is Ignorance of Christ!

For the scriptures used at Mass every day & to hear a Reflection, go to: http://www.usccb.org
On the very top Menu bar, tab in on "Daily Reading." Then click on the date of the readings you would like to read. You may also request to have the daily readings sent to your email.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

On Holy Saturday, we have the great Easter Vigil that begins at 8:30 pm since the Church insists that this liturgy does not begin prior to nightfall. This liturgy consists of 4 parts: 1) An amended Service of Light with the lighting of the new Paschal Candle & singing of the Exultet, the Easter Proclamation; 2) Liturgy of the Word with scripture readings reminding us of salvation history, with the sung Gospel Alleluia returning after its Lenten absence; 3) Reception into the Church either through Baptism or non-Catholic Christians joining the Church. Also 3 baptized Catholics will receive Confirmation & Eucharist. All 3 groups have been prepared through RCIA; and 4) Liturgy of the Eucharist. At the end of the Easter Vigil, a final blessing and dismissal is given, unlike at the end of Holy Thursday and Good Friday.

We joyfully welcome our RCIA participants who received Sacraments at this year's Easter Vigil.

The Elect who received Baptism, Confirmation & Eucharist:

We are Easter people and Alleluia is our song!

St. Augustine

Easter Daily Prayer

For your saving death, O Christ,
And your glorious Resurrection,
Let all the earth cry out with joy!

For the glad tidings of your gospel,
And your wondrous ascension into heaven,
Let all the earth cry out with joy!

For your gift of daily discipleship,
And the sending of the Spirit each day,
Let all the earth cry out with joy! Alleluia!

Please Pray this Vocation Prayer Everyday

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let Your invitation continue to resound: "Come, follow Me!"

Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to Your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor.

Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated in Your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send workers to Your harvest and do not allow us to be lost for lack of pastors, missionaries, and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.

A Prayer to St. Joseph for the Year of St. Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS BAKE SALE

Our Catholic Daughters, Court #2493 will host a Bake Sale the weekend of April 10/11th. The famous St Maximilian Banana Bread will be available for purchase along with Cakes, Cookies and Vietnamese food (including sandwiches) will be available. You will find the ladies in the Gajowniczek Building after all the Masses. Money from this Bake Sale will go towards supporting the John Francis Ulm Scholarships given out annually to graduating high school seniors. Thank you in advance for your support!

Remember, Lord, those who have died and have gone before us marked with the sign of faith, especially those for whom we now pray. May these, and all who sleep in Christ, find in Your presence light, happiness and peace. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray for the repose of the souls of our faithful departed:

Thomas Michael Mastrangelo †
Esther Rodriguez †
Gertrude Bravenec †, mother of Alice Kopecky

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
—And let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. —Amen.
May their souls & the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. —Amen.

For consolation and God's healing graces upon the family & friends of the deceased. Heal their pain and dispel the darkness & doubt that comes from grief. —Amen.

Thanks to all who prayed at the Planned Parenthood facility on March 20th for the lives of the unborn, their parents, and all those involved in the destruction of innocent lives. We want to share the message of help, hope and God's infinite mercy, which he offers each and everyone of us. St. Maximilian had 33 parishioners participate at the clinic and many prayed at home. If you would like to learn more about St Maximilian's life saving Respect Life Ministry or to find out how you can help, visit https://www.stmaximilian.org/respect-life or email Karen at kcomstock@sbcglobal.net.

Walk in the Light of Christ

Did you know?

Women are learning how to grow spiritually with faith, hope & love at Angela House. Since 2001, this DSF ministry has served as a resource for women exiting incarceration. Re-entry is never easy, but Angela House provides a safe place to live with services to help obtain employment, self-sufficiency, and independent living. The Diocesan Services Fund (DSF) supports 60+ programs benefitting 1.7 million Catholics in our Archdiocese. Visit archgh.org/dsf to learn more

2021 Mandatory Amount: $ 138,000

Since 2016, our DSF mandatory amount has remained the same at $138,000.
Just like every year, we can meet this amount.
But let's meet this pledged amount by the end of this June.
So far, $42,971 has been paid.
In the meantime, please make your pledge.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY, APRIL 11

In the 1930's, Jesus chose a humble Polish nun, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, to receive private revelations concerning Divine Mercy that were recorded in her Diary: "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment…Let no soul fear to draw near to Me…It is my desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy."

We will have a special prayer service to honor God's great attribute, that of His loving Mercy. There will also be a presentation on the Message of Mercy. We invite you to join us at 2:30pm in the Church on Sunday, April 11th to pray and sing in recognition and thanksgiving for God's tremendous mercy.

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA

On April 2nd, Good Friday, all are invited to pray the Novena to the Divine Mercy in the Immaculata Chapel at 2:30 pm. Each day of the novena we will pray the Chaplet Of Divine Mercy and offer intentions to the Merciful Heart of Jesus. On the following 8 days, we will pray at 3 pm in the Chapel and will complete the novena on Saturday, April 10th. Please plan to join us.

APRIL: Universal Intention—Fundamental Rights; We pray for those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

That our Easter celebration will help us to become more grateful and willing to make sacrifices to help build God's kingdom on earth.

"Think of what is above, not of what is on earth." – Colossians 3:2

On this day we thank God for His Son, Jesus, who died, rose and opened the gates of heaven for us. We celebrate and sing "Alleluia." Let's try to keep the joy of this Easter season in our hearts throughout the year! Pray daily and listen for how God is calling each of us to joyfully use our gifts to fulfill His salvation plan.
