GOOD NEWS REFLECTION

This Sunday's Gospel passage is a presentation by Christ on Eucharist. He says: "Whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life." Why does he call the Eucharist "the bread of life"? How does it give us life?

He answers: "Whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." In other words, he gave himself to us -- he gave his life for us -- on the cross. Our sins put us on the path of death, but he who was sinless and divine took our death upon himself so that we could have the eternal life of God.

Through his resurrection he defeated this death. Therefore, his body, crucified and risen, is the source of our life. This is what we celebrate in Mass.

The "sacrifice of the altar" is our participation in Christ -- his life, his ministry, his crucifixion for our sins, his resurrection, and his ascension to heaven. We unite with him by offering our lives to him so that he ministers to the world through us, sacrificing our will where it interferes with his, which results in being raised up to new life as we follow Christ to heaven.

Every Catholic Mass accomplishes this by providing us with our Savior's body and blood, here and now, in the form of edible food: the bread of life. As St. John Paul II pointed out in his encyclical Ecclesia de Eucharistia, "The Second Vatican Council rightly proclaimed that the Eucharistic banquet of Mass is 'the source and summit of the Christian life'."

This holy communion comes to us from Christ's saving sacrifice, through generation after generation of the apostolic priesthood, which began with the very first Apostles. Everyone who attends the liturgy of this communion should truly celebrate the Eucharistic presence of Jesus, even those who still have work to do to remove the obstacles that keep them from receiving the Eucharist bodily. Christ is as fully present and as truly real here as he was when he sat among the Apostles and said, "This is my Body, this is my Blood." Thus, anyone who adores and honors Jesus in the Eucharist, believing that he is their Savior, is feasting on the source of their eternal life.

How do you know that the Eucharist is truly the high point and center of your life? What's missing from your current experience of meeting Jesus in person in the miracle that takes place on the altar?

How has the Eucharist been life-giving for you? Share how Jesus has healed you or revealed himself to you or nurtured you through his presence in the consecrated bread, either in Holy Communion or during Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. How do you know it was really him? How did it change you?

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Registration for 2018 to 2019 is in progress. Please call office for information, and do not wait until September to register your child. We will send out information for classes in this month. Thank you to all the volunteers who participated in the training to be religious education teachers.

Thank you to Fr. Osvaldo who came to our class and gave us great advice and teachings of our Catholic faith. It was a great week. We are still looking for volunteers to teach religion for 1st, 3rd, 4th and 6th grades.

The religious education classes are from the beginning of September to mid- May. Please take time to pray about it. Our children need you. In a Parish Community, we need to take care of all of God's children not just our own. Many blessings.

Please continue praying for our students.

REFLEXIÓN DE LAS BUENAS NUEVAS

El pasaje del Evangelio de este domingo es una presentación de Cristo sobre la Eucaristía. Él dice: "El que cree tiene vida eterna. Yo soy el pan de vida". ¿Por qué llama a la Eucaristía "el pan de vida"? ¿Cómo nos da vida? Él responde: "El que come de este pan, vivirá para siempre; y el pan que yo daré es mi carne para la vida del mundo." En otras palabras, se entregó a nosotros - dio su vida por nosotros - en la cruz. Nuestros pecados nos ponen en el camino de la muerte, pero Él, que no tenía pecado y era de naturaleza divina, cargó nuestra muerte sobre sí mismo para que pudiéramos tener la vida eterna de Dios. Por su resurrección el derrotó esta muerte. Por lo tanto, su cuerpo crucificado y resucitado, es la fuente de nuestra vida. Esto es lo que celebramos en la Misa. El "sacrificio del altar" es nuestra participación en Cristo - su vida, su ministerio, su crucifixión por nuestros pecados, su resurrección y su ascensión al cielo. Nos unimos con Él al ofrecerle nuestras vidas, para que pueda pastorear al mundo a través de nosotros, sacrificando nuestra voluntad donde interfiere con la suya, la cual es resucitada en una nueva vida, mientras seguimos a Cristo hacia el cielo. Cada Misa Católica logra esto proporcionándonos el cuerpo y la sangre de nuestro Salvador, aquí y ahora, en la forma de alimento comestible: el pan de vida. Como señaló San Juan Pablo II en su encíclica La Iglesia Vive de la Eucaristía, "El Concilio Vaticano II proclamó acertadamente que el banquete Eucarístico de la Misa es 'fuente y culmen de la vida cristiana'." Esta santa comunión nos viene del sacrificio salvador de Cristo, a través de generaciones y generaciones de sacerdocio apostólico, que comenzó con los primeros Apóstoles. Todos los que asisten a la liturgia de esta comunión deberían celebrar verdaderamente, la presencia Eucarística de Jesús, incluso los que todavía tienen trabajo por hacer para eliminar los obstáculos que les impiden recibir la Eucaristía en el cuerpo. Cristo está presente plenamente y es verdaderamente real ahora como cuando se sentó entre los Apóstoles y dijo: "Esto es mi Cuerpo, esta es mi Sangre". Por lo tanto, cualquier persona que adore y rinda homenaje a Jesús en la Eucaristía, creyendo que Él es su Salvador, está festejando en la fuente de su vida eterna.

¿Cómo sabes que la Eucaristía es verdaderamente el culmen y el centro de tu vida? ¿Qué falta en tu experiencia actual de conocer a Jesús en persona, en el milagro que tiene lugar en el altar? ¿Cómo te ha dado vida a ti la Eucaristía? Comparte cómo te ha sanado Jesús o cómo se ha revelado a ti o te ha alimentado a través de su presencia en el pan consagrado, ya sea en la Sagrada Comunión o durante la Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento. ¿Cómo sabes que era realmente Él? ¿Cómo te cambió? © 2018 Terry Modica, Catholic Digital Resources, www.catholicdr.com. PROGRAMA DE EDUCACION RELIGIOSA

Las inscripciones para 2018 a 2019 están en progreso. Por favor llame a la oficina para obtener información y no espere hasta septiembre para inscribir a su hijo. Le enviaremos información para las clases durante este mes de agosto. Gracias a todos los voluntarios que participaron en la formación para ser maestros de educación religiosa. Gracias al P. Osvaldo quien vino a nuestra clase y nos dio buenos consejos y enseñanzas de nuestra fe católica. Fue una gran semana. Todavía estamos buscando voluntarios para enseñar religión para los grados 1ro, 3er, 4to y 6to. Las clases de educación religiosa son del principio de septiembre a mediados de mayo. Por favor tome tiempo para orar sobre ser catequista. Nuestros niños nos necesitan. En una comunidad parroquial, tenemos que cuidar de todos los niños de Dios no solamente lo de nosotros. Muchas bendiciones. Por favor sigan orando por nuestros estudiantes.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION OF OUR BLESSED MOTHER INTO HEAVEN

This Wednesday, August 15th, we celebrate Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven. Our Mass schedule will be: Vigil Mass, Tuesday, August 14th at 7:30PM in Spanish; on Wednesday, August 15th, 7:30AM English; 9:00AM English and Spanish; 5:30PM English. The following reflection about the Assumption is from Pope Francis. In union with the whole Church, we celebrate the Assumption of Our Lady, body and soul, into the glory of heaven. Mary's Assumption shows us our own destiny as God's adoptive children and members of the body of Christ. Like Mary our Mother, we are called to share fully in the Lord's victory over sin and death, and to reign with him in his eternal Kingdom. This is our vocation. True freedom is found in our loving embrace of the Father's will. From Mary, full of grace, we learn that Christian freedom is more than liberation from sin. It is freedom for a new, spiritual way of seeing earthly realities. It is the freedom to love God and our brothers and sisters with a pure heart, and to live a life of joyful hope for the coming of Christ's Kingdom. We ask Mary to help us to be faithful to the royal freedom we received on the day of our Baptism, to guide our efforts to transform the world in accordance with God's plan, and to enable the Church to be ever more fully a leaven of his Kingdom in the midst of the world. May the Christians be a generous force for spiritual renewal at every level of society.

What is the RCIA Program?

It is a program for adults (18 +) who haven't received one or more of these sacraments: Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation. The first meeting will take place this Wednesday, Sept 12 at 7PM in the school library.

COLLECTION FOR THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

Next week, Sunday, August 19th, we will have a second collection. It will be for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith of the Archdiocese of New York. Part of this collection will be to receive the names of those who wish to support the Society directly and receive its special magazine.

This can be done by filling out the special envelope for the collection and returning it in the collection.

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith exists to promote the ministry of evangelization through the four Pontifical Mission Societies. These form the Catholic Church's official support organization for the spreading of the gospel in the world, by fostering awareness of, and raising funds for the worldwide missionary and pastoral work of the Church.

The Pontifical Mission Societies are: Propagation of the Faith Holy Childhood Association St. Peter Apostle Missionary Union of Priests and Religious Their common task is to keep before us the essential truth that the Church is missionary by its very nature. The Pontifical Mission Societies exist now in more than 120 countries. Each society seeks to promote prayer and sacrifice for the world-wide mission of Jesus. Over 1,150 dioceses in Asia, Africa, Oceania and remote areas of Latin and South America receive assistance from the general funds distributed globally on the basis of need.

FIESTA DE LA ASUNCION DE NUESTRA BENDITA MADRE MARIA

Este miércoles, 15 de agosto, celebramos la Fiesta de la Asunción de la Bendita Virgen Maria en el cielo. El horario de las Misas será: vigilia, martes, 14 agosto, 7:30PM Español; miércoles, 15 agosto, 7:30AM Ingles; 9:00AM bilingüe; 5:30PM Ingles. Sigue una reflexión sobre la Asunción de la Bendita Virgen Maria de Papa Francisco. En unión con toda la Iglesia celebramos la Asunción de Nuestra Señora en cuerpo y alma a la gloria del cielo. La Asunción de María nos muestra nuestro destino como hijos adoptivos de Dios y miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo. Como María, nuestra Madre, estamos llamados a participar plenamente en la victoria del Señor sobre el pecado y sobre la muerte y a reinar con él en su Reino eterno. Ésta es nuestra vocación. La verdadera libertad se encuentra en la acogida amorosa de la voluntad del Padre. De María, llena de gracia, aprendemos que la libertad cristiana es algo más que la simple liberación del pecado. Es la libertad que nos permite ver las realidades terrenas con una nueva luz espiritual, la libertad para amar a Dios y a los hermanos con un corazón puro y vivir en la gozosa esperanza de la venida del Reino de Cristo. Pedimos a Maria que nos ayude a ser fieles a la libertad real que hemos recibido el día de nuestro bautismo, que guíe nuestros esfuerzos para transformar el mundo según el plan de Dios, y que haga que la Iglesia de este país sea más plenamente levadura de su Reino en medio de la sociedad coreana.

¿Qué es el programa RICA?

Es un programa para adultos (18+) que no han recibido uno o más de los siguientes sacramentos: Bautismo, Primera Comunión, Confirmación. La primera reunión será el domingo, 9 de sept a las 11:15am en la biblioteca de la escuela.

COLECTA PARA LA SOCIEDAD PARA LA PROPACION DE LA FE

La próxima semana, el Domingo 19 de agosto, vamos a tener una segunda colecta. Sera para la Sociedad colecta para la Sociedad por la Propagación de la Fe de la Arquidiócesis de Nueva York. Parte de esta colecta será recibir los nombres de aquellos que quieran dar su apoyo la Sociedad directamente y recibir su revista especial. Esto puede hacerse llenando el sobre especial para la colecta y devolverlo en la canasta de la colecta. La Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe existe para promover el ministerio de evangelización a través de las cuatro Obras Misionales Pontificias (OMP). Estos forman la organización de apoyo oficial de la iglesia católica para la difusión del Evangelio en el mundo, mediante el fomento de la sensibilización y recaudación de fondos para los misioneros en todo el mundo y el trabajo pastoral de la Iglesia. Las OMP son: Propagación de la Fe, Obra de la Infancia San Pedro Apóstol, Unión Misional de sacerdotes y religiosos Su tarea común es mantener ante nosotros la verdad esencial que la Iglesia es misionera por su propia naturaleza. Las OMP existe ahora en más de 120 países. Cada sociedad busca promover la oración y el sacrificio por la misión mundial de Jesús. Más de 1,150 diócesis en Asia, África, Oceanía y las zonas remotas de América y América del Sur reciben ayuda de los fondos generales distribuidos globalmente sobre la base de necesidad.
