St. Joseph Guild
We are going to try something new! I have a parishioner who has for a little over a year wondered about starting a St. Joseph Guild. What is that? A St. Joseph Guild is simply one day a month, for men to come together and work on little projects around the Cathedral. Starting on Saturday, February 11, following the 8:00 a.m. Mass, the men of the parish who feel 'handy' are invited to come fix and make right various parts of our buildings and grounds. We will always be done by 10:30 a.m. even if it means projects are incomplete and have to wait until the next month. The group will be meeting on the second Saturday of every month. There is no formal membership. It is simply a show up and help out kind of thing. You need to bring your own tools. What are we going to work on? Well that will depend upon the skill set of the men who show up and what is on the list for that month. Basically, fixit projects and maybe some grounds and cleaning.

No women? Yes, this is a guy thing. I am VERY aware that women can be 'handy' as well, but this is a way for the men of the parish to do a thing together.

Parish Retreat
Our parish will be holding a retreat on March 10, 11, & 12 here at the parish. The theme is the Kerygma, which is a Greek word that summarized the basics of salvation. Everyone is invited. This might be a good thing to invite your friends to as well. Cost for the weekend is $40 per person. If you cannot make the Friday or Sunday portions, please still signup and come for the rest of the weekend. You will be going home each night and coming back to the parish on the next day. Friday begins at 7:00 p.m. and goes roughly until 9:00 p.m., Saturday starts at 9:00 a.m. and lasts until around 8:00 p.m. with lunch and dinner included. Sunday begins again at 9:00 a.m. and finishes with the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Information on how to signup is on our website and elsewhere in the bulletin.

Parish Formation Night
We begin our monthly formation nights once again this Wednesday and on the following three first Wednesdays as well. The topic is 'Ecclesiology', which simply put is about the Church. What is the Church really? How do we understand it? What difference that make for the individual Catholic? We gather at 7:00 p.m. in the parish hall and are done by 8:30 p.m.

February 7, Welcoming and Outreach
In general the diocese askes every parish to look at three areas of its life. Welcome, formation, and encounter. How does a parish invite new members and get them involved? How is that person formed in the faith leading the individual to a deeper relationship with Jesus and the Church? What type of opportunities is the parish offering to help people have an encounter with Jesus? The last one is why we have parish retreats and our parish mission last year. It is also covered by our youth and confirmation retreats. The second is met with our parish formation nights, bible studies, and offering Formed for those who wish to study on their own. Small faith sharing and prayer groups also fit well into this category.

The first area is something that I would like us to focus a little more attention on. On Tuesday, February 7, at 7:00 p.m. we will be having a meeting to talk about reaching out to our neighborhoods and how we follow up with people who are interested in joining the parish. Please meet me in the parish hall.

You are in my prayers. Fr. Karl Pung

Lansing's Church of the Resurrection is hosting a musical celebration of its 100 years Saturday, February 4th at 6:30pm in the Church (following the 5pm Mass), a free concert honoring the legacy of Ursula Klein. Miss Klein served the Parish for over 50 of those 100 years, teaching music to all ages: elementary, middle, high school and adults. She played and sang for countless weddings and funerals, and encouraged generations of people to persevere in their musical endeavors. Choirs of former and current Resurrection musicians and students will perform in tribute, along with organists Dr. Conrad Donakowski, Doug Austin and Michael Garnett. Please come and be inspired! Free admission, reception and exhibits to follow in Mercy Hall!
