RCIA – Our Sacramental Journey

The single, most-powerful influence on a non-Catholic's decision to investigate the Catholic Church through the RCIA is a personal invitation.

Through Baptism, each one of us is called upon to evangelize – to help others become aware of and listen to the voice of God in their lives.

Have you invited those people in your life who are searching for a better relationship with God - by your words and/or actions - into a deeper conversation with God? Now would be a magnificent time to reach out and invite them into that conversation!

Our RCIA Cathechumen and Candidate are still working their way through an investigation of the Sacraments. Current topics are the Sacraments of Initiation – Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Future sessions will see the group investigating the theology behind each of the Sacraments, and will discuss what each of the Sacraments says about who we are and what we believe as Catholics. The symbols and rituals associated with the celebration of the Sacraments will also be explored.

Please continue to join us in praying for our Catechumen – Emma, our Candidate – Hannah, and our Inquirer – Jessica, who are active in our RCIA program. Individuals who would like to know more about the Catholic Faith can connect with someone on our RCIA team for basic information or to set up an appointment to discuss specific questions or goals; contact Maureen Evers (847-362-1005 or mevers@maryofvernon.org) or Mark Zwolski (847-644-7073 or mrzwolski@gmail.com).

On Sunday, June 30th Fr. Joe will celebrate his final Mass as Pastor of St. Mary of Vernon at the 11:15am Mass. To celebrate this occasion the parish will host a lunch in the Parish Center immediately after to thank him for serving us as our Pastor for 21 years.

We invite all parishioners to join us for this special Mass and lunch. Since lunch will be catered reservations are required via the parish website or by calling the parish office.

Upcoming Transition to Retired/Associate Pastor

As everyone is very much aware, we are in "transition" mode as a parish. After 21 years as your pastor, I will be moving on at the end of June. Fr. Ignatius Anaeli will pick up as pastor in July.

In a way, the Priest Placement Board created a new category for the likes of me: retired / associate pastor. Retired (for insurance purposes) and associate pastor, because I feel I have more to give and share as an associate before full retirement.

Because of the shortage of priests, priests are now being appointed pastor much younger. Also, it is not unusual for there to be just one priest/pastor for a parish of 3500 and more families.

My assignment came through officially on Friday – St. Paul the Apostle Parish in Gurnee.

Here's a little background on St. Paul's: Carmel High School, in its beginnings, was staffed with a number of Carmelite priests. They asked the Cardinal if they could staff a parish as a real connection to parishes and families in Lake County. Now the Carmelite order has decided to step away from St. Paul's parish and the parish will now return to Archdiocesan hands as of June 30th.

Fr. Chris Ciaston has been assigned as their new diocesan priest pastor. Some of you might remember Fr. Chris when he was a Mundelein Seminary intern here at SMV. He was ordained in 2007, a priest now for 12 years.

So, I will be his retired / associate pastor – and will be able to be his mentor once again, only this time as he takes on his role as new pastor.

Details are still being worked out. Please keep Fr. Chris in your prayers – especially that Fr. Chris will be able to handle this "old geezer".

Fr. Joe

The Unemployment Line

HOW TO MESS UP YOUR RESUME – PART 4

Focus on Job Tasks Instead of Accomplishments

If your resume reads like the original job description you saw when you applied, it's time to spice it up. Many of us focus too much on our job tasks/functions and fail to devote time to effectively marketing our best skill sets, contributions, and all-star moments.

The Fix: Instead of talking about the day-to-day, describe the big picture impact you had. The most effective thing to do is to have a separate core skills section and focus your work experience section on results, major contributions and key projects you have worked on through your career. Highlighting the various ways you have distinguished yourself over time is one of the best ways to separate yourself from your job-seeking competition.

The purpose of our Wellspring Employment Resource Community (WERC) ministry is to provide a safe and effective forum for sharing work search tools and techniques which can enable unemployed, underemployed, and job-searching parishioners in their efforts to find meaningful and rewarding work. All are welcome – from recent graduates looking for that first job to the individual looking to make a change in their career or current role to the seasoned job hunter. Questions? Contact the WERC team at SMVWERC@gmail.com.

Upcoming "WERC" Events

Next Meeting: Monday, June 24th at 7:30 PM –WERC Support Group
WERC members and guests will have the opportunity to meet to ask questions of our team and each other, network, share success stories and advice, and discuss some of the challenges of the job search. This meeting will take place in Rooms 110-112 of the Parish Center. All are welcome.

"Around the Corner…"

St. Joseph Employment Ministry – next up: June 5, 2019 – Target Networking: Creating and Using Your Handbill
This session will involve hands-on use of the databases and tools covered in the May 1 "Targeting Companies" session. (If you missed the May 1 meeting, don't let that stop you from participating in the June 5 session.)
One of the most effective job networking tools is the "handbill" or networking brief, yet too many job seekers and career changers are just not familiar with this simple variant of their resume. A well-designed handbill can substantially shorten your transition time. At our next meeting, Dan Barber, career transition expert, will present a talk entitled Network into Target Companies Using Your Handbill. Take advantage of this opportunity to increase the effectiveness of your networking meetings. After Dan's talk we will discuss this and other topics of interest to those of us in career transition.

Also on the calendar: June 19 – Evaluating the Job Offer. Meetings are held from 7:00-9:00 p.m. at the Formation Center (112 N Milwaukee, Libertyville 60048), Room C. Please enter from the rear of the building. All are welcome!

Sharing Hands Food Pantry Item For June:

Please bring your donations to Mass or to the Sharing Hands drop-off door on the side of the Parish Center (call for the daily code). We will see that the items get to needy families. Please ensure that food items are not past their expiration date. We must dispose of them if they are.
