Readings and Hymns for Palm Sunday

Processional Hymn

All Glory, Laud and Honor

Refrain: All glory, laud and honor To you, Redeemer King!
To whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.

You are the King of Israel, and David's royal Son,
Now in the Lord's Name coming, Our King and Blessed One.

1st Reading - Isaiah 50:4-7

The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

Responsorial Psalm –

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

All who see me scoff at me;
they mock me with parted lips, they wag their heads:
"He relied on the LORD; let him deliver him,
let him rescue him, if he loves him."
R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Indeed, many dogs surround me,
a pack of evildoers closes in upon me;
They have pierced my hands and my feet;
I can count all my bones.
R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

They divide my garments among them,
and for my vesture they cast lots.
But you, O LORD, be not far from me;
O my help, hasten to aid me.
R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

I will proclaim your name to my brethren;
in the midst of the assembly I will praise you:
"You who fear the LORD, praise him;
all you descendants of Jacob, give glory to him;
revere him, all you descendants of Israel!"
R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

2nd Reading – Philippians 2:6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel – Mark 14:1-15:47

PASSION AND DEATH OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

Recessional Hymn

O Sacred Head, Surrounded

O Sacred Head, surrounded by crown of piecing thorn!
O bleeding Head so wounded, reviled and put to scorn!
The power of death comes o'er you, the glow of life decays,
Yet angel hosts adore you, and tremble as they gaze.

My Dear Parish Family,

Here we are at last -- Holy Week. These coming days are the highest and most solemn on the Catholic calendar. In a very human way they will be that much more special this year since were not able to come together for them last year. In a way it feels like we've experienced an entire year of Good Fridays. But our faith reminds us and teaches us that Good Friday is never the end of the story.

Easter and Resurrection will come and bring us new life! That's my prayer for your families and for our parish this Easter, that as we slowly leave the pandemic and the difficulties of this past year behind, we might come to new life. This coming Easter invites us into a renewed relationship with our Savior. Maybe this Palm Sunday or Easter is your first time back to church since the pandemic began. Good! Jesus is here to welcome you. Maybe you haven't been to confession in a long time and are ready to ask for forgiveness. Good! Jesus is here to welcome you. Maybe you find yourself coming home to the Church after many years away. Good! Jesus is here to welcome you. So, take Him up on His invitation and get things started by joining us for our celebrations during this Holy Week. We can't wait to see you!

Pax,

Fr. Dan

CELEBRATING THE TRIDUUM

Day 1— The Day Christ Gave Himself Up . . . This day begins on the evening of Holy Thursday with Christ sharing His Last Supper with the Disciples in the upper room. The day then moves to Good Friday to Christ's arrest in the Garden, His trial, and His Crucifixion. We partake in Holy Communion, pray and meditate on the Passion, venerate the cross, and contemplate the Mystery of Christ's Sacrifice.

Day 2— As the sun sets on Good Friday, the second day of the Triduum begins. Jesus' lifeless Body is taken down from the Cross, wrapped in a linen cloth and laid into a tomb cut out of rock. United with Jesus in the tomb, the Church is silent at this time, having no Mass until the Easter Vigil.

Day 3— At the setting of the sun of Holy Saturday, the darkness of death gives way to bright light of Resurrection joy as Easter morning dawns. At the Easter Vigil, candles are lit from the new fire as the story of salvation is read. Christians everywhere welcome the rising of the Son of God. Alleluias ring out in worship and praise to the One who gives life to all.

Good Friday is a day of fast and abstinence

THE SHARING BOXES

We have made available again this Lent the "Sharing Boxes." Please place the proceeds from your Lenten fasts into the Sharing Box and return to church during Holy Week and Easter.

Thank You in Advance for Your Generosity.

ANNUAL HOLY LAND COLLECTION
Good Friday, April 2nd

The Annual Holy Land collection will be taken on Good Friday for the Shrines (and people) of the Holy Land. At this sacred time of year please be as generous as your means allow.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.
