The Weekly Article from

Father Shane Campbell

It has been nice to have Benjamin Wanner back for the summer and helping out at the weekend liturgies. Ben will be entering his third year in seminary and will travel to Rome this fall. I asked Ben to share a bit about himself and his journey with the parish. Please remember to keep him in your prayers. Blessings, Ben!

Have a blessed week,
Fr. Campbell

Father Campbell has asked me to write a little update on how I am doing in my seminary formation. To be honest, I could not be doing much better! I just finished my second year at the St. John Vianney Seminary in St. Paul, MN – two years of exponential growth in wisdom and virtue to say the least. I am doing very well in all my classes and areas of formation, and I am still on my academic track majoring in Philosophy, Catholic Studies, and Latin. This year I also had the privilege of teaching a confirmation class for my apostolic outreach at a local Hispanic parish. Boy was the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe a fun experience!

Speaking about my academic track, I will be going on a much different track this fall semester. I am honored to have the opportunity to study in Rome at the Angelicum this upcoming fall; so please do not expect me to reply to your mail very quickly if you send a letter to St. Paul! I will be staying at the Irish College (with Irish major seminarians) which is located fairly close to the Colosseum. I have a feeling that I am going to be taking a few more morning runs this year! I will be in Rome with Jordan Dosch, Jarad Wolf, Gregory Crane, Scott Lefor, Brandon Wolf, Christian Smith, Jacob Degele, and Matthew Koppinger (see the seminarian poster).

Thank you all so much for all your prayers and support for me. Please continue to pray for me, my brother seminarians, and for an abundant increase in vocations to religious life, diocesan priesthood, and sacramental marriages especially in the seminaria of Saint Joseph and the Diocese of Bismarck.
