Blessed Trinity Catholic Church

Love

The angel of the Lord
appeared to him in a dream and said,
"Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home.
For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her.
She will bear a Son and you are to name Him Jesus,
because He will save His people from their sins."

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Anticipating Emmanuel

Loving Father and King of Glory,
you accept us with all of our flaws.
As we anticipate the nativity of our Lord,
we are reminded that we should seek to model the humility
of Mary and Joseph
and obey God's will.
Help us find the serenity
to ready our hearts to welcome others,
as Mary and Joseph welcomed Jesus.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, December 18, 2022
Submitting to God's Will

Today's readings: Isaiah 7:10–14; Psalm 24:1–2, 3–4, 5–6; Romans 1:1–7; Matthew 1:18–24. In the second reading, St. Paul is referred to as "a slave of Christ Jesus." The word slave to Paul means "one who is devoted to the service of another." The apostle emulates what we are called to do and to become as Christians. In serving God, we submit to a duty that stems from our baptism.

Numerous works of art beautifully reflect Mary's yes at the annunciation. Today, we hear of St. Joseph's yes. When an angel appears to Joseph in a dream, telling him not to be afraid "to take Mary your wife into your home," Joseph responds with action. "When Joseph awoke," the Gospel tells us, "he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took his wife into his home." As another account of the nativity, this is a wonderful story to share with children and teenagers. Becoming the foster father of Jesus was not something that was done to Joseph; he accepted his role with eyes of faith.

This week pray for stronger faith to continue to ponder the mystery that is God-among-us. The Lord is here, and he is yet to come. Salvation is promised, and it is near. Joyful expectation, indeed. The second "O" antiphon is prayed today, moving us closer to Christmas: "O sacred Lord . . . Come . . . to set us free."

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, December 19
O Flower of Jesse's Stem

In today's Gospel, we hear the angel tell Zechariah that his barren wife, Elizabeth, will give birth to the child John, who "will be great in the sight of the Lord." Take a moment today to ask God's blessing on all women who struggle to become pregnant, all who have difficult pregnancies, and those who will deliver a child this day. At a family meal, pray for parents, grandparents, foster parents, and all who work tirelessly to raise children. Today's readings: Judges 13:2–7, 24–25a; Psalm 71:3–4a, 5–6ab; 16–17; Luke 1:5–25.

Tuesday, December 20
O Key of David

Consider the "O" antiphon reference to Jesus as the key of David as the key to unlock our heavenly home. Today's Gospel reveals how Mary's words, "May it be done to me according to your word," gave her a role in salvation history. Before going to bed, read aloud the story of the annunciation from Luke as a way to joyfully anticipate Christmas. Today's readings: Isaiah 7:10–14; Psalm 24:1–2, 3–4ab, 5–6; Luke 1:26–38.

Wednesday, December 21
St. Peter Canisius

Today's "O" antiphon prays: "O Radiant Dawn, / splendor of eternal light, sun of justice: / Come, shine on those who dwell in darkness / and the shadow of death." The life work of St. Peter Canisius, a sixteenth-century German Jesuit priest and educator, was much like the "radiant dawn." He was dedicated to leading people from the "darkness" of distorted Catholic beliefs to the "radiant light" of correct information and right practice. He created several catechisms, helping adults and children know the true faith. Read St. Paul's letter to Timothy from your Bible. The letter models the work of St. Peter Canisius and gives guidance for our lives. Today's readings: Song of Songs 2:8–14 or Zephaniah 3:14–18a; Psalm 33:2–3, 11–12, 20–21; Luke 1:39–45.

Thursday, December 22
O King of All Nations

Jesus came as the Son of God so that we would know God the divine Father. Begin the day by reading the Magnificat from today's Gospel from Luke. Let Mary's praise of God seep into your heart. Praise God in what you plan and do today as you finish your preparations for Christmas. Today's readings: Samuel 1:24–28; 1 Samuel 2:1, 4–5, 6–7, 8abcd; Luke 1:46–56.

Friday, December 23
St. John of Kanty

Today's "O" antiphon asks Emmanuel to "come and set us free." If possible, as a final preparation for Christmas, attend Mass. After receiving Communion, pray that you may become what you have received. Like St. John of Kanty, we are sometimes misunderstood, and are victims of injustice. But like St. John, we are so loved by God that we should trust in God's unconditional love. Today's readings: Malachi 3:1–4, 23–24; Psalm 25:4–5ab, 8–9, 10 and 14; Luke 1:57–66.

Saturday, December 24
Daybreak

In a Christmas Eve homily, St. Oscar Romero focused on the poverty of spirit needed for a true celebration of Christmas: "No one can celebrate a genuine Christmas without being truly poor. The self-sufficient, the proud, those who, because they have everything, look down on others, those who have no need even of God—for them there will be no Christmas. Only . . . those who need someone to come on their behalf, will have that someone. That someone is God, Emmanuel, God-with-us. Without poverty of spirit there can be no abundance of God" (published in An Advent Sourcebook [Chicago: Liturgy Training Publications, 1988]). Today's readings: 2 Samuel 7:1–5, 8b–12, 14a, 16; Psalm 89:2–3, 4–5, 27 and 29; Luke 1:67–79.

KEEPING THE SEASONS ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS 2022-2023

CUARTO DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

Anhelar al Emmanuel

Padre amoroso y Rey de gloria,
nos aceptas con todos nuestros defectos.
Al anhelar la natividad de nuestro Señor,
nos invitas a abrazar
la humildad de María y José
y a ser dóciles a tu voluntad.
Ayúdanos a encontrar serenidad
para preparar un corazón que acoja
a los demás,
como María y José abrazaron a Jesús.
Por Cristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

Dóciles a la voluntad de Dios

Lecturas del día: Isaías 7:10–14; Salmo 24:1–2, 3–4, 5–6; Romanos 1:1–7; Mateo 1:18–24. En la segunda lectura, san Pablo dice ser "esclavo de Cristo Jesús". El Apóstol es "alguien dedicado a servir a otro". Ejemplifica lo que estamos llamados a ser y hacer los cristianos. Al servir a Dios, nos sometemos a un deber que deriva de nuestro bautismo.

Numerosas obras de arte reflejan bellamente el sí de María en la Anunciación. Hoy, escuchamos del sí de san José. Cuando en sueños, un ángel se le aparece a José y le dice: "No temas recibir a María como esposa tuya", José la lleva a su casa. "Cuando José se despertó", dice el relato, "hizo lo que el ángel del Señor le había ordenado y recibió a María como esposa". Como otro relato de la historia de la natividad, ésta es una historia maravillosa para compartir con niños y adolescentes. Convertirse en el padre adoptivo de Jesús no fue algo que José provocara; él aceptó su papel con ojos de fe.

Esta semana ore por una fe más fuerte para seguir meditando en el misterio de Dios entre nosotros. El Señor está aquí y aún está por venir. La salvación está prometida y cerca; esperanza gozosa, de hecho. Hoy la segunda antífona "Oh" nos impulsa a la Navidad: "Oh Adonai… ven a librarnos con el poder de tu brazo".

ESTA SEMANA EN CASA

Lunes, 19 de diciembre
Oh Renuevo del tronco de Jesé

En el evangelio, el ángel dice a Zacarías que su esposa estéril, Isabel, dará a luz a Juan, quien "será grande a los ojos del Señor". Dedique un momento hoy para pedir la bendición de Dios para las mujeres que luchan por quedar embarazadas, las que tienen embarazos difíciles y las que hoy darán a luz. En la comida familiar, oren por los padres, abuelos, padres adoptivos y cuantos trabajan incansablemente para criar a sus hijos. Lecturas del día: Jueces 13:2–7, 24–25a; Salmo 71:3–4a, 5–6ab; 16–17; Lucas 1:5–25.

Martes, 20 de diciembre
Oh Llave de David

Medite en la referencia de la antífona "Oh" a Jesús como Llave de David, llave que abre nuestro hogar celestial. El evangelio de hoy revela cómo las palabras de María, "Hágase en mí según tu palabra", le dieron un papel en la historia de nuestra salvación. Antes de dormir, lea en voz alta la historia de la Anunciación de Lucas a modo de anticipar con alegría la Navidad. Lecturas del día: Isaías 7:10–14; Salmo 24:1–2, 3–4ab, 5–6; Lucas 1:26–38.

Miércoles, 21 de diciembre
San Pedro Canisio

La antífona "Oh" de hoy reza: "Oh sol que naces de lo alto, resplandor de la luz eterna, sol de justicia, ven a iluminar a los que viven en tinieblas y en sombras de muerte". La obra de toda la vida de san Pedro Canisio, sacerdote y educador jesuita alemán del siglo XVI, se parecía mucho al "resplandor de la luz eterna". Se dedicó a guiar a la gente desde la "oscuridad" de las creencias católicas distorsionadas a la "luz eterna" de la información y la práctica correctas. Creó varios catecismos y ayudó a adultos y niños a conocer la fe verdadera. Lea la Primera carta de san Pablo a Timoteo. La carta modela la obra de san Pedro Canisio y orienta nuestra vida. Lecturas del día: Cantar de Cantares 2:8–14 o Sofonías 3:14–18a; Salmo 33:2–3, 11–12, 20–21; Lucas 1:39–45.

Jueves, 22 de diciembre
Oh Rey de las naciones

Jesús vino para que conociéramos a Dios, el Padre divino. Comience el día leyendo el Magníficat del evangelio de hoy de san Lucas. Que la alabanza de María a Dios se filtre en su corazón. Alabe a Dios por lo que usted planea y hará hoy mientras alista sus preparativos para la Navidad. Lecturas del día: Samuel 1:24–28; 1 Samuel 2:1, 4–5, 6–7, 8abcd; Lucas 1:46–56.

Viernes, 23 de diciembre
San Juan de Kanty

La antífona "Oh" de hoy le pide al Emmanuel, "Ven a salvarnos". Si es posible, como preparación final para la Navidad, asista a misa. Tras recibir la Comunión, ore para que usted sea transformado en lo que ha recibido. Como san Juan de Kanty, a veces somos incomprendidos y víctimas de la injusticia. Pero, al igual que él, también somos tan amados por Dios que debemos confiar en ese amor incondicional. Lecturas del día: Malaquías 3:1–4, 23–24; Salmo 25:4–5ab, 8–9, 10 y 14; Lucas 1:57–66.

Sábado, 24 de diciembre
Alborada

En una homilía de Nochebuena, san Oscar Romero habló de la pobreza de espíritu: "Nadie puede celebrar una Navidad genuina sin ser verdaderamente pobre. Los autosuficientes, los orgullosos, los que, porque lo tienen todo, menosprecian a los demás, los que no tienen necesidad ni siquiera de Dios, para ellos no habrá Navidad. Sólo… aquellos que necesitan que alguien venga a ayudarlos tendrán a ese alguien. Ese alguien es Dios, el Emmanuel, Dios con nosotros. Sin pobreza de espíritu no puede haber abundancia de Dios" (trad. provisional, An Advent Sourcebook [Chicago: Liturgy Training Publications, 1988]). Lecturas del día: Samuel 7:1–5, 8b–12, 14a, 16; Salmo 89:2–3, 4–5, 27 y 29; Lucas 1:67–79.

KEEPING THE SEASONS
ADVIENTO Y NAVIDAD 2022-2023

Merry Christmas and the Holiest of Years in 2023

Hopefully, all of the Blessed Trinity Parishioners accepted the challenge and INVITED one or more non-practicing Catholics to join them at Mass and attend the Catholics Returning Home sessions. They will begin on Thursday, January 5, 2023 in the Welcome Center. We will meet as a group at 7:00PM and go until 8:30PM. There will be facilitators for both English and Spanish speaking individuals. Keeping this commitment, to INVITE one or more persons will help to make a meaningful spiritual preparation for the birth of Christ this Christmas. Just think how excited the Lord will be to see His flock return to the fold! God misses you. He sent His son to redeem us and He wants us to be a part of His kingdom, here on earth and in heaven for eternity. And you can help make this happen!

Won't you help all individuals come back to the graces of the sacraments and be part of our faith filled community? Together, we can make this a reality for Blessed Trinity Catholic Church. Give us a chance, help us help people not practicing their religion, no matter the reason.

Remember it's not too late to contact a friend or family member and INVITE them back. The information is in the tear out section of this bulletin and you can easily use it to 'break the ice' on a delicate, yet important aspect of their life. Bring a friend or family member back to the church!

Parable of the Lost Sheep

Jesus, the Good Shepherd, leaves the 99 sheep to seek the one that is lost. And, when he finds it, he brings it home, and calls everyone in heaven to rejoice more over the one repentant sinner than over the 99 who have no need of repentance.

Gospel of St. Luke 15:3-7
