COVID-19 UPDATE BULLETIN MAY 20, 2020 - MASS ATTENDANCE, ANNUNCIATION CHURCH, PRINCE RUPERT: The Province of British Columbia has recently changed the restrictions concerning Covid-19 isolation. As a result, our Diocese has approved limited attendance at masses. The letter from Bishop Jensen can be found below and outlines the basic requirements which each parish must meet. You are encouraged to inform yourself of these requirements by reading Bishop Jensen's letter.

We are excited to be able to have mass again! However, if we want to keep our church open, we will need your help. Teams of parishioners have been set up after each mass to clean and sanitize the entire church. It will take approximately 20 minutes to do this work. Sufficient volunteers are needed for rotation. An insufficient number of cleaning volunteers means the church must be closed until this work has been done. So, someone will be asking you to volunteer your time. If no one has approached you, please speak to Anne Falvo (778-884-1348), Andrea Dantas (250-600-5642) or Marija Muhic (at the church) and offer your help so that we can stay open!

In addition to the Diocesan requirements, individuals attending mass will need to sign an attendance log book with name, telephone, cell phone and email information. This information is needed in order to assist health officials with tracking should a virus outbreak occur. A log book will also be maintained by the parish to record cleaning/sanitizing done after each mass.

Each mass is limited to 50 people attending. To enable the parish to control the number of individuals attending Sunday mass the parish has set up an online (internet) registration system where individuals can register for mass. Once the maximum number has been reached you will need to choose another mass. In fairness to all, registration is renewed every week. In addition, some of the spaces have been set aside for those who do not have internet access. Fr. Terry has agreed to hold an additional mass on Sunday if there are sufficient numbers. You will not need to register for weekday masses.

Saturday Mass 5:00 PM
Sunday Mass 10:00 AM
Sunday Mass 11:30 AM

There will also be some practical changes during mass concerning safe distancing, collections, communion, etc. which Fr. Terry will review during the first weekend. For those who continue to be unable to attend mass for health or other personal reasons, mass on Sunday mornings will continue to be broadcast live (streamed) through Facebook at Annunciation Church PR.
