Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

The Prayer Before Mass

Come Holy Spirit, quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my family, friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass. Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from worship. Open my mouth in prayer and song. Open my ears to hear God's Word. Open my eyes to the mystery of the Eucharist. Open my heart to receive Jesus with love. May I go forth strengthened to take the Mass into my life this week. Amen.

"Once One Chooses to be a Disciple of Christ, Stewardship is not an Option"

The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for many! In Jesus' time, and in ours, power and prestige were the symbols of leadership and authority. Today we hear our Lord telling us that he is different, that he came not only as a servant to all, but to give up his life to free us from slavery. As disciples then, we try to develop a like attitude in our relationships with our neighbors in this world. With God's grace we can practice as true disciples, giving totally of ourselves to care for the needs of our earthly brothers and sisters. May our eyes see Jesus in our neighbor and may our hands be his hands in offering care to one another.

Reflection

"Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant." In the wake of James and John's vanity, Jesus offers this directive. These two apostles had been thinking in terms of prominence, glory, and worldly honor. They wanted their association with Jesus to lead to public recognition and respect as they took their places at his right and left. But Jesus put them in their place.

As was typical of so many of his teachings, Jesus upset the status quo. He told his followers that, although "great ones make their authority over them felt ... it shall not be so among you." Then, he put forward this clear image of the servant leader: "Whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all."

As followers of Christ, this instruction applies to us as well. We are called to the humility of service that seeks neither personal glory nor gain. We are called to use what authority we may have in the world for the benefit of our brothers and sisters, not for the sake of stroking our own egos. It's easy to pat ourselves on the back for the good works that we do --to think that we are superior Christians, that others owe us a debt of gratitude, or that our names should be engraved on a public placard in some noteworthy hall. But Jesus calls us to a different standard --the one he himself exemplified through his life of service. At the same time, today's Gospel gives us cause to meditate upon our association with Jesus and what we hope to get out of it. Why are we Christian? Are we only after the glory of heaven? Are we afraid to publicly profess our faith when it might hurt our reputation? Or are we in this for the love of the Lord, who came into this world "to serve and to give his life as a ransom" for us?
