PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Faith Community, Baptized into Jesus Christ, formed by Word and Sacrament, and Empowered by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, Seek to be a visible sign of God's love. We seek to build the Kingdom of God by: Using our unique gifts to minister to one another, Welcoming all and caring for those in need, Teaching our faith to others and Uniting in worship as a family with the Body of Christ.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF Easter

MAY 8 2022

For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water. Revelation 7:17

Dear St. Paul Family and Friends,

Allow me to once again refresh your memory with "What is (and is not) a Synod?" as adapted from USCCB.

A Synod is a gathering of the faithful in order to listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Church and asking her to be and to do. This gathering can involve the faithful in different ways: pastors with lay people, bishops with the other ordained ministries, pope with bishops, etc. Pope Francis calls it "an exercise of mutual listening, conducted at all levels of the Church and involving the entire People of God." It involves encounter, listening and the discernment of spirits.

Synods have taken many forms in Church history and they are currently practiced in the Church at all levels: from parish Pastoral Council meetings to Diocesan Synods, from Provincial Councils to Plenary Councils, from the assemblies to the Synod of bishops to ecumenical Councils in which the bishops from across the world gather in Rome with the Pope. The practice of gathering to listen to the Spirit is as old as the Church herself, as shown by the "Council" of Jerusalem described in Acts of the Apostles 15. Synod-type mechanisms (listening, dialogue, discernment, deliberation) have always been used in monasteries and religious houses when making decisions. The conclaves, when cardinals meet to elect the new pope, is a synod event.

Pope Francis has sought from the beginning of his pontificate to invigorate and reconfigure the Synod of Bishops so that it might become more of an exercise of listening and discernment. Ever since his election in 2013, he has been teaching the Church about synodality and encouraging us to become a more synodal Church at every level. In an important speech on 17 October, 2015, he said that the path of synodality is what God expects of the Church in the third millennium.

A synodal Church expresses the Second Vatican Council vision of the Church: the People of God in which all baptized share the same dignity, and the essential distinction between lay people, clergy, bishops etc. is a difference of vocation and role, not of superiority.

Thus, I once again invite you to share with us your thoughts on the second of the four sets of questions on pages 9 & 10. Please share the same questions to your family, friends and everyone you know. Thank you.

Dear St. Paul,

I invite you to participate in the upcoming Synod in Synodality with the theme, “For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission.” Synodality expressed the nature of the Church as the people of God journeying together. Pope Francis has invited everyone to participate in a dialogue with one another and with the worldwide Catholic Church. Each individual matters and each of our experiences are valid and in need of being heard. Nobody is excluded – all are welcome. We are on this journey of faith together. Your voice is welcomed.

Please answer the questions as truthfully, charitably and prayerfully as possible.

1. One thing that is a source of joy or sustenance for me spiritually is…

2. One thing that is a struggle for me personally in the faith is…

Thank you! You have participated in the 2nd of the 4 synod questions. The next set of questions will be available next week. You can now tear this page and put it in the box in the foyer of the Church or send to the Parish Office.

Do you want to further this conversation? Please scan this QR Code.

Querido San Pablo,

Les invito a participar en el próximo Sínodo en Sinodalidad con el tema “Para una Iglesia Sinodal: Comunión, Participación, y Misión.” Sinodalidad es la expresión de la naturaleza de la Iglesia como el pueblo de Dios que camina junto. El Papa Francisco ha invitado a todos a participar en un diálogo de unos con otros y con la Iglesia Católica Universal. Cada persona es importante y cada una de nuestras experiencias tienen valides y necesitan ser escuchadas. Nadie está excluido – todos son bienvenidos. Todos estamos juntos en esta jornada de fe. Su opinión es bienvenida

Por favor conteste lo más honestamente, caritativamente, posible y en oración.

1. Una cosa que me causa alegría o que sostiene mi espiritualidad es….

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

2. Una cosa que es una dificultad para mi personalmente en la fe es…

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

¡Muchas gracias! Usted ha participado en la 1ra de las 4 colecciones de preguntas. Las próximas preguntas estarán disponibles la próxima semana. Ahora puede cortar esta página y ponerla en la caja en el vestíbulo de la Iglesia o llévela a la Oficina de la Parroquia.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress
and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
