Once a Saint, always a Saint!

Alleluia! He is Risen!

On behalf of Fr. Alberto, Fr. Tom, and the entire Office Staff, I would like to wish you and your family a very happy and holy Easter season. The Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil) have always been wonderful celebrations here at St. Joseph Church. Each Service, whether it be the Mass of the Institution of the Eucharist, or the Liturgy of the Word and Veneration of the Cross are powerful in their own right. Yet, it's the Easter Vigil that always gets me teary eyed. As my old pastor would often comment from the pulpit, 'Fr. Mike must have his bladder behind his eyes as his eyes always seem to be leaking.'

The witness of those being baptized or making a Profession of Faith in the Catholic Church always touches me to the core. I enjoy looking into the faces of the people as they are lined up on the front steps of the sanctuary facing the congregation. I see an acceptance of God's grace in their lives as they recognize how He brought them to this moment. As I look at their faces I can see the joy of what God has done for them, and the assurance of what God will continue to do for them. I'm also much aware that we don't make this journey alone. The community of believers all have a role in this evangelization process. Many of the people who have come through RCIA have said that it was because of something they experienced while attending a Mass here that encouraged them to learn more about the Catholic faith. Some have said it was the prayerfulness of the people around them or the welcoming attitude of someone they were sitting next to which made them want to learn more. I'm not sure we are aware that the little things we do at Mass can make a difference in someone's life. (I'm sure the same can be said of the differences we can make if we are not paying attention or causing distractions!)

Speaking of how we can impact one another's lives, I'd like to thank all those who have sent Masses, prayers, condolences on the recent death of my sister, Susan. I'm touched at the outpouring of concern, especially since my sister never had the opportunity to visit this parish. Many people commented that I talked about her so much, they felt they knew her. Well, I can assure you that she has given me plenty of homily material for the next few years, and as always, any story I tell, is told with love. I also suggested that my brother should be prepared, because now, I may be using him in upcoming homilies.

As we continue to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus for the next 40 days, let us accept the grace to enter into a deeper relationship with a God who would go through such extreme lengths to give us the opportunity to be with him forever. And may we remember that we too are called to be witnesses of this great event by even the simple way we choose to live our lives.

Fr Mike

"Wake Up The World" 2015

Year of Consecrated Life

Each week we will have insightful quotes and reflections on consecrated life.

We assume the apostles must have been solid, holy people because Jesus handpicked them to be part of his inner circle of friends and disciples. But the gospels present quite a different picture. These were ordinary people who weren't always clear about Jesus' message, who occasionally turned their back on Jesus even when he was most in need, and who struggled with their own faith. The apostles' relationship with Jesus as well as their faith was a work in progress that ultimately brought them closer to God. Like the apostles, we, too, encounter struggles in our relationship with Jesus and our faith. Allow your struggles and missteps to become another positive step in getting to know God more deeply.

—Take Five for Faith

The apostles were ordinary people who weren't always clear about Jesus' message.

April 19: The Agony and the Ecstasy (NR)- Charlton Heston and Rex Harrison portray two of the Renaissance's most colorful figures in this historical drama from the early 16th century. When Pope Julius II (Harrison) commissions Michelangelo (Heston) to paint the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel, the artist initially refuses. Virtually forced to do the job by Julius, he later destroys his own work and flees to Rome. Eventually resumed, the project becomes a battle of wills fueled by artistic and temperamental differences that form the core of this movie. Nominated for an Oscar in Cinematography.
