From the Pastors Desk: Reflection: Mark 10, 35 – 45: "The Son of man came not to be served but to serve"

Jesus did the unthinkable! He wedded authority with selfless service and with loving sacrifice. Authority without sacrificial love is brutish and self-serving. Jesus also used stark language to explain what kind of sacrifice he had in mind. His disciples must drink his cup if they expect to reign with him in his kingdom. The cup he had in mind was a bitter one involving crucifixion. What kind of cup does the Lord have in mind for us? For some disciples such a cup entails physical suffering and the painful struggle of martyrdom. But for many, it entails the long routine of the Christian life, with all its daily sacrifices, disappointments, set-backs, struggles, and temptations. A disciple must be ready to lay down his or her life in martyrdom and be ready to lay it down each and every day in the little and big sacrifices required. An early church father summed up Jesus' teaching with the expression: to serve is to reign with Christ. We share in God's reign by laying down our lives in humble service as Jesus did for our sake. Are you willing to lay down your life and to serve others as Jesus did?

"Lord Jesus, your death brought life and freedom. Jesus teaches us that to serve and not to be served is the way to live in God's Kingdom. Help us to be selfless and to freely give up our place of honor and prestige for the benefit of others. Make our world a place of genuine equality in which there are no rich and no poor. Amen.

Del escritorio del Pastor: Reflexión: Marcos 10, 35-45: "El hijo del hombre vino no para ser servido sino a servir"

Jesús hizo lo impensable! Él conjugo la autoridad con servicio abnegado y con sacrificio amoroso. Autoridad sin amor sacrificial es brutal y egoísta. Jesús también usó lenguaje marcado para explicar qué tipo de sacrificio él tenía en su mente. Sus discípulos deben beber su copa si se esperan a reinar con él en su reino. La copa que tenía en mente era una amarga que implica la crucifixión. ¿Qué tipo de copa tiene el Señor en mente para nosotros? Para algunos discípulos tal copa implica sufrimiento físico y la dolorosa lucha de martirio. Pero para muchos, consiste en la larga rutina de la vida cristiana, con todos sus sacrificios diarios, decepciones, retrocesos, luchas y tentaciones. Un discípulo debe estar dispuesto a dar su vida en martirio y estar dispuesto a poner cada día en los sacrificios pequeños y grandes que se requiere. El padre de una de las primeras iglesias resumió la enseñanza de Jesús con la expresión: a servir es a reinar con Cristo. Compartimos en el Reino de Dios poniendo nuestras vidas en servicio humilde como Jesús lo hizo por nuestro bien. ¿Estás dispuesto a dar tu vida y servir a los demás como Jesús lo hizo?

"Señor Jesús, tu muerte trajo vida y libertad. Jesús nos enseña que a servir y no a ser servido es la manera de vivir en el reino de Dios. Ayúdanos ser abnegados y dar libremente nuestro lugar de honor y prestigio para el beneficio de otros. Haz nuestro mundo un lugar de igualdad genuino en que no hay ricos y pobres. Amen.
