Imitating Mary,
you will not go astray.
Praying to her,
you will not despair.
Thinking of her, you will not err.
Supported by her, you will not fail...
Embraced by her, you will be saved.

Prayer After the Rosary

O God, whose only begotten Son, by His Life, Death, and Resurrection has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant we beseech You, that while meditating upon these Mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen

Next Sunday is the 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Mal. 1:14b-2:2b, 8-10. You have strayed from the way, you have caused many to stumble by your teaching.

1 Thes. 2:7b-9, 13. We were eager to hand over to you not only the good news but our lives as well.

All Souls Day at OLPH

Please join us for our All Souls Day Mass at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 2, 2017. If you have lost someone since last All Souls Day, who has been entered into our Book of the Dead, you should receive a letter of invitation to celebrate this special Mass with family and friends followed by hospitality. Pictures of the deceased will be displayed and a beautiful lighting of candles will take place. Family members and friends are asked to take part in carrying and placing candles. If you have lost loved ones or friends, at any time, even years ago, please join us, as prayer for the dead is one of the greatest acts of charity. Through our prayers, we help the faithful departed during their time in Purgatory, so they can enter into the fullness of Heaven. Fr. Kyle would like to have many people come to support those who are dealing with their recent loss and those whose loss is in the past. We help one another with our prayers and support.

If you offer the following prayer for a particular person, you can substitute "him" or "her" for "them."

Eternal Rest

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Living Rosary

October is the month of the Holy Rosary. A Living Rosary provides a great opportunity to introduce young people to the devotion of praying the Rosary.

Parish Family Spotlight

We would like to reintroduce our Parish Staff

T J Lejeune came to OLPH as maintenance facilitator in January, 2014. A native of Belle Chasse, in fact, he was baptized and confirmed in the church that is now the KC Hall. After graduating high school, he joined the Air Force as an aircraft mechanic and maintenance control, where he first started learning how to operate computers. He spent the next 30 years following his dreams in Idaho, Alaska, Colorado, Texas and New Mexico. After the Air Force, T J worked retail grocery becoming a manager before moving on to work construction for a number of years, building houses, remodeling and additions, learning many of the trades entailed therein. Picking up side jobs along the way like gas and tire attendant, radio DJ, welding & Machine shop associate. Throughout his travels, he has kept interest as an avid fisherman, hunter, camper, and musician in a number of bands. He also dabbled in RC trucks and airplanes, is an amateur freelance photographer and photo shopper, and has done some writing and poetry. Returning home finds him very happy to be back on Louisiana soil in his hometown. And doubly so, to be at his first church, OLPH. Also continuing his interest in music moving into all facets of recording and producing CDs. He looks forward to serving the wonderful community of OLPH for many years to come.

Church Funnies

A Sunday school teacher was teaching her class about he difference between right and wrong.

"All right children, let's take another example," she said. "If I were to get into a man's pocket and take his billfold with all his money, what would I be?"

Little Johnny raises his hand, and with a confident smile, he blurts out, "You'd be his wife!"

National Church Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated the week of November 5-11, 2017. The focus of this observance is the vocational call of all Christians. It challenges us to reflect on God's call in our lives. This is particularly a time to pray for vocations to priesthood, religious life and diaconate.

On Friday, November 10, OLPH Church will hold A Eucharistic Holy Hour, Intercession for Vocations, beginning after the 7:00 a.m. Mass until 8:30 a.m.

8 Modern Errors Every Catholic Should Know and Avoid

(One will be published each week)

1. Mercy without reference to repentance – For too many today, "mercy" has come to mean, "God is fine with what I am doing." But true mercy does not overlook sin, it presupposes it, sees it as a serious problem, and offers a way out of sin. God's mercy is his way of extending a hand to draw us out of the mire of sin.

And this is why repentance is the key that unlocks mercy. For, it is by repentance that we reach for and grasp God's merciful and outstretched hand.

One of the chief errors today is the proclamation of mercy without reference to repentance. Sadly, this is common, even in the Church. It is far too common to hear sermons on mercy with no reference to repentance.

The opening words of Jesus' ministry were "Repent and believe the Gospel!" The order is important. For how can we experience the good news of God's mercy if we do not first repent, come to a new mind and know our need for that mercy. If you don't know the bad news, the good news is no news. Repentance brings us to our senses, makes us accept our need for change, seeks God and unlocks his mercy.

This error of mercy without reference to repentance is widespread in the Church today and leads to the sin of presumption, a sin against hope.

Did you know!

The Catholic Church is entirely responsible for the composition of the Bible, which books are included, as well as the breakup of the chapters and verses. Protestants have removed some books of the Bible because some of the verses were inconsistent with their theology. Martin Luther was a prime offender in this regard, removing Tobit, Judith, 1 and 2 Maccabees, Wisdom, Sirach and Baruch. He also made an effort to remove James and Revelations, but this was rejected by his followers and those two books were kept. Catholics are often accused of "adding" the books, but despite this common belief, it is false. Older, pre-Protestant, Catholic translations of the Bible include them.
