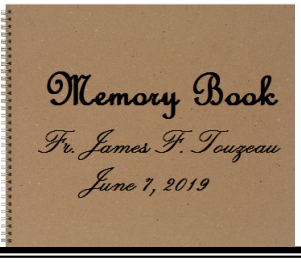
Dear Parishioners,

In November 1789 the pope designated Baltimore as the diocese to care for Catholics throughout the newly formed United States. On July 11, 1820, the southern part of the Archdiocese of Baltimore was divided into Richmond — serving Virginians — and Charleston — serving residents of North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia. On July 11, 2020 Catholics in South Carolina will mark the 200th anniversary of the creation of the Diocese of Charleston.

Over the next year the diocese will examine our history, celebrate our present, and plan for the future. Our bishop invites you to visit our diocesan website to learn about upcoming events and to participate in our parish activities over the next year.

Fr. Jim



A Memory Book is being created for Fr. Touzeau.
