FAITH DIRECT

Fall is here along with our traditional season of stewardship. However, this year has been anything but typical, which is why we are reaching out to our parishioners.
This year people throughout our community have turned to us for help. However, Our Lady of the Mountain can only continue to meet that need with your assistance. Your valuable online donations help us to continue our ministry to answer their call for help.
We prayerfully request that you consider signing up for eGiving from your computer, smartphone or tablet and set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift.

Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/NJ568, or text 'Enroll' to (908-651-9118).

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

God Bless You,
Fr. Marcin

Christmas season is coming to the end but peace, love and blessing of our Lord Jesus stay with us because Jesus is with us always in the special way in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Today we celebrate what we call the Epiphany of Jesus that is the revelation or manifestation of Jesus for everyone. Jesus was revealed by the Father to the world as its Savior when the light of a star guided the wise men from the East to worship him, when the Father spoke from heaven at Jesus' baptism declaring Jesus to be his beloved Son.

Today we celebrate the light of a star leading and revealing Jesus as the Savior of the world to wise men. The body language of the wise men before Jesus spoke of their attitude. They prostrated themselves before Jesus. They worshipped him, and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh; gold because Jesus is king, frankincense because Jesus is divine and myrrh prefiguring his Passion.

There is another attitude in today's Gospel, the attitude of Herod. He does not have an attitude of reverence and respect for Jesus. Herod pretends that he is just as respectful to Jesus as the wise men. He tells them, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." However his thoughts were not thoughts of homage, he merely wanted to trick the wise men into telling him where Jesus was so that he could have him murdered. Herod did not want to lose power and control to somebody else, so he rejected the baby Jesus even though Jesus would be no threat to his kingly power. Herod's problem was not Jesus but Herod himself, and some peoples' problem is not Jesus or the Church but rather that they have rejected Jesus and the Church, particularly by their lifestyles. Anytime I decide that I know better than Jesus or the Church then I have set myself up as a modern day Herod. The faith of the Church is bigger than the faith of any one person.

The good news of Epiphany is that Jesus is the revelation of God as one who offers himself to us in love. Jesus is the epiphany of the invisible God in all the events of his life: as a helpless child in a manger, as a young man dying on the cross -- the ultimate revelation that God's glory is love. This feast reminds us that each Sunday's liturgy with its gospel reading is an epiphany of the Lord to be reflected upon in the quiet of faith. Epiphany is the revelation of the purpose of the Incarnation: that God and we, God's sons and daughters, might enjoy each other in the embrace of love.

Be wise! Follow the trail of the wise men. Go to Bethlehem. See Jesus and your search will be done!

EPIPHANY BLESSING OF THE HOME FOR THE NEW YEAR

How to do it??

The entire family gathers at the main entrance of the home.

Leader: peace to this house

All: And to all who dwell within

Leader: We begin the New Year by dedicating our family to Christ. The search of the magi urges us to renew our baptismal call to find Christ in all we do. Our family desires to reveal Christ's light to the world. May everyone who enters here find the comfort, joy and love of the lord living among us.

Reader: Magi from the east came to Bethlehem to adore the Lord; and opening their treasures they presented him with precious gifts: gold for the great King, incense for the true God and myrrh symbolic of his burial. Alleluia!

Reader: Blessed be the name of the Lord.

All: Both now and forever.

Reader: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

All: Who made heaven and earth.

The entire family pray Our Father…

Leader: God, who on this day reveled your only begotten Son to all the nations by the guidance of a star, grant that we who know you by faith may finally behold you in your heavenly majesty; Lord we beg you to visit this house and banish from it all the dark power of the enemy. May your holy angels dwell here and keep us in peace, security, love and grace. May your blessing always be upon us. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

The inscription is made with the blessed chalk over the door.

20+C+M+B+21

This inscription comes from Latin: Christus Mansionem Benedicat --- May God bless this home.

THANK YOU – Father Jayke, join with me in expressing sincere gratitude to all those who remembered us at Christmas. We truly appreciate your love and kindness in the gifts which we have received. We assure you that we will remember you in our prayers, especially at the celebration of the Holy Eucharist. Our best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Healthy New Year! We Love You!!!!

THANK YOU – My thanks to all those who assisted me, Father Jayke, in the decoration of the church for the Christmas celebration. We couldn't have done it without you especially Kim Smith, Linda Richartz, Brian Grogan, Ray Schiano. May Christ Jesus richly bless you in the New Year for the labor you so generously gave for the church!

-As we welcome back to church for the celebration of the holy mass and resumption of our sacramental life, please note the following:

-IF YOU ARE SICK - STAY HOME

WHEN YOU COME TO CHURCH:

-FACIAL MASKS AND SOCIAL DISTANCING MUST BE OBSERVED

- Personal sanitizing solution is encouraged to be brought with you.

Parish Council Information

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD HE GAVE HIS ONLY SON, THAT WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM SHALL NOT PERISH BUT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE JOHN 3:16

Greetings Fellow Parishioners,

During this advent season we would like to take this opportunity to give you some updates about Our Lady of the Mountain Parish. Since the pandemic started back in March, we have been graciously led through it all by our dear Pastor, Rev. Marcin Michalowski. When churches were asked to close in March, Fr. Marcin quickly sought out all the technology options for us to be able to pray together with the live stream Masses. Updated the website and online bulletins and added another option "Flock Note" message via email or text, for everyone to receive information. Through the rest of Lent, Easter Sunday and daily Masses were all live streamed. On May 25 restrictions were lifted to allow outdoor gatherings, so Masses were held at the beautiful outdoor altar area. In the middle of June, indoor gatherings were allowed with "social distancing", so Masses were held in the church. While continuing the popular outdoor Masses at the altar where Fr. Marcin was able to add some lovely additions. On August 9th we said a fond farewell to Rev. Javier Bareno, with best wishes for his new venture at St. John the Baptist Cathedral in Paterson. On August 15th we welcomed Rev. Jayke Parinas to OLM as Parochial Vicar and congratulate him on his recent ordination. We thank you Fr. Marcin for leading us through and Deacon Jim for being at his side through it all and now Fr. Jayke for stepping right in to our parish. We look forward to new things in 2021.

Peace, Blessings and Merry Christmas
Parish Council of Our Lady of the Mountain

From Fr. Jayke

My dear brothers and sisters, today we celebrate the Epiphany of our Lord Jesus Christ. This means that today is really the last of the great Christmas Celebrations. The word "Epiphany" comes from the Greek word which means "Revelation". At Christmas, Jesus was proclaimed as the long-awaited Messiah of the beloved people of Israel so today is the day when we celebrate the revelation of God incarnate as Jesus Christ who is the Savior of the entire world.

As we have heard in our Gospel narrative for today, the Epiphany commemorates the story of the three magi whose name were Melchior, Balthazar, and Caspar. They came from the east following the star of Bethlehem. Having followed the star from the east, to Jerusalem, they met with Herod, whose evil intentions towards the Christ Child were veiled, but evident. The wise men then continued to Bethlehem where they found the newborn Savior, they worshipped Him and adored Him, wherein they presented Him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

My dear brothers and sisters, in many parts of the world, the feast of the Epiphany is celebrated with as much solemnity as Christmas. Today, in many countries, it is the day where gifts are exchanged, recalling the gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh brought in honor of the newborn King. The Church Fathers, such as St. Irenaeus and St. Gregory saw these gifts of the Magi as symbols pointing to Christ's true identity. St. Irenaeus said the gift of gold signifies the Kingship, the royalty of Christ. Frankincense is used in worshipping God and points to Jesus' divinity. And Myrrh is a burial ointment, pointing to the humanity of Christ, who would suffer and die for our salvation. There is another tradition saying that the gifts of the magi are gifts that each Christian is called to make to God. St. Gregory the Great said the gold represents the wisdom of God and the teaching of Christ by which we are to walk. The Frankincense is the prayer and adoration we are to give to Him. Myrrh is our daily sacrifice to the Lord. Daily sacrifice needs to be made to God too, as St. Paul says, "offer your minds and bodies as living sacrifices to God."

After coming to worship the Lord, and offering Him their gifts, St. Matthew tells us how the Magi returned to their homes by another route because they had a dream, wherein an angel told them that Herod had terribly vicious plans to kill the Messiah, to kill baby Jesus. Because of this, they departed for their country by another way, they went home another route. Here, Archbishop Fulton Sheen commented, "of course they go back to a different route, because you never come to Christ and go back the same way you came." That is why my dear brothers and sisters, when we encounter Christ, it changes us. If it did not change us, then we did not truly encounter Him. Therefore, coming to Mass, offering God the best we have in worship, encountering Him and receiving Him in Holy Communion, should change us.

In Christ Jesus,
Rev. Jayke Pariñas

RECENT BAPTISMS

Each time a child is Baptized, God smiles from up above knowing he has someone new to shelter and to love.

JOIN US FOR HOLY HOUR --- EVERY FIRST MONDAY OF THE MONTH

JANUARY 7TH (7:00PM --- 8:00PM)

People are concerned about keeping a Holy Hour before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament; What do I do, what can I pray? It is very simple. Perhaps, you can keep silence and try to listen to God. Let your heart and your mind speak to the Lord but in silence. Mental prayer is very refreshing because it does help us to be in real touch with the Lord. Take a word from the Bible, perhaps a sentence or a word that touched you, and try to reflect upon it. After much reflection, you come to contemplate Jesus in that word or sentence that speaks so much to you. Try to spend the Holy Hour utilizing a lot of silence. Don't think that prayer is only words or reading from a book, or the Bible; prayer could also be made mentally and in silence. Try it and you'll discover a great tool to get closer to Christ.

What else can you do during the Holy Hour? Well, this is a wonderful time to give thanks to God, to praise the Lord and to examine your heart and your conscience. As you come into the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, begin by acknowledging your sins before the Lord. Ask the Lord to forgive your iniquities and to help you sin no more, or at least, to stay away from the temptations of sin. In the silence of your heart adore the Lord. Jesus deserves all our adoration; He alone is to be adored. Praise the Lord, exult his name in your own words and recognize Jesus, the Son of God, as your Savior and present to Him all your needs. Make the holy hour a thanksgiving moment and thank God for all that you have received from the Lord. So, in the Holy Hour, confess your sins, adore the Lord, praise his Holy Name and give Him thanks. You see, there is much to do during this special time before the Lord.

The Holy Hour is one of the things we should do every day. I understand that not too many people have the luxury of being able to spend time before Jesus; but I think, if we organize our lives we might be able to do it. There is a story of a person who sat in the back of the Church every day. People who came inside the Church would see the person sitting there day after day. Out of curiosity, someone decided to ask the person the million-dollar question. "What are you doing here every day?" The man replied: "I sit here and I look at Him, and He looks at me." This simple story perhaps can define best what a Holy Hour is about; there is no need to say much, but to sit or kneel in front of the Lord, in the Most Blessed Sacrament, and let the Spirit of the living God do his work. Give it a try, or better yet "taste and see the goodness of the Lord."

.PRAY DAILY.

.PRAYER OF POPE FRANCIS FOR PROTECTION AND HELP.

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You…know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen. Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of those of us who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

HAPPY NEW YEAR
From all of us in the Knights to all of you – may every day be happy and healthy!

Reflection's for the New Year:

I cried for shoes until I saw a man with no feet.
It is better to light a candle than curse the darkness.
A friend in need is a friend indeed.
To err is human, to forgive divine.
Winners never quit; quitters never win.
A thousand-mile journey begins with the first step.
Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.
It is always darkest before dawn.

The Knights of Columbus, Long Valley Council 10419 welcomes all Catholic Men age 18 and older. We are an active council and have a lot to offer.
