It's All in the Surrender: A Lenten pastoral note from Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila

Over the last six months, as we have journeyed through the Archdiocesan-wide Discernment Process, we have been seeking to learn how to surrender to the will of the Father...

Now, our Archdiocesan Discernment Process will conclude with its culminating experience: our Archdiocesan Discernment Event. Your pastors and I have invited over 500 disciples....from across the archdiocese to this three-day event from March 25-27 to collectively seek after the Lord's will and hear his voice for our archdiocese in this new apostolic age.

To prepare for this event, I am inviting you, and all the faithful of the Archdiocese of Denver, to pray the Surrender Novena, [March 17th-March 25th]. (The Novena Card is in the entrance of the Church, please take one home.) ...This novena is a chance for all of us to surrender anew to Jesus. It is a chance to put him first in our lives, and the more we surrender to him, the more our love will grow for him, the Father and the Holy Spirit. And because we love God more, we will love others and see the face of Christ in every person we encounter. This prayer of surrender will also increase our desire to carry out the mission of Jesus in today's world that so desperately needs witnesses to the transforming power of the Gospel.

...This novena will conclude on the opening day of our Archdiocesan Discernment Event, the Feast of the Annunciation, which is when we celebrate Mary's act of surrender that ushered in the most climactic moments of salvation history. On that day, over 2,000 years ago, the entire story of humanity reached a moment of expectant anticipation, waiting for the words of the Virgin Mary: "Let it be done unto me." Mary listens to God's plan for salvation and surrenders herself to the will of the Father, showing her willingness to be his servant. Human history is forever changed in her surrender, her "yes" to God's plan...
