Respect Life Sunday

Faith:
"Every day in our world we see and hear what the prophet Habakkuk speaks of in today's first reading – violence, discord, suffering, destruction – and it may seem that victims' cries for God's help go unanswered. Jesus himself reminds us of the need for faith, faith that Gods' deliverance will surely come."

"Jesus speaks of faith that is the inner grace-filled quality that binds us and empowers us to follow and live the Gospel. This is what we seek: an increase in that most precious of all gifts – a strong and enduring relationship which Christ. By asking for an increase in faith, we recognize that Jesus is the source of this faith and that it is not the outcome of human strength or willpower, but a gift from God."

"Today, our faith is of more and more importance. It is not simply about having and inner conviction, but also to have the courage and strength to live our beliefs on a daily basis. Christ's word to us today is a word of encouragement that we need only a little trust – the size of a mustard seed – in his strength to carry us through in this life. It is the power of God living in and working through us that will ultimately allow us to be faith-filled as well as faithful." [1]
