GOD REVEALED TO THE NATIONS
What wonderful images we have today of the reign of God! Isaiah speaks to us of a great feast—a heavenly feast—a feast of abundance with rich foods and choice wines. It is the Lord's own affair, Isaiah explains, when God will unite all nations, dry every tear, and destroy death forever. Then, too, will the entire earth rejoice in the Lord and bask in God's saving grace.

Jesus speaks of heaven in terms of a feast as well. Here, the kingdom of heaven is likened to a king's wedding feast given for his son. This is a feast of abundance also, with the fattened cattle prepared just so. But many of the people invited don't want to come, so the king invites anyone who would honor his son by their presence there. And Paul tells us that whether we live abundantly or in humble circumstances, we can do all things in the Lord who strengthens us.

SAINT TERESA OF JESUS (1515-1582)
October 15
Let nothing disturb you; let nothing frighten you. Gifted with a passionate spirit, young Teresa dreamed of converting Muslims and becoming a martyr. All things are passing; God never changes. But her mother's death when Teresa was fourteen inspired lifelong devotion to Our Lady, and Teresa entered the Carmelites, Mary's order, despite her father's objections and her own fragile health. Patience gains everything. Initially, she enjoyed her lax convent's sociability and "busyness," but mystical prayer and John of the Cross's collaboration inspired her to reform the Carmelites. Whoever has God, lacks nothing. When her ideals encountered resistance and brought suffering, she maintained her peace—and humor. Discovered devouring leftovers, she told her mildly scandalized nuns, "When I fast, I fast! When I eat, I eat!" To nuns demanding less work and more prayer in the convent schedule, she retorted: "What we really need around here are fewer starry eyes and more strong arms!" God alone is enough! The italicized sentences here are her "Breviary Bookmark," the simple, profound prayer of Teresa, the first woman Doctor of the Church.

NOTE FROM PASTOR

Every year on November 2 the Church observes All Souls Day. It is a day on which we remember all of our beloved dead.
The Second Book of Maccabees in the bible tells us that "it is a good and holy thought to pray for the dead" (2nd Maccabees 12:46). We pray for them to assist those who have been saved as they are purged of all uncleanness and made ready for the beauty of heaven.
Throughout the month of October, I invite you to write the names of loved ones who have died in our Book of the Dead at church. These are friends, family members, people you carry in your hearts. We will pray for them as a group on All Souls Day, November 2, and throughout November.
In addition, if you have a loved one who has died this year (since November 2, 2019) I invite you to call the office and enroll their names for our All Souls Day Mass on November 2. During that Mass we will pray for those who have died this year individually, by name. Also, we will light a candle on the altar for each person during the Mass. If you will be at the Mass, you (or someone you designate) can come forward to light the candle when your loved one's name is read.
The All Souls Day Mass this year will be on Monday, November 2, at both Infant Jesus and at St. Mark's, and all are welcome to attend.
May all of our loved ones rest in the peace of the Lord, and may His perpetual light shine upon them.
--Fr. Andy
