Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

April 10, 2022

The Lord GOD is my help,
therefore I am not disgraced.
— Isaiah 50:7a

THE MESSAGE OF CHRIST'S LOVE

From the proclamation of the Gospel at the beginning of the liturgy, we know that today is different, not only because we hear two Gospel passages, or because we hold palms and move in procession. Today begins Holy Week, a time set apart, a week in which to listen, pray, reflect, and take to heart the truth of Christ's passion, crucifixion, death, and ultimately, resurrection. It takes a week, and a lifetime, to truly hear the message of Christ's love. It is difficult for us to comprehend that Jesus willingly sacrificed himself, so we must hear the story again and again. Let this week be for us a new moment of faith in which we, together with the criminal who was crucified with Christ, cry out, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Almighty ever-living God, who as an example of humility
for the human race to follow caused our Savior to take flesh and submit to the Cross, graciously grant that we may heed
his lesson of patient suffering and so merit a share in his Resurrection.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How can I heed Jesus' lesson of patient suffering?

ESSENTIAL REDUCTION

All my theology is reduced to this narrow compass: "Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners."

Catholic Life Quiz Catholic Bible101

Here is a little True or False quiz to see if you are living a Catholic life, or if you are living more of a secular life. There are no right or wrong answers, only food for thought….

I know all about Elvis, Michael Jackson and Britney Spears, but I don't know anything about the lives of St. Anthony, St. Padre Pio, or St. Therese.

Watching half-naked gyrating cheerleaders on Sunday after Mass is no big deal.

I have a lot of thoughts about sex, but never take the time to get rid of them by meditating on the Passion of Jesus Christ.

NOTE FROM PASTOR

I want to invite you to join in the liturgies of Holy Week. These sacred days are the most important time in our liturgical calendar, when the drama of our salvation in Christ through his last supper, suffering and death, and glorious Resurrection are re-lived.

Tuesday, April 12, 7:00pm: Diocese of Beaumont Chrism Mass at St. Anthony Cathedral

During this Mass each year, Bishop Toups blesses the oils to be used in Baptisms, Confirmations, and Ordinations throughout the diocese for the coming year. Also, all the priests of the diocese renew their ordination promises. All are welcome to the Mass that brings together our entire diocesan family.

Wednesday, April 13, 8:30am: Holy Wednesday Mass at Infant Jesus

This day is unofficially known as "Spy Wednesday". The readings at Mass tell us of the treacherous betrayal of Jesus by Judas following e Last Supper.

Thursday, April 14, 7:00pm: Mass of the Lord's Supper at Infant Jesus

This is the anniversary Mass of the Last Supper when we celebrate the gift of the Eucharist. Following the homily at Mass, the priest washes the feet of 12 parishioners, as Jesus washed the feet of his disciples at the Last Supper. Following Mass we have a Eucharistic procession to a side altar and the Church stays open for adoration and private prayer as the disciples prayed with Jesus in the Garden following the Last Supper.

Friday, April 15: Good Friday

Stations of the Cross: Noon at Holy Spirit and 3pm at Infant Jesus Liturgy with Veneration of the Holy Cross: 3pm Infant Jesus, 7pm St. Mark

Saturday, April 16, 8:30pm: Easter Vigil Mass at Infant Jesus

No other Masses or liturgies at any of the churches on this day

Sunday. April 17: Easter Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection. He is Risen!

Regular Sunday schedule at Infant Jesus, St. Mark, and Holy Spirit

Are You Interested in being a Permanent Deacon?

The Diocese of Beaumont is forming its 8th Permanent Diaconate Class. An inquirer meeting will be held at St. Anthony Cathedral Basilica on Sunday, May 15, 2022, from 3:00-5:00pm. If you feel that God may be calling you to the permanent diaconate, come to this meeting. The formation process will be explained in detail. For more information call or email Fr. Sinclair Oubre @ 409-749-0171 or soubre@dobcentral.org.
