Christmas is only a week away! As we come to the Fourth Sunday of Advent, the readings turn to the immediate preparations for the birth of Jesus.

I suspect that all of us are finalizing our preparations for his birth in our hearts once again as well. Let's pray for the courage of Joseph to bear whatever burdens may be necessary so that our world too may be saved from sin and bask in the glory of Christ.

We need to have faith in God's plan as Joseph did. The angel told Joseph not to be afraid. Too often in our journey of conversion we can fall prey to fear and despair. Christ the Lord dispels that fear and can turn our despair into lasting joy.

We are called to be messengers – or angels – of that joy. Ask yourself this question as we move toward Christmas: Who in my life needs to experience the joy, compassion and tenderness of Jesus touching them through me? Do I have the courage to do it? If we can share the joy, our own Christmas will be much brighter.

Please remember to check the Mass schedule for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. Though Christmas is on a Sunday, there will only be two Masses Christmas morning. The schedule is printed below.

I am also happy to report the our new parish directory is at the printer and should be arriving soon. We will let you know when they can be picked up.

Have a joyful week, Fr. Brian

Connie Bickler of the St. Bernard Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul grabbed these cute snowmen at the cookie sale, which was a success despite the weather. See page 4 for a round up of our seasonal drives and sales.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

"She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus."

Joseph heard these prophetic words in a dream. They were words of anticipation, of what was to come. And in a sense, they ushered in a kind of Advent for Joseph.

With this divine message, Joseph began a period of holy waiting. He now knew that the Messiah was going to be coming into his own home, and he had just nine months to prepare!

We can only imagine how Joseph might have spent these precious days. Most likely he did more than prepare a physical home for his soon-to-be-born Son; he must have also used these days to prepare his heart, mind, and soul for such a tremendous mission.

Today, we stand in a position not all that different from St. Joseph. We also know that the Messiah will be arriving--not just in remembrance at Christmastime, but in reality at the second coming. But unlike Joseph, we don't have an exact timeframe.

We don't know when Jesus will return. We just know that we need to be ready!

CHRISTMAS BAGS FOR HOMEBOUND

St. Bernard volunteers recently put together about 150 Christmas bags filled with toiletries, snacks and hand-decorated cards from our religious education students for parishioners in local nursing homes or who still live at home, but are unable to get to church. At right, Diane Zander delivers a bag to a Brookdale resident. Below, Kevin Laufenberg, the pastoral associate at St. Bernard, leads the volunteers.

EARLY BULLETIN DEADLINE

Dec. 19 is the deadline for submitting an item for the Jan. 1 bulletin.

SEASON OF GIVING ENDS YEAR OF MERCY

St. Bernard parishioners are a giving and caring group, which is evident in the totals for each of the charitable drives held over the last few weeks.

First, in the warm clothing drive, Barb Bohringer of the Human Needs Commission reports that volunteers bundled 80 coats and three large bags filled with boots, mittens, hats and scarves for St. Francis of Assisi, our sister parish in Milwaukee. Also included in the drive was over 50 bags of warm clothing items for St. Vincent de Paul.

A total of 415 tags were placed on the Giving Trees this year, and 389 gifts were left under the tree, Bohringer said. These gifts will be distributed to our sister parish, St. Vincent de Paul and the Elizabeth House in Madison.

Jane Maly of the parish's Human Needs Commission sorts gifts from the Giving Tree.

Barb Roberts of the St. Bernard Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul said 2,846 pounds of food and paper items were collected in November and sent to the food pantry at the St. Vincent de Paul Service Center in Madison.

She also reported that the annual Cookie Extravaganza, which is the group's only fundraiser of the year, netted just over $1,000. These funds help the group to provide emergency rental assistance, car repairs and many other services to those in need.

In our efforts with the hungry, our volunteers report feeding about 120 at the Catholic Multicultural Center and 70 at Luke House each month, and the numbers enrolled in the Snack Pack Blessings program continue to increase.

Organizers of these events would like to thank everyone who participated and the many volunteers who helped to make this a wonderful holiday season for so many. It was a great way to end this Year of Mercy!
