PRAYER OF THE WEEK
Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Almighty and merciful God, by whose gift your faithful offer you right and praiseworthy service, grant, we pray, that we may hasten without stumbling to receive the things you have promised. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Pray for the repose of the souls of our faithful departed:

Irene Lucy Stechschulte †, mother of Cheryl Noonan

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
—And let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. —Amen.
May their souls & the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. —Amen.
For consolation and God's healing graces upon the family & friends of the deceased. Heal their pain and dispel the darkness & doubt that comes from grief. —Amen.

Reflection question: What does it mean to offer God right and praiseworthy service?

SIGNIFICANCE of BOWING

A bow signifies reverence & honor shown to the names or event being mentioned. We are to do the following:
1) A bow *of the head is made when the three Divine Persons (the Trinity) are named together and at the names of Jesus, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of the Saint in whose honor Mass is being celebrated.
2) A bow *of the body (a profound bow) is made during the Creed with the words "and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man." —General Instruction to the Roman Missal, #275

October 30, 2022

Dear Friends in Christ,

The month of October is Respect Life month, as well as the month for the Holy Rosary. Last week, I wrote how October is also National Domestic Violence Awareness month. For some, they may not consider such violence as a life issue. But as the awful statistics indicate, life is threatened by such sinful & at times criminal behavior. Someone commented that she did not enjoy reading such a message. No one likes to hear such information. But we must be aware & work to curb / eliminate such behavior.

Today, I want to give the Church's response to such behavior. The U.S. Bishops wrote "When I Call for Help: A Pastoral Response to Domestic Violence Against Women" in 1992 & updated it in 2002. In that document, they stated: "As pastors of the Catholic Church in the U.S., we state as clearly and strongly as we can that violence against women, inside or outside the home, is never justified. Violence in any form"—physical, sexual, psychological, or verbal"—is sinful; often, it is a crime as well. We have called for a moral revolution to replace a culture of violence. We acknowledge that violence has many forms, many causes, and many victims—men as well as women. The Catholic Church teaches that violence against another person in any form fails to treat that person as someone worthy of love. Instead, it treats the person as an object to be used."

It is true that some men are abused by women, and that abuse must be condemned also. But the U.S. Bishops "… focus here on violence against women, since 85% of the victims of reported cases of non-lethal domestic violence are women. Women's greatest risk of violence comes from intimate partners—a current or former husband or boyfriend."

"Religion can be either a resource or a roadblock for battered women. As a resource, it encourages women to resist mistreatment. As a roadblock, its misinterpretation can contribute to the victim's self-blame and suffering and to the abuser's rationalizations. Abused women often say, 'I can't leave this relationship. The Bible says it would be wrong.' Abusive men often say, 'The Bible says my wife should be submissive to me.' They take the biblical text and distort it to support their right to batter."

"As bishops, we condemn the use of the Bible to support abusive behavior in any form. A correct reading of Scripture leads people to an understanding of the equal dignity of men and women and to relationships based on mutuality and love. Beginning with Genesis, Scripture teaches that women and men are created in God's image. Jesus himself always respected the human dignity of women. Pope John Paul II reminds us that 'Christ's way of acting, the Gospel of his words and deeds, is a consistent protest against whatever offends the dignity of women.' Men who abuse often use Ephesians 5:22, taken out of context, to justify their behavior, but the passage (v. 21-33) refers to the mutual submission of husband and wife out of love for Christ. Husbands should love their wives as they love their own body, as Christ loves the Church."

"Finally, we emphasize that no person is expected to stay in an abusive marriage. Some abused women believe that church teaching on the permanence of marriage requires them to stay in an abusive relationship. They may hesitate to seek a separation or divorce. They may fear that they cannot re-marry in the Church. Violence and abuse, not divorce, break up a marriage. We encourage abused persons who have divorced to investigate the possibility of seeking an annulment. An annulment, which determines that the marriage bond is not valid, can frequently open the door to healing."

A true love relationship never involves any abuse issues or treating another human being beneath the dignity of another person or beneath your own dignity. We are all created in God's image (Gn. 1: 27). Please pray the prayer listed on p. 8 for those in abusive situations.

A COMPASSIONATE GOD

Today's reading from the book of Wisdom presents an image of a patient God who "rebuke[s] offenders little by little" (Wisdom 12:2), an image endorsed by the psalmist, singing of how the LORD is "slow to anger & of great kindness, & compassionate toward all his works" (Psalm 145:8, 9). The crowd with Jesus, however, grumbles when they see Jesus's kindness and compassion extended to Zacchaeus, who was not just a tax collector, but the "chief tax collector"—a title that surely emphasizes his standing as a sinner to be scorned. In the 2nd reading, Saint Paul urges the Thessalonians to be "worthy" of God's calling, so that "the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you" (2 Thes 1:12); such people, unlike the crowd in the Gospel, would rejoice at Zacchaeus's determination to change his life after encountering Jesus.

Sacred Relics of the Saints
Treasures of the Church

St. Maximilian Kolbe Parish Community presents a teaching on & exposition of Sacred Relics on Thursday, November 3rd at 6:30 pm, beginning in the church.

Father Carlos Martins, a Vatican-appointed expert on relics will be here with an extraordinary Vatican collection of over 150 relics, some as old as 2,000 years. Among the treasures will be relics of St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas & St. Faustina Kowalska. There will also be a portion of the Veil of Our Lady & one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Those in attendance will be able to examine & venerate each relic.

Throughout history, many healings have been worked in the presence of relics; & thousands have occurred through this ministry. You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) & pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Invite others to come. If you are not able to attend on Thursday, Nov. 3rd, St. Elizabeth will have the same event on Friday, Nov. 4th at 6:30 pm, as well as Prince of Peace on Saturday, Nov. 5th at 10 am.

The Houston International Seafarers' Center serves as a home away from home for the men & women that travel aboard ocean-going vessels. The Catholic Daughters at St. Maximilian, in collaboration with the Port of Houston, continues a wonderful tradition of spreading holiday cheer by providing small gifts to visiting seafarers through the "Shoeboxes for Seafarers" program. The CDA ladies will begin collection these small items this weekends—10/29-30 & next weekend—11/5-6. They will also be collecting empty shoe boxes! Help support this project!  Note: Full-sized items are much preferred over small travel size.

HOUSTON VOCATIONS

When I Call for Help: A Prayer

One source of healing we have in our lives as Christians is prayer. Psalm 55 may be an especially apt prayer for women & men who are dealing with abusive situations. With all of you we pray these verses:

Listen, God, to my prayer;
do not hide from my pleading;
hear me and give answer.

If an enemy had reviled me, that I could bear;
If my foe had viewed me with contempt,
from that, I could hide.
But it was you, my other self, my comrade and friend,
You, whose company I enjoyed, at whose side I walked in procession in the house of God.

But I will call upon God, and the Lord will save me.
At dusk, dawn, and noon, I will grieve and complain,
and my prayer will be heard.
(Ps 55:2-3, 13-15, 17-18)

OCTOBER: For a Church open to everyone
We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

That we may joyfully share the abundant gifts God has given to us.

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" Luke 19:8

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?
