From Fr. Dan, Pastor

Dear Friends,

God is a welcoming God, and we warmly welcome you to Sacred Heart and Our Lady's. God welcomes anyone and everyone into His family. Jesus always welcomed anyone into His presence. We warmly welcome you!

This is how Jesus loves us! "The Christian does not think God will love us because we are good, but that God will make us good because He loves us." - C.S. Lewis

Have you seen the awesome tributes to Fr. John in the memorial printing? They are so moving. People who model Christ – Fr. John – are so amazing!

Fighting Abuse: Many Catholic journalists are predicting that this week's meeting of the American Bishops will take significant and positive concrete steps towards holding errant bishops accountable for mismanagement of abusers, as well as bishops committing acts of abuse. May the Holy Spirit guide them.

The Bereavement Mass at Our Lady's and the St. Francis Guild Breakfast at Sacred Heart were among two of the wonderful things that went on last weekend. Thank you to all who make these things happen!

Pope Francis: Compassion strikes the most sensitive chords of our humanity, releasing a vibrant urge to "be a neighbor" to all those whom we see in difficulty. As Jesus himself teaches us (cf. *Mt*9:35-36; 14:13-14; 15:32-37), being compassionate means recognizing the suffering of the other and taking immediate action to soothe, heal and save. Jesus Christ asks us not to yield to the logic of the world, which justifies injustice to others for my own gain or that of my group. "Me first, and then the others!" Instead, the true motto of the Christian is, "The last shall be first!" I think primarily of migrants, with their burden of hardship and suffering, as they seek daily, often in desperation, a place to live in peace and dignity. We ourselves need to see, and then to enable others to see, that migrants and refugees do not only represent a problem to be solved, but are brothers and sisters to be welcomed, respected and loved."

Sports: Writing this the day of game 4, I still predict the Bruins over the Blues in five games (what an esteemed parishioner calls a "Gentleman's Sweep!"). Sometime this week Boston may possess 3 of the 4 world championships at one time. This so incredible!

Love and God bless you,
Fr. Dan

New & Ongoing in Our Community

Pastoral Council Nominations: Deadline This Sunday Night!

It's that time of year again! Four of our twelve Pastoral Council Members have completed their terms (and we are so grateful to them!), and new members must be called from our communities.

During these first two weekends in June, you will find Pastoral Council Nomination Forms in the pews of both churches. Please take the time to prayerfully consider who in your parish would be a good representative on the Pastoral Council. Two from each parish will be named.

Pastoral Council Members meet with the pastor and pastoral staff six times per year. They advise the pastor on vision and programming in the collaborative. They bring the concerns and observations of other parishioners to the attention of the pastor. They will also be instrumental in the implementation of our new Pastoral Plan.

If you have any questions about the Pastoral Council or the nominating process, please email Kristina Preman at kpreman@sholnewton.org.

Komi Family: Sacraments of Initiation on June 30

It is with great joy that the Sacred Heart & Our Lady's POWR Ministry (Parishes Organized to Welcome Immigrants and Refugees) invites you to come and rejoice with us, as the Komi family celebrates the Sacraments of Initiation into our Catholic Church. Fr. Dan will celebrate Mass at 2:00pm on Sunday, June 30, at Our Lady's. A reception will follow at the home of the godparents, Jim and Barbara Allaire, at 26 Lowell Ave, Newtonville. RSVP is needed for the reception ONLY by June 19 to Ann Capoccia at anncapoccia@verizon.net. No RSVP is necessary for the Mass at church—all are welcome!

Please come and add to the joy of this occasion as Mujahid, Huda, Paul, Mansy, Nofak, and Ann take these important steps on their journey of faith.

Small Faith Groups Closing Mass and Brunch This Sunday, June 9

All those who took part in a faith-sharing group during the fall or Lenten session are warmly invited to our closing Mass and brunch this Sunday, June 9, as we celebrate our year of growing in faith together. We will gather for the 10:00am Mass at Our Lady's and then convene in the Lower Church Hall for a brunch reception, with some time to reflect together on what we have learned and how we have grown. .

June 9 ~ Pentecost

It is Pentecost Sunday! The message in today's scriptures is clear: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you..." "they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues..." Now, we are called to proclaim the good news of salvation in words and deeds – which simply means sharing with others how God has worked in our

Fr. John's Books

In these weeks since Fr. John's passing, his family and the staff have been spending time sorting through the items in his room, which are mostly books. There are many books on prayer, Scripture, St. Ignatius and the Spiritual Exercises, Theology, etc. There are also some CDs and other spiritual materials. The books are located in the storage area off of furlong hall in furlong hall. Please enter the entrance by the door net to Our Lady's statue.

It is now time to share these with the Collaborative or others who may be interested. They are available this weekend, June 7-9, before and after weekend Masses at Our Lady's. Please feel free to browse the Adams St. side of the hall.

Honoring Fr. John

The memorial booklet of photos and stories is now available online for you to enjoy and to share with family and friends who may not be local. It can currently be found directly on the Collaborative home page at www.sholnewton.org.

Finally, please know that the Pastoral Council and the staff are having conversations about how best to honor Fr. John with permanent memorials at both parishes. The current plan is to let ideas percolate for a few months. If you would like to share an idea, please be in touch with a Councilmember or staff member. Thank you!

lives. Pray to the Holy Spirit this week asking for the courage to bear witness to Christ's love.

This Weekend's Second Collection

This week's second collection supports the formation and training of seminarians in the Archdiocese of Boston for future service as priests. We are blessed that many are responding to the call to serve as priests. Please be generous and support these seminarians on their journey toward their ordination to the priesthood. For more information, please visit www.VocationsBoston.org.

Spam Email Warning

As has happened several times in the past, this week several staff members and parishioners received emails from someone impersonating Fr. Dan and requesting financial help. This was a spam email! The official email accounts of staff members are the "sholnewton.org" addresses. Please disregard any other communication, and you can always call the parish offices if you are not sure about the authenticity of certain emails.

Care for Creation: Pope Francis Pleas for Action on Climate Crisis

On May 27, 2019, Pope Francis addressed finance ministers from various nations at the "Climate Change and New Evidence from Science, Engineering, and Policy" meeting, organized by the Pontifical Academy of Sciences. In the address, Pope Francis called on them to take immediate action on climate change. He urged them to:

- put an end to global dependency on fossil fuels;
- open a new chapter of clean and safe energy, that utilizes, for example, renewable resources such as wind, sun and water;
- agree upon a common plan that accords with climate science, the latest in clean energy engineering, and above all the ethics of human dignity.
- above all, to act prudently and responsibly in our economies to actually meet human needs, promote human dignity, help the poor and be set free of the idolatry of money that creates so much suffering….

From Catholic Climate Covenant

We in Newton can act responsibly on the climate crisis by participating in the city's Newton Power Choice (which all Newton Eversource customers automatically do), and by opting up to buy 100% of your household electricity from renewable sources--wind and sun--instead of from fossil fuel sources. To OPT UP, call Direct Energy, 1-866-968-8065, with your Eversource account number.

Coming Soon: Summer Daily Mass Schedule

We will again be moving to a revised summer daily Mass schedule in the coming weeks:

Contact the parish offices with any questions.

Good News! Personnel Update

We are very pleased to report three pieces of good news:

- The Collaborative has been assigned a new Parochial Vicar, Fr. Kevin Staley-Joyce. Fr. Kevin is a graduate of Princeton and was ordained two years ago. He will begin here on July 17.
- The Collaborative has hired a new Pastoral Associate! Nick Frega will begin on July 1 and will minister primarily, but not exclusively, at Sacred Heart. Nick has a Bachelor's from Fairfield, a Master's from Notre Dame, and 2 years of pastoral experience.
- Cardinal O'Malley has appointed Fr. Dan Riley as Pastor effective last Saturday, June 1.

Msgr. Dennis Sheehan's Homily Given on May 23, 2010 Pentecost—Liturgical Year C

Did you ever ask yourself: "How did we ever get here?" We're so different. We have different ideas about God. We have different priorities: you think Our Lady of Fatima holds the key to the future. The one sitting behind you holds no truth with apparitions. We have very different ideas about how to be church; he's convinced that matters of economy, law and public policy should never be mentioned in church; she, on the other hand, does community organizing in the name of Jesus.

Different? Sure, you say. Differences are part of being human. Besides, the Bible is very complex and no wonder people read it differently. Modern life is complex and stuff like euthanasia, divorce and re-marriage; same-sex couples are hard to think about clearly.

I grant we're different. But I'm wondering on Pentecost how we got here at all. How did this church or any gathering of Christians come together in the first place?

That's the Pentecost story. Before Pentecost we were scattered. We were strangers. We spoke different tongues. We had very little in common.

Then the Spirit happened. A huge, explosive, noisy, earth-shattering wind and fire. What happened? Strangers could talk to each other. More important perhaps, they could hear one another.

That's how we got here. Not because we all look or think alike. Not because we come from the same background. We are here because of Pentecost, a miraculous, earth-shattering work of God's Holy Spirit.

Still, there are probably things I don't like about you. Probably too, there are things you don't like about me. But that's all quite beside the point. We're together because Jesus called us. We're together because the Spirit has glued us together in this fantastic, unlikely gathering we call the church.

I remember a young woman who said in a group once: "Sometimes I hate being a Catholic. It was because of the church that I went to Haiti on a trip where I saw people in grinding poverty. But they had a faith I envied. Now I go back two or three times a year. Those strangers and their life have become an obsession. It's all the fault of the church".

The Holy Spirit doesn't guarantee us happiness. The Holy Spirit doesn't assure us that all we do will be wise and good. What the Holy Spirit at Pentecost did and does today is make family of strangers and empower ordinary people to live holy lives.

Blessed Pentecost to one and all.
