MALLIA'S MOMENTS
by Fr. Joe Mallia

This week, we will celebrate the Fourth of July and along with the BBQ's and fireworks, it is a celebration of our freedom as a nation. The problem is that the concept of freedom today reflects an understanding of something closer to anarchy rather than a personal freedom that is subject to the common good or that is limited by natural law. The truth is, that you are not free to do or say what you want.

In today's second reading, St. Paul actually gives us some direction and I wanted to encourage you to read it at your family gatherings as part of your prayer before you sit down to eat. St. Paul tells us in the letter to the Galatians, "For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another".

The growing obsession in our society with personal wants is leading us to a place where we become identified by what we believe others have limited us from, rather than being who we are capable of being. I have often spoken out against telling people the great lie of: you can be anything you want to be. That simply is not true. It is not about wanting to be something that entitles you to it. You must have an ability and capacity to do what is necessary to achieve and succeed at it as well.

Freedom is about having an opportunity to pursue, but it is not about having a right to it. Further freedom is always tempered by the fact that we live in a society, a community of other people. We have laws that put limits on freedom that we observe everyday that were created for the purpose of providing an order to the place where we live and those limits are the results of mutually agreed values.

Most of all, freedom is tempered by love. The inability to really love each other, even those who do not agree with me, is the reason for all of the hate we see in our society. People are filled with anger, and consequently civility in word and action are at a very low point. The founders of our country must be turning over in their graves at what we have allowed our society to morph into. St. Paul was right when he told us that if we do not temper our freedom with love we will end up devouring each other and that is exactly what we have allowed to happen.

As we celebrate freedom, let us not forget to reflect upon the obligation that freedom requires and that true freedom is not possible without love and love is not possible without God. May the Lord bless you all.

Receiving the Eucharist with reverence:

Coming off of the Feast of Corpus Christi, I would like to reinforce the importance of receiving the Eucharist with reverence and to return to your seat mindful of what and who it is you have just received. Thank you

St. Augustine Festival Volunteer Information

We have decided to keep the volunteer sign up this year online only as it proved to be very beneficial. However, it was too difficult to keep the signup board in church and the online signup in sync with each other last year. So, there will not be a signup board in the church this year.

There will be two ways for you to sign up online:

Visit our website www.staugustinecatholicparish.org, click on "Parish Festival" at the top, then click on "For Parishioners" in the left column. Scroll down to "Volunteers" where you will find instructions, a link to a printable version of the list of volunteer descriptions and time slots, and a link to our Sign-Up Genius page. If you are already familiar with Sign up Genius, simply go to www.tinyurl.com/stafestival2019 to sign up

If you do not utilize the internet, we will be available after all masses on various weekends before the festival to help you sign up. Sign-up dates will be published in the bulletin.

A flyer with all the descriptions and time slots will be in the bulletin several times for you to review. You can also visit our website as indicated above to print one off or pick one up at the parish office.

If you have any questions, please call Cindy Manchik at 810-217-9058.

Austin Catholic High School is proud to announce the following student from Holy Family, who has achieved academic success during the fall semester at Austin Catholic High School.

Benjamin Brown

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time, June 30, 2019

Have you ever heard that the Gospel is radical? In our times, we hear that word and think of fundamentalists, radical activists, or extremists - people who go beyond limits to achieve their goals and may not consider themselves bound by normal propriety or morality. Their ethos might not be so different from James and John in today's Gospel. "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" This isn't so foreign to some of the stories of the Old Testament. Yet Jesus rebukes them. He won't be exacting in the way his contemporaries expected. There will be no radical rain down of fire and brimstone. Jesus is radical in another way: the call to discipleship.

"The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks back to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." These can be difficult passages to read. These are not normal things to hear! It can be easy for many of us to avoid the exacting nature of the Gospel, which might not be what we think it is. James and John wanted to set the bar high for others on the outside and to punish those who didn't meet that standard. Jesus sets the bar high for his disciples, those who say they want to follow him. He may be using some hyperbole, but it's only to send a clear message. This is a radical call, one that has a cost. To truly put God and others first, before ourselves, will involve sacrifice. How is Jesus asking you to be radical today?

CHRISTIAN SERVICE NEWS

WHAT IS THE CHRISTIAN SERVICE COMMITTEE?

The Christian Service Committee oversees the various service ministries in the parish. There are many opportunities through the work of this committee.

Ministry Opportunities:

Prayer Blanket Ministry - This group meets twice a month on the first and third Wednesday of the month at 12:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m. Together and separately, they construct prayer blankets that are given to people who are suffering from something such as illness, loss of a loved one, etc. Recipients are parishioners and people of the community. Volunteer commitment varies and is flexible.

Food Pantry - Parishioners give non perishables to the Food Pantry. Food Pantry volunteers come in once a week to shelf the donated goods. Upon a food assistance call, a volunteer comes in and puts together items that are needed for the recipient to pick up the items. Volunteer commitment varies from 1-2 hours a week to 1-2 hours a month.

Drivers - Volunteers of the parish offer to bring Mass attendees to church with them because they do not drive or have transportation. The volunteer commitment varies depending on the location of the volunteer and the person needing a ride to church.

MCREST - Each year the Christian Service Committee partners up with a host parish and serves dinner one night for the residents. Volunteers gather together at the Life Center the night prior to serving dinner and cook the meal. The evening that they are serving, volunteers meet in the parking lot and car pool to the hosting parish, serve dinner and do some clean up. Commitment varies, but is not more than 10 hours in the two days of service.

Nearly 21 million blood components are transfused each year in the U.S.

FIREWORKS SAFETY

M-class Fireworks

You hear them go off every year: M-80s, M-100s, even M-250s. The unmistakable explosions associated with these devices can rattle the windows of homes for blocks. They are produced illegally and without quality control, have short fuses and cause hundreds of extremely severe injuries each year. The U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives outlines the risks of these explosive devices.

If They're Legal

If fireworks are legal to buy where you live and you choose to use them, be sure to follow the following safety tips:

- Never use fireworks while impaired by drugs or alcohol
- Never allow young children to handle fireworks
- Older children should use them only under close adult supervision
- Anyone using fireworks or standing nearby should wear protective eyewear
- Never light them indoors
- Only use them away from people, houses and flammable material
- Only light one device at a time and maintain a safe distance after lighting
- Never ignite devices in a container
- Do not try to re-light or handle malfunctioning fireworks
- Soak unused fireworks in water for a few hours before discarding
- Keep a bucket of water nearby to fully extinguish fireworks that don't go off or in case of fire

Be Safe!!! Have a Happy Fourth of July!!!

SUMMER CAMP

Looking for a great camp along the shores of a great lake? The Catholic Youth Organization for the Archdiocese of Detroit (http://www.cyocamps.org) offers a traditional summer camp opportunity for kids and families with an infusion of the Catholic faith right along the shores of Lake Huron.

The CYO camps start June 30 and run through Aug. 3. Campers can attend mini – four-day, three-night programs, week-long programs or one of the specialty camps that runs for seven-days and six-nights. Camp is open to kids ages 7-16. During the first four weeks, the CYO camps will have co-ed and boys-only programs. The remainder of the summer will be all-girls programming. The CYO camps are the only Catholic camps that offer all-girl programs..

The Catholic Youth Organization also aims to make the programs affordable for all campers. There are early registration, multi-session and multi-sibling discounts, as well as scholarships for campers.

For more information on the Catholic Youth Organization camps, including registration information, visit the CYO Camps website http://www.cyocamps.org/.

Summer is here and our Summer Camps are already under way. We had a great Volleyball camp where kids got to learn from current Cardinal Mooney coaches and players. Your student still has many camps to choose from, including Mock Trial, Football, and Basketball.

Students going into 5th-9th grade can reserve their spot by going to http://cardinalmooneyschool.online/. You can also contact our Admissions Director Mike McAndrews at 810-765-8825 ext. 11. We can't wait to have these Future Cardinals come learn from our Cardinal Mooney coaches, mentors and students!
