PALM SUNDAY

As a child, I remember loving Palm Sunday. We got palms to wave around (appropriately), the Mass was different than other Masses (we got to yell things during the Gospel), and we got to go home and braid the palms and place them behind the crucifixes or other holy pictures we had on the walls. It was a fun day and I still hold these memories as I celebrate the day today.

It's a strange day – Triumphal Entry, Hosannas, waving palms and then the Crucifixion. It seems a bit confusing. But it's about the passion of the day – the entire spectrum from Triumphal Entry to Triumphal Death – which leads us to the Triumph over death through the Resurrection.

Brian P. Maloney, OFM, offers us this reflection for Passion (Palm) Sunday:

As we retell the story of the Passion of our Lord, this is our story as well, because the Holy Spirit now dwells with us. In every Communion, Christ crucified and risen enters more deeply into our minds, our hearts, our very bodies. And so as we enter into this week, the holiest week of the entire year, let us pray for the grace to have hearts open to all that the Lord teaches us this week. Let us pray for the grace to resist temptation and to live our lives in a holy way. Let us pray for the grace to know and believe that, by His death, Christ destroyed our death, and by rising, He has restored our life. And let us be ready to greet Him when He comes again in glory.

FUNERALS DURING THE SACRED TRIDUUM

On Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday (March 24-27), a funeral Mass may NOT be celebrated according to the law of the Church. What is permitted, is that the body of the deceased may be brought to the parish church and the funeral prayers and final commendations offered, but these rituals must be celebrated without a Mass or the Eucharist during the Triduum. The burial commemorations are also permitted at the cemetery. After Easter Sunday, a Memorial Mass for the deceased may be scheduled if the family wishes. The death of a loved one is a traumatic experience, and the Church's law on this matter might seem insensitive, but during the Sacred Triduum the only Masses that are permitted are the Holy Thursday Evening Mass of the Last Supper and the great Easter Vigil Mass celebrating the Resurrection of Christ on Holy Saturday night. Although Communion is distributed as part of the Good Friday Service, there is no Mass celebrated that day because of the death and burial of Jesus.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

Holy Week is the last week of our readings from REDISCOVER JESUS. The question for this week is "What really brings you joy?" Send your answer to Mary Kral at the Parish Office or marykral4@gmail.com.

HOLY WEEK REMINDERS

Holy Week is the most special time of the Liturgical Year and has the most beautiful liturgies. Please bring your family for a wonderful prayer experience. Everyone is invited to bring bells to church on Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday. Ringing these bells at the beginning of the Gloria makes the Glory to God a bit more special, and the children love it. Also, on Holy Thursday, please bring back your Rice Bowls. We will bring them up at the Presentation of Gifts. All of the money in the Rice Bowls is for the needy. On Holy Saturday, Fr. Ralph will bless the new Holy Water as part of the rituals of the Easter Vigil. You may bring your Holy Water bottle from home to fill, and there will be some Holy Water bottles available.

Have a beautiful and prayerful Holy Week.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!

The Girl Scouts that participated in Girl Scout Sunday were able to donate six cases of cookies to the St. Ben meal program because of the generosity of our parishioners. We cannot say "Thank You" enough, as we have been working towards our goal of "impacting our world around us" this year!

VALET SERVICE

The Knights of Columbus will continue their Valet Service through the Easter weekend. Please arrive early for this service. Thank you, Knights!

DID YOU KNOW . . .

Red, Yellow and White

Our St. Bruno Parish Campus uses these three colors to represent some basic things in our lives through our plantings.

Red is to honor the blood of Christ: We use red roses; red berries on the two Hawthorn trees.

White is to honor the Blessed Virgin: White roses; white Potentilla shrubs.

Yellow is to honor the gift of sunshine God gives us: Stella de Oro daylilies and Forsythia.

As Spring approaches, watch for the colors to burst forth, or find the red berries on the Hawthorn trees.

We will have to replace some of these plantings in the Spring and some will need dividing.
