Reflections on the Word

GOSPEL MEDITATION

"Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God." John the Baptist had an important message to impart. He was called by God to prepare the people of Israel to recognize Jesus' true identity. In a sense, he helped establish credibility for Christ by confirming that he was in fact the Messiah. Jesus didn't just have to claim it on his own; John also "testified" to the fact. We, of course, also benefit from the witness of John the Baptist recorded for us in the Gospels. And we have additional witnesses from the rest of the people throughout the Gospels who knew and recognized Jesus as the Son of God. But we also have the benefit of two thousand years of Church history! We have countless testimonies of saints and believers throughout the centuries who have known Jesus in their own lives and acted accordingly.

This raises two questions. First, are we willing to believe these testimonies from those who have gone before us? Consider how much credence we give to the experiences and the stories of our forefathers and foremothers in the faith—whether they are blood relatives or members of the larger communion of saints. Sometimes these personal accounts of coming to know the Lord are much more powerful than any "proof" or intellectual proposal about Christianity. They do require a degree of faith and trust, but they nonetheless provide us with real evidence about the impact of being close to Christ.

Secondly, let us consider whether or not we are willing to give testimony to who Christ is to us? It's one thing to believe in Jesus; it's another thing to share that faith with others. But like John the Baptist, we are called to share the truth so that others may come to believe.

Sunday, February 12th 9:00-10:15 a.m.

St. Bruno Parish Room

Scripture and our faith tradition have given us many examples to assist us in understanding how the way we pray changes during our lifetime. We'll learn from people like Therese of Lisieux and Julian of Norwich along with examples from Joyce Rupp's book, "The Cup of Our Life," the many styles of prayer and how to discern our prayer style.

Thelma Walker is the former Director of the Office for Women, Archdiocese of Milwaukee where she listened to the needs of women, provided programs, and networked with other organizations to provide resources. In addition, she worked with Parish Nurses and the Domestic Violence issue. She has also worked with the Archdiocesan Human Concerns / Respect Life Office organizing Human Concerns Committees and Clusters. Thelma has worked with Catholic Charities, Department on Aging assessing the needs of older adults in parishes and provided resources to implement recommendations. As Family Minister at St. Alphonsus Parish, Greendale, Thelma provided programs and resources for all types of families. Thelma has over 25 years of experience providing formation and retreats for Parish Councils, committees, and other groups.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It is important to know who we are and from where we come. Having a clear sense of identity allows us to make choices that further express and develop our ultimate purpose and goals. We are reminded today of Jesus' unique identity as God's Son and that by our baptism we are given the gift of sharing in that same intimate relationship with God. May knowledge of this make a difference in how we live our lives!

In the Gospel today, we read "The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us...filled with enduring love.

The opportunity to get away from Friday around 6pm till Sunday at 1pm can be a blessing in your busy life. Doesn't that sound good right now as you are recovering from Christmas busyness?
