Thoughts from Fr. Dan

LIFE IS TO BE LIVED!

Words are cheap. Actions matter. God remakes the world with our deeds, not our intentions. What distinguishes real faith from surface piety is whether we actually do what we say we believe.

This is why elected officials — and even everyday clergy and laypeople — who claim to be Catholic but whom disregard their religious beliefs in their personal lives and public actions are so damaging to the common good. They claim to follow Christ and his Church with their words, but show how unimportant Christ is to them by their living witness.

Our mission as disciples is not simply to pass along good morals to our children, or convey a sense of God's hand in the world. These things are vital, of course, but they don't exhaust our vocation. Our mission is to bring the world to Jesus Christ, and Jesus Christ to the world. Each of us is a missionary, and our primary work is the conversion of our own hearts and the hearts of others, so that someday the whole world will acknowledge Jesus Christ as humanity's only savior and Lord.

That's a big task. We can't do it by just "dialoguing" about it, any more than Christ could redeem us by writing an essay on sin. The Gospels have power because they tell the story of what God did; what his only Son did; and what Christ's followers did. The Passion accounts of Christ's suffering and death move us so deeply because they show in bitter detail how unashamedly God loves us.

This is the hot spark at the heart of Mel Gibson's film "The Passion of the Christ" and every other sincere attempt to tell the Passion story. God spared not even his own Son in saving us. No wonder the cross draws the eye of great artists again and again down the centuries. The blood of the cross reminds us that — at least on one day in history — love had no limits. And since then, everything has been different.

God built the Church we've inherited through the love of generations of believers. Their witness made our faith possible. It's now our turn to shape the future by the zeal we bring to our own daily witness. It's our turn to act. It's our turn to live our Catholic faith with all the courage and strength Christ brought to loving the Church he founded.

Living our Catholic faith means making our Catholic beliefs the anchor of our lives; living them all the time every day, both in our private homes and our public choices; living them in our families, friendships, work environments and social and political decisions. Anything less is lukewarm. Anything less ignores Christ's call to be leaven in the world and "make disciples of all nations."

*God Bless,
Fr. Dan*

Prayer Shawl Ministry and "Hats For the Homeless"

St. Bruno's Prayer Shawl Ministry meets Thursday mornings from 9 to 11 am. We make "prayer shawls" to comfort any person in any kind of physical or emotional need. To date, over 800 have been donated to various community organizations. We also make baptismal blankets, military combat hats, hats and booties for Life's Connection, pocket prayer shawls for Froedtert Hospital along with hats, scarves & mittens for the homeless. Deacon Joe Senglaub uses these in his ministry to the Homeless in Milwaukee. In 2016, the Prayer Shawl group made 225 hats, 7 scarves and 18 sets of mittens to give away. Everyone is welcome to join us – we can provide yarn and support. Of course we are always willing to take donations of yarn – or money, to help our cause. Let us know if we can support you in any way! ~The Prayer Shawl Ministry

Thank You!

A number of daily mass-goers and others were invited to brainstorm some ideas about what they would find worthwhile during Lent. Good conversation happened over coffee and coffeecake. The input was appreciated during these brainstorming sessions.

See the "CHALLENGE YOURSELF this LENT" sign up board in the Gathering area or the bulletin or the parish website to see the results that were suggested. If you have an idea for something for adult formation, please contact Mary Kral 262-965-2332.

This Lent, challenge yourself to get to know Jesus better through prayer, scripture, Adoration, Reconciliation, a Bible study group, Stations of the Cross, and the Holy Week services.

FORMED[®] FREE FOR YOU!

Through your parish, you have access to videos, children's movies, audio books, study guides, and more. For instance, you can watch the movie documentary "Francis, The People's Pope", or watch movies about female saints like Joan of Arc, Mother Teresa, or Bernadette of Lourdes. You will also find electronic books on topics such as the history of the church, the bible, faith, or parenting titles such as "Discovering God Together: The Catholic Guide to Raising Faithful Kids".

Check out "Rome Sweet Home: Our Journey To Catholicism" by Scott and Kimberly Hahn. Scott Hahn was a Presbyterian minister, the top student in his seminary class, a brilliant Scripture scholar, and militantly anti-Catholic ... until he reluctantly began to discover that his "enemy" had all the right answers. Kimberly, also a top-notch theology student in the seminary, is the daughter of a well-known Protestant minister, and went through a tremendous "dark night of the soul" after Scott converted to Catholicism.

Go to FORMED.org and enter the parish code 274255, you will find something that interests you! Questions, contact Mary Kral in the parish office.

ARCHDIOCESE of MILWAUKEE

Schuerman, as auxiliary bishops for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Our Holy Father has gifted us with two humble parish priests to be true servant-leaders as our new auxiliary bishops. Please keep these two men in your prayers—see www.archmil.org for more information.

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel today Jesus says, "you are the light of the world," he is calling us to live our Christian vocation in words and deeds.

Be a "light" to those living in poverty and in a world of darkness by giving a donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

PROTECT LIFE

The state of WI is one of the leading states in Ultrasound initiatives. The Knights of Columbus have placed 21 Ultrasound Machines statewide (2 more pending). The St. Bruno Council has participated in these drives; resulting in machines placed in Milwaukee and one in our Mukwonago "Life's Connection" Center. The number of abortions performed in WI and worldwide have been reduced as a result of the Ultrasound machines.
