At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." - Mk 8:33-34

Stump the Deacon!

What is Sin? How do we know we have sinned? How do we know if it is a Mortal Sin or a Venial Sin?

"Sin is any offense against God; anytime we knowingly, deliberately and willfully disobey or turn away from God, His laws or His teachings. Two things are necessary for anything to be a sin for us: we have to know it is wrong and we have to freely choose to do it. It is anytime we choose something over God and His love. It becomes a "mortal" or deadly sin if the offense (or our intent) is grave or serious. It kills our relationship with God that can only be restored in the sacrament of Reconciliation. A less serious offense is considered Venial because it does not "kill" our relationship with God but may seriously strain it. These sins must be addressed because they weaken our loving relationship with God and make it easier for us to slip into a mortal sin." —Deacon Rudy Stahl

CONSIDERATION OF OUR CHRISTIAN COMMITMENT: ORDINARY CROSSES

This Sunday Jesus reminds us, his disciples, that we must take up our cross each day. Crosses can come into our lives in many shapes and forms. As we begin another parish year of life and ministry, one cross which may confront us often in the course of the year is "stepping forward." I remember a story about Eleanor Roosevelt, the wife of President Franklin Roosevelt. She said, "Every day do one thing that scares you." Being his wife during the wartime years must have scared her abundantly. There is a place in our lives and relationship with God for fear. Being frightened is such a human experience; it is good to recognize a way of trusting God while being aware of this emotional reality in our lives.

In my mind, Jesus expressed his trust and love of the Father in the Garden of Olives, yet the Gospel says he also sweat blood and prayed that this cross could be removed. We walk out the doors of our parish church often times into a world of unknowns. We are sent to face our lives and fears with faith and renewed trust. Fears often times mean some things are important to us. We protect what we consider valuable, precious and meaningful. The world offers us a sense of peace and security, freedom from fear that is temporary and conditional. On the other hand, Jesus offers us a peace and security which results from a permanent relationship. God loves us, but this love does not protect us from experiencing worries and fears. It doesn't mean we do not have to take up the cross each day. His love does not protect us from being human, but does encourage us to keep going, to take up the cross, and face the fears and challenges that cross may bring us.

This Sunday we begin our Parish School of Religion as well as Children's Church. Again we thank the dedicated parishioners who serve in these ministries and wish them God's every blessing. Let us keep this year in our prayers that it be a real grace not only for our younger parishioners but for those who serve.

The Catholic Commentator* has done an article on the Traveling Chalice Ministry. We encourage you to pick up a Commentator when you leave the church and become perhaps better acquainted with this ministry and how others in this ministry feel about it. Persons interested in receiving the chalice and praying for vocations are encouraged to call the parish office (665-5359) or Mary Lynn Womack (665-3505) for more information.

While schools were taking in earlier this month, the K.C.'s were active helping Christ the King Student Center at L.S.U. welcome students. To welcome them to L.S.U. this semester and to Christ the King Student Center, a dinner for 300 to 400 L.S.U. students was prepared by our K.C. Council. This continues a tradition begun back when Fr. Pat Mascarella was pastor at L.S.U. Fr. Pat has retired, but the K.C.'s are still cooking. We thank the K.C.'s for representing both our parish and Church to the students at L.S.U. It is a wonderful way to reach out to them.

Pictured below are one of the many Bible Study groups who have been gathering in the evenings, during the day, several days a week both here at the church campus and in Livingston. In addition to the Bible Study programs, there are other forms of Adult Formation available in the parish, such as Apologetics, and Study Groups, for Men, Women and Couples. Brochures are available in the rear of the churches and more information can be found on our website or by calling the parish office (665-5359). It is never too late to join!

As you will hear today, this weekend is sign-up weekend for the parish Fall Festival. We need everyone's help. I thank Ronnie Dugas for accepting the role of chair and all those who have been meeting with him. If you physically cannot assist, please keep the Festival and all its workers in your prayers. This weekend I thank Fr. Joel Labauve who was baptized with me for taking my place while I enjoy vacation days. Wishing you and your families good days; Love,

A Vocation View: September 13, 2015
24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Did not God choose those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the Kingdom? Count your blessings, then come and help others count theirs too, as a priest or religious. If you feel you have such a vocation, call or email Father Matt Dupré at 225.336.8778, mdupre@diobr.org, or visit, www.diobr.org/vocations.

Traveling Chalice For Vocations will be received by the White family (Wesley & Kathy) for the week of September 13, 2015 at the 7 a.m. Mass and by the Gabriel family (Lou & Ruby) for the week of September 20, 2015 at the 7 a.m. Mass. If your family is interested in receiving the Traveling Chalice, call Mary Womack at 665-3505.
