Weekly Message from Fr. Dan

STEWARDSHIP

Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the first fruits of all your produce. Then will your barns be filled with grain, with new wine your vats will overflow. (Proverbs 3: 9-10)

The word steward from which stewardship is derived can be traced back to the Old English words, "Sty Warden." The word "sty" meant whole farm or estate. Today we still use this word but only to refer to the place where pigs are kept. It originally meant the whole farm, the place where you stayed, hence "the sty." The word "warden" still maintains its meaning when we talk of game warden. The warden was the protector, the guardian and the proxy. A warden was left in charge of the owner's property when the owner was away. It was understood that the warden was in charge and was to treat the property entrusted to him as his own. In many ways it was there to use but not to own. This is yet another way of thinking about stewardship.

God give us gifts throughout our life, and in many ways they are not our own. Our money, our homes, our skills and abilities are on loan to us from God. It is our responsibility to care for the gifts that God has given us; to use them well and preserve them for the next generation.

Furthermore, when we do make our offering to God it should always come from the first fruits as it is taught to us in Sacred Scripture. Even in the story of Cain and Abel we see both of them making offering to God out of the harvest. The difference between their gifts was that Abel offered the first and the best of his harvest, while Cain's offering was not his best and not the first fruits of his flock. Some Christian Denominations have a more elaborated understanding of tithing which acts as a goal to giving. The most important part of the notion of tithing is not whether it is 1%, 2%, 5%, or 10% of our income. What matters the most is the idea of deciding ahead of time the first fruits of our labors will be dedicated to the Lord.

All tithes of the land, whether in grain from the fields or in fruit from the trees, belong to the Lord, as sacred to Him.
(Leviticus 27:30).

SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

ANNUAL FRUIT SALE

The annual fruit sale is underway! Proceeds this year will be going to our Middle School students who are raising funds for their 8th grade trip to Washington D.C. See our table in the Gathering Space after all Masses this weekend and next weekend to place your order. Fruit may also be purchased to be donated to the local Food Pantries. If you have any questions or would like to place an order, contact Tammy Price at tammy.price@stbrunoparishschool.com. The students thank you in advance for your purchase! The sale ends Nov. 12th at Noon!

Support our School Scrip Program!

If you have ever wondered if SCRIP is available for Sendik's, Festival Foods, and Woodman's, it is! We have begun keeping cards in stock for these grocery stores. This is in addition to Pick n Save, Sentry, Piggly Wiggly, and Sam's Club / Walmart. We also keep a regular inventory of Amazon and Target stores for your general pantry needs. See a SCRIP volunteer after mass or submit your Grocery Green Order Form to be filled in about a week. Thank you for "painlessly" supporting our Parish and School by using SCRIP for all your routine shopping! Ask a SCRIP volunteer or write to Eva at StBrunoScrip@gmail.com for more information.

SECRET SANTA

Every child should be able to surprise their mom, dad, grandparent or sibling with a Christmas present! Home and School is looking for gently used or new low priced items for our annual Secret Santa Shop. If you have an item to donate please place it in the Christmas box located in the coat room in the gathering place. This is a year round initiative and items needed are for all ages (baby to adult). Kids age 3-14 will be "shopping" for their families around Christmas. Your generosity is greatly appreciated – thanks for helping!

Prayer for Veterans

Heavenly Father,

On this day, help us remember those who gave of themselves to keep us safe and secure. Enkindle in our consciences a desire to serve those who served their country selflessly. Give us the grace to aid those who have given aid and protection to us and others both here and overseas. Let us never forget the causes for which they fought or the bravery they showed on the battlefield. May we be always mindful of those who paid the price for our freedom, just as your Son have his life to free us from the bondage of sin. Amen.

FAITH FORMATION

THANK YOU...

from the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist to St. Paul Parishioners Autumn is here-a time to celebrate harvest and the many blessings that our God of goodness offers us freely and generously. This autumn is a special time of celebration for us at the Cathedral, as on October 1st, we celebrated 15 years of the Open Door Café - and marked the anniversary by serving our 750,000th hot meal! The Open Door Café continually demonstrates this abundant goodness of God through the nourishing food being given to those most in need, the generosity of time and talent offered by volunteers and through the breaking of bread between people who come from different racial and socio-economic backgrounds in one of the country's most segregated cities. Six days a week, 12 months a year for the last 15 years, community has been built between those who hunger physically and those who hunger for justice. Your parish community has been a vital part of this work and we write to you with a heart-felt invitation to continue this support. Our goal in the next 15 years is to become a stronger advocate for the end of hunger as the Pope has challenged us.

Pope Francis Prayer Intention for NOVEMBER Christians in Asia.

That Christians in Asia, bearing witness to the Gospel in word and deed, may promote dialogue, peace, and mutual understanding, especially with those of other religions.

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

The decorated table in the Gathering Place is called

- a) an altar of blessings
- b) an altarcito
- c) an altar of light
- d) gran altar.

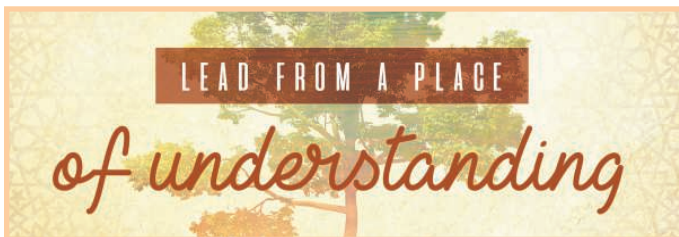

Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: November 9 is the feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. What is the significance of this feast?

Answer Every diocese has a mother church, the bishop's cathedral where the diocesan church gathers and celebrates. The cathedral is the seat of the bishop's authority over the diocese. That authority is intended to be one of service to God's people, shepherding and guiding them in a truly pastoral mode.

The pope is first and foremost the Bishop of Rome, as well as the head of the Roman Catholic Church. St. John Lateran is his cathedral, and its prominence derives from that reality. St. John Lateran cathedral traces its origins to Emperor Constantine who converted a portion of the Laterani family palace into a church, and gave it to Pope Sylvester (314-335) as the papal church and residence; St. John refers to the two saints in whose honor the church is dedicated, John the Baptist and John the Evangelist. It became known as the cathedral of the pope, and its facade's inscription refers to it as "the Mother and Head of all Churches, in the City and of the World." The universal celebration of this feast stresses the unity among Roman Catholics, as they unite themselves with the chair of Peter.

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

The answer is : b

An altarcito is the Spanish word meaning little altar. This type of shrine is customary in Hispanic homes and serves as a place of family prayer. It usually has statues or pictures of Jesus and the saints, as well as photographs of deceased family members and friends. It is especially appropriate during the month of November when we honor and pray for our deceased loved ones. Please feel free to put the pictures of your deceased loved ones on the table or on the "angel board." Also, join us at the Mass of Remembrance on Monday, November 6, at 7 PM.

HOLY DUSTER NEEDED

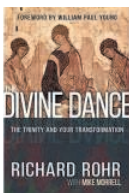

The Holy Dusters need a volunteer for one of their 5 cleaning crews. Can you give the Lord approx. 1 ½ to 2 hours to help with light cleaning of our worship space? You will clean with 2 others once every 5 weeks.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Thirty-first Sunday of Ordinary Time

In the Gospel today, we hear the good news that when we keep our focus on God and serve one another, God exalts us!

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, please say a special prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them.

Sharing the Gospel For the Kids

When you ask Jesus to play with you, he will say, "Which game do you want to play first?" If you ask him to the movies, he will go with you. When extra people show up for his party, he will say, "Come on in, there's always room for one more." If you need to talk with him, he will say, "Sit down right now and tell me all about it." Jesus Christ will never turn you away.

Prayer

Thanks for being my friend, Jesus.

Mission for the Week

Remember some people who have died. Say a prayer for them.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It is so easy to cast judgment upon the thoughts and behaviors of others. We have heard the phrase, "Practice what you preach." If we really believe in Jesus we will put great effort and care into following his example and living his message. Humility is our goal. True humility begins when I see myself as one among many wounded, searching souls who are striving to work out a place in life and discover who God is and how God acts. We are here today because we need to taste and feel the God who reveals himself fully in the Eucharist-the God who is our strength, hope, and salvation. We are not here because we are better or wiser than anyone else for we are simply humble sinners in need of mercy.
