PRAYER TREE: 255-4600

Loving God = good works. A christian should always remember that the value of his good works is not based on their number and excellence, but on the love of God which prompts him to do these things. (John of the Cross)

Loving is growing. How are we to love this God? With everything that we are and who we are. Our love of God is not meant to be static, but constantly be searching and growing. Growing in our emotional relationship with God. Willing to relate to God with all our emotions. We need to be growing in our spiritual relationship with God. Making faith an important part of every day, even when our feelings lag. Growing in our intellectual relationship with God, willing to wrestle with the hard questions and issues of life that demand serious thought and prayer. Don't just believe, or only love a bit, but love with all your heart, soul and mind. This "trinity" of love will help you grow ever closer to the Divine Trinity above.

Stewardship Thoughts: If we accept the challenge of putting God first in our time and treasure, then our attitudes, priorities and spiritual lives will definitely change.

Vocation Views: Jesus upholds the example of the widow who puts two small coins into the Temple treasure as the greatest treasure given. We are to give not out of our surplus, but from our very selves. (Mark 12:38-44)

Marriage Moments: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength." (Mark 12:31) Yes, this is true. In addition to wholehearted love of God, can you also say this about your beloved spouse since God lives in him or her also?

Parenting Pointers: (All Souls Day) How well do your children know their deceased relatives? Why not help them remember by praying for each by name today. Go back as far as you can remember and perhaps reminisce about their saintly qualities. (Susan Vogt.... www.SusanVogt.net)

MEN'S SPIRITUALITY BREAKFAST

All men of the parish are invited to come on Wednesday, November 7th at 7:00 a.m. to have breakfast (served at NO charge), grow in spirituality and listen to Fr. Paul before you begin your busy day.

The Holy Father Speaks... Faith passes through life. When faith is concerned purely with doctrinal formulas, it risks speaking only to the head without touching the heart. And when it is concerned with activity alone, it risks turning into mere moralizing and social work. Faith, instead, is life: it is living in the love of God who has changed our lives. We cannot choose between doctrine and activism. We are called to carry out God's work in God's own way: in closeness, in communion with one another, alongside our brothers and sisters. Closeness: that is the secret to communicating the heart of the faith, and not a secondary aspect. Being a neighbor means bringing the newness of God into the lives of our brothers and sisters. It serves as an antidote to the temptation of easy answers and fast fixes. Let us ask ourselves whether, as Christians, we are capable of becoming neighbors, stepping out of our circles and embracing those who are not "one of us", those whom God ardently seeks. A temptation so often found in the Scriptures will always be there: the temptation to wash our hands. That is what the crowd does in the Gospel. It is what Cain did with Abel, and Pilate with Jesus: they washed their hands. But we want to imitate Jesus and, like him, dirty our hands. He is the way (cf. Jn 14:6), who stopped on the road for Bartimaeus. He is the light of the world (cf. Jn 9:5), who bent down to help a blind man. Let us realize that the Lord has dirtied his hands for each one of us. Let us look at the cross, start from there and remember that God became my neighbor in sin and death. He became my neighbor; it all starts from there. And when, out of love for him, we too become neighbors, we become bringers of new life. Not teachers of everyone, not specialists in the sacred, but witnesses of the love that saves.

Welcome! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today and we hope you will return often. If you do not belong to a parish, please consider choosing Corpus Christi as your church home. You may call the parish office at 255-4600 to register.

THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

"The Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor..." Isaiah 61:1

In November, in gratitude and thanksgiving for the many blessings God has bestowed upon us, let us open our hearts to help those in need in our community. It is time to begin our annual Thanksgiving food pantry appeal. Donated items are used to fill an average of 50 boxes each week. Our goal is to provide enough food in each box that a simple breakfast and lunch meal as well as a hot meal each evening can be prepared for a family for at least that week.

The following items especially needed this year are: canned fruit and vegetables, cereal, pancake mix, syrup, peanut butter, noodles and pasta sauce, instant potatoes and rice.

We will be collecting items from November 17th - November 25th. You can bring your contributions any time and drop them off at the table located in the center of the church.

Please join us as we bring good news to the poor and hungry in our community!

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14TH, 2018
5:00-6:00 p.m. in the Church
Any students in 4th - 12th grade are welcome to join us!

NOVEMBER: A MONTH OF REMEMBRANCE

During the month of November, we are called in a special way to remember and pray for "our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection."

We have placed "A Book of Eternal Light" at the entrance of the church in which we list all members of the Church of Corpus Christi who have gone before us since our beginning on August 1, 1964. There is also another book at the entrance of the church in which you can write the names of your beloved family and friends who have died and we will remember them in prayer this month.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Silly love songs?

Love is all you need. So say every generation's love songs since the biblical Song of Songs was put to papyrus. When asked to choose the primary commandment, Jesus chose love of God and neighbor. Love is clearly that fundamental. But it's far more than a feeling. The mandate to love doesn't dictate our emotions, but rather our priorities. How do we put God and neighbor first, in each decision, with every expenditure of time and resource? If love begins to routinely triumph over self-interest, how might worship, family, society, and world be transformed?

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 6:2-6; Hebrews 7:23-28; Mark 12:28b-34 (152). "To love [God] with all your heart . . . is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

Some of my best friends

You've probably noticed in reading the gospels and listening to Sunday sermons that the Pharisees come off as the bad guys in a lot of gospel stories. Recent scholars suggest, however, that tensions between Jesus and the Pharisees may have been exaggerated when the gospel accounts were later written down, reflecting conflicts between early Christians and Jews. In fact, a number of other New Testament figures, including Nicodemus, Joseph of Arimathea, and perhaps Saint Paul himself, were Pharisees who ended up devoted to the cause of Jesus. We don't have to consider those who differ with us as enemies—they may end up being some of our best friends.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 2:1-4; Luke 14:12-14 (485). "On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees."

Gotta hand it to them

Take note the next time you practice charity or drop a coin in the cup of someone begging: How will you feel if they don't say "thank you"? Jesus' advice to hold a banquet for those who can't possibly repay us challenges our deepest instincts. It is natural to shower our generosity on friends and loved ones. Jesus challenges us to go further. True charity has no strings attached. Can we reach out a hand to others even if we come up empty-handed?

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 2:5-11; Luke 14:15-24 (486). "Bring in here the poor and the crippled, the blind and the lame."

Wednesday, Nov 07, 2018

Lend a hand

In the Okinawan language two characters make up the word karate: kara ("empty") and te ("hand"). The name of this martial art, then, is literally "the way of the empty hand." Tadashi Nakamura, the founder of the Seido form of karate, said: "When we love freely, we can give and share everything. We need hold on to nothing. Our hands can be empty." Jesus was no martial artist, but nonetheless his way of life was one of an "open hand": to empty himself in order to give himself. Those who would call themselves his followers should be ready to do the same.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 2:12-18; Luke 14:25-33 (487). "Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple."

Do what you can

Mother Teresa used to say that she did not add, she subtracted—and she was not talking about arithmetic skills. You'll never win at the game of measuring the success of service in numbers, she was pointing out. The total of those in need will always outrun your efforts to catch up with it. Though her Missionaries of Charity have helped hundreds of thousands—perhaps millions—of people, they cannot reach everyone. If you see, as she did, every person to whom you give aid to be another person subtracted from the mass of suffering, the numbers game changes—especially if you consider each one of them to be a child of God. In trying to feed the world's hungers, you don't have to do everything, but you can do something.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 3:3-8a; Luke 15:1-10 (488). "What woman having ten coins and losing one would not light a lamp and sweep the house, searching carefully until she finds it?"

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

Living stones

How often, when we speak of church, we have to clarify whether we mean the faith community or the building where that community gathers. As we celebrate the Lateran Basilica—the pope's own cathedral, the mother of all churches—we remember that human beings need things that appeal to the senses to remind us of spiritual values. Saint Augustine says that when the community of faith gathers "they are hewn out, as it were, from mountains and forests, like stones and timber; but by catechizing, Baptism, and instruction they are . . . shaped, squared, and planed by the hands of the workers and artisans" and finally are made into a house for the Lord, "fitted together through love."

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezra 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that God's Spirit dwells in you?"

MEMORIAL OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

You want Leo on your side

Attila, called the "scourge of God," had sacked Milan and set out to attack Rome in A.D. 452. The Emperor Valentinian III hid behind the walls of a remote castle, and panic seized the capital. In this climate of fear, Pope Leo set out unarmed to meet Attila, and somehow induced him to turn back. A few years later the Vandal king Genseric invaded Rome, but Leo was able to persuade him not to rape and pillage. Leo then set about repairing the damage of the invasion by distributing alms. The next time you find yourself short on courage, call on the memory of this great hero of the tradition. Chances are, whatever you are facing can't be any worse than Attila!

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 4:10-19; Luke 16:9-15 (490). "The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones."
