Reflection: Palm Sunday

Jesus will never violate our freedom. These Jewish leaders want to reject him and do away with him – he lets them. Pilate would prefer that Jesus take the responsibility off his shoulders – Jesus refuses; he nudges Pilate's conscience through his wife's dream, but he won't take the decision out of Pilate's hands.

God's plan of salvation includes human freedom. Abuse of that freedom leads to the worst human tragedies, like the deicide we are witnessing now, but God knows that without freedom there can be no love. And since he created us to love, he won't violate that freedom. He is wise and powerful enough to bring victory out of the defeats caused by sin, so he tolerates the abuse of freedom in order to keep open the possibility of love.

Ask an Adorer

Q: How can I form a habit of spending a Holy Hour in Eucharistic Adoration?

A: One suggestion is to start small and at home. Choose an hour to set aside each week for prayer, spiritual reading, and reflection. Write the time down on your calendar or put a reminder in your phone just as you would for a secular activity. Once you have established a pattern, take that hour to the Blessed Sacrament chapel to be in the Real Presence. The chapel is open at all times (please note your visit in the adorer log).

When exposition of the Sacrament is offered, sign up for that particular hour. When St. Alphonsus Liguori Parish is ready to offer Perpetual Adoration, you will be ready to offer your Holy Hour!

"I often speak with my Teacher, Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, because I can learn from Him. Jesus is the teacher of the science of holiness. I go to Him because I would like to learn from Him how to become a saint. Of what use to me is all knowledge and education, if I do not become holy?"

~ St. Francis de Sales

"I used to think that my worth was based on what I did in my career, my paycheck, my social standing with peers. Then one day I found out that I had cancer. I prayed more, but was very private about it. My wife invested time in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel, adoring Christ in the Eucharist. She grew in holiness and dependence on God. I watched the change in her but could not bring myself to visit the Chapel. Her investment greatly influenced our family. Our children came to understand the power of prayer, especially in the presence of Christ. We are all on a journey of faith, at different points along the way. My perspective changed. I discovered that my very life is a gift. I know that Christ is present in the Tabernacle of the Chapel waiting for me."

~ A.M., Parishioner

Do You Feel Called to Adoration?

Are you called to participate more in Eucharistic Adoration?

Do you sense a need to bring others into the Presence of Christ?

Please join us for the Eucharistic Adoration Partnership meeting on Wednesday, April 19 at 7 pm in the Reception Room of the Church.

We are a group of parishioners who express the love of Christ in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Since the time of Christ's birth, when the Magi came from the East to do homage of the newly born Christ, we are all called to worship and to be in communion with our Creator. In the act of investing time before God in prayer and devotion, we are transformed in the presence of the living God.

Be a part of the efforts of parishioners to grow the practice of Eucharistic Adoration at St. Alphonsus Liguori Church.

"Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us."

~ St. Alphonsus Liguori
