Fr. Dan Weekly Message

NEW YEAR'S BLESSING

God of every nation and people,
from the very beginning of creation
you have made manifest your love:
when our need for a Savior was great you sent your Son to be born of the Virgin Mary.

To our lives he brings joy and peace,
justice, mercy, and love.

Lord, bless us and our families in the New Year.

Raise up our thoughts to Jesus,
who is God-with-us and Savior of all,
and who lives and reigns for ever and ever.
Amen.

*Wishing you all a Blessed New Year
Fr. Dan*

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

This is the Feast of the Holy Family and the reading today says
"And let the peace of Christ control your hearts...and be thankful."
Is this from the letter to the...

- a) Colossians
- b) Thessalonians
- c) Philippians
- d) Corinthians

Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer: Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are--God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer--before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people.

Common Committee Meeting Night January 10th 6:00 p.m.

All St. Bruno committees are invited to a social & light dinner event in the Gathering Place on Jan. 10th at 6:00 p.m. Please RSVP to your committee chairperson by January 3rd. Each committee should bring 1 one dish to pass. This will replace your January meeting.

Please contact Pat Seegers at pat@ascentbuild.com with any questions.

Grief and the Holidays

The holidays are especially difficult for those mourning the loss of a loved one. Here are several ways to care for friends and family dealing with loss.

- ♦ Be personal - reach out in person or on the phone, rather than online.
- ♦ Be inclusive - invite those who are grieving to a holiday outing or gathering.
- ♦ Be specific - instead of saying "let me know if you need anything," offer to help with holiday decorating, bake cookies...
- ♦ Be mindful - remember not just on the holidays, families don't want loved ones forgotten. (The Wall Street Journal)

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

4th Sunday of Advent

Imagine how Mary felt at the birth of Jesus: excited, awed, frightened. Deep faith was her light in the darkness, for Jesus was born during the night of the year when darkness is the longest.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought light into the darkness surrounding the heart of those living in poverty bringing them the real, lasting, and deep joy of Christmas.

Sharing the Gospel For the Kids

Mary and Joseph went to the temple and presented the baby Jesus to God.

Two older people recognized that Jesus was the Messiah. They gave him special blessings. They thanked God for this child. Just like Mary and Joseph, your parents gave thanks to God when you were born. They were very happy God gave you to them. They had you baptized in church, and presented you as a gift to God, too.

Prayer

Lord, thank you for bringing the baby Jesus into my life.

LIVE THE LITURGY -

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Families face many challenges. All of the demands of work, school, and society can easily put a strain on even the best intentioned of families. Hurt, anger, and bitterness can grow in our families especially when conflicts are not properly resolved or relationships nurtured. Human beings require time, patience, love, and nurturing. We need to take time to celebrate the gift of family and not allow other demands to rob us of the time we need to spend together. Life is short. The Holy Family stands before us today showing us that love, commitment, and perseverance can see us through any difficulty or challenge life can bring. May we learn from their example!

Does your child need to be Baptized?

Please remember that all parents must attend a preparation class before their child can be baptized. If you need to attend a baptism class or need information regarding baptism, please call 965-2332 or email Mary Kral, marykral4@gmail.net
