GRACE—PART 1

Recently, I read a book called Christian Philosophical Theology, which includes a chapter contrasting two basic approaches to religion throughout the world. The first—which can be found in much of the East—is a religion of karma, and the second—prominent in the Abrahamic religions of the West—is a religion of grace.

The first approach has a lot to recommend it—which explains its great endurance across the centuries. A karmic approach says that, by a cosmic spiritual law, we are punished or rewarded according to our moral activities. If we do bad things, we will suffer, either in this life or a life to come. And if we do good things, we will be rewarded, again either here or in the hereafter. Karma might not be immediate, as is the law of gravity (remember John Lennon's playful song "Instant Karma"), but in the long run, people are rewarded or punished according to merit. And this satisfies our sense of fairness and justice.

Now a religion of grace is different. It teaches that all people are sinners and hence deserving of punishment, but that God, out of sheer generosity, gives them what they don't deserve. Think of one of the most popular lines in Christian poetry: "Amazing grace how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me." In terms of a karmic religion, wretches deserve a wretched fate, and it would be unfair for wicked people to be given a great gift. But devotees of a religion of grace exult in this generosity. Think in this context of the parable of the workers hired at different times of the day or the story of the Prodigal Son. Those make sense only in a religion-of-grace context.

We must keep in mind that there is a serious objection indeed to such a understanding of religion. If grace is a gift, and if there is no real warrant for the gift, then how come only some get it and others don't? How could it possibly be fair that some people receive the gift of eternal life—through no merit of their own—and others don't? This complaint becomes even more acute when we realize that the Bible—from beginning to end—presents a God who chooses. God selects Abel and not Cain, Abraham and not Lot, Jacob and not Esau, David and not Saul. In fact, one of the most basic truths of the Biblical revelation is that Israel itself is a chosen people, a holy nation, a people set apart. And God insists—just to make the point clearly—that Israel was not chosen because it was the greatest, most just, most accomplished of all the peoples of the world, just the contrary. Stay tuned to Part 2 next week

FAITH FORMATION

Let us pray...

You are invited to gather for prayer on Friday evenings in Lent: Adoration begins at 5:00 pm followed by Stations of the Cross at 6:00 pm. Come for part or all of these Lenten traditions. This year, we will alternate parish locations, please see the schedule below. After praying together, you are invited to stay for fellowship and food.

- † Feb 16: St Paul (fish fry)
- † Feb 23: St Bruno (soup)
- † March 2: St Paul (fish fry)
- † March 9: St Bruno (soup)
- † March 16: St Paul (fish fry)
- † March 23: St Bruno (soup)

Soup and Stations

If you have a favorite meat-free soup recipe, you're invited to make a big batch of it for fellowship after Stations of the Cross at St Bruno's on February 23, March 9 or March 23. Please contact Mary Kral to pick a date that works for you.

Please note: February 23 you can also attend Living Stations of the Cross at St Bruno from 7:00-8:30 pm.

Jesus is always inviting you to go deeper in your relationship with Him. Here are some suggestions at St Bruno, St Paul (and beyond). Ask the Holy Spirit to help you choose at least one for this Lenten season. Visit our website for more details:

Say "No" to Corruption

That those who have material, political or spiritual power may resist any lure of corruption.

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

In order to effect a more collaborative means of communication among parishes and deaneries, the archbishop appoints a priest (or bishop) to help him in the governance of the archdiocese.

This position is called

- a) an assistant
- b) a rector
- c) a vicar general
- d) an episcopal

Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: Carnivale and Mardi Gras celebrations are linked to Ash Wednesday, Lent, fast and abstinence. Can you tell us more about the connections between these events?

Answer: Ash Wednesday is the beginning of the forty days known as Lent. Every year, Christians highlight this penitential season as a time of self-examination, reformation of one's life, and continued development of a deeper spiritual life. The recommended practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving become the focus of Lenten activity and ritual. Each of these spiritual practices is aimed at personal discipline as well as continued concern for the other, especially the poor or alienated.

Forty days is a symbolic biblical period of time, during which personal transformation occurs and out of which people surface as more spiritual, ready to carry out God's mission. Relying on God's providence and care, no matter how difficult life becomes, is crucial to Lenten spirituality. Fasting was initially stricter, permitting only one simple meal a day without meat, fish, or other delicacies. Such things were not even allowed in the house.

In order to prepare for this in an age of no refrigeration, people gathered to consume whatever was not allowed during Lent. This led to parties or celebrations originally referred to as Carnivale, literally meaning "goodbye to meat," or Mardi Gras, literally meaning "Fat Tuesday." The eating and celebrating ended on the Tuesday just before Ash Wednesday. Today we focus more on moderation in all things, as well as a strong concern the poor. What are you doing for the poor this Lent?

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel today, we find that Jesus would rise very early before dawn and go to a deserted place to pray and then he went out to preach and to heal.

Please pray for the poor and suffering, knowing that you are bringing the love and peace of Jesus to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

Sharing the Gospel For the Kids

It is not fun to be sick. You miss your friends at school. You can't go outside to play. On top of being bored and lonely, you don't feel well at all. The man with leprosy in today's Gospel was sick a long, long time. He was really bored, lonely, and feeling awful. There was no medicine for leprosy. Jesus was the only one who could help him.

Prayer

God, you have the power to heal. Help me to trust you, even when I'm sick.

Mission for the Week

Visit the sick. Make a card. Take a treat to share. Give them something to read. Pray for them before you leave. You will brighten their day.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We never marginalize or turn our backs on those who suffer violence, oppression from unjust systems, poverty, illness, or disease.

Jesus never turned anyone away, but always extended a hand of healing and compassion. He would insist on extending God's merciful and unconditional love to all, even if it meant breaking the Sabbath or civil law. Does the way we treat others, especially those who are different than us, reflect the freedom, joy, love, and good news of the Gospel?
