Weekly Message

Divine Mercy Sunday

On the Second Sunday of Easter of the Jubilee Year 2000, at the Mass for the canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska, Pope John Paul II proclaimed to the world that "from now on throughout the Church this Sunday will be called Divine Mercy Sunday." Pope John Paul had actively promoted the message of St. Faustina. In his 1980 encyclical on God's mercy, Rich in Mercy, he developed a scriptural and doctrinal basis for our faith in the mercy of God. By linking the revealed truth about God's mercy to one of the most solemn Sundays after Easter itself, he illumined the fact that the liturgy already proclaimed the divine mercy. The truth has been embedded for two millennia in the worship of the Church. Once again we see an illustration of the ancient saying, "The law of faith is the law of prayer."

On the Second Sunday of Easter, the responsorial psalm and Gospel for Cycles A, B and C center on the theme of mercy. In Psalm 118 we sing three times, "His mercy endures forever." The Gospel, from John 20:19-31, begins with the risen Christ appearing to the apostles on Easter night. Jesus calms his disciples by saying and giving them "Peace." He shows them the scars of his Passion, his wounded hands and side. His glorified body retains the evidence of his saving work through his suffering, death and resurrection. He fills them with joy and again says to them—and produces in them—"Peace." Then he breathes on them and explains what the divine breathing means with the words, "Receive the holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." He gives the apostles the power of God's mercy for the sinner, the gift of forgiving sins from God's treasury of mercy. The other texts speak of healing and give the assurance there is nothing to fear.

You might have seen the image of Jesus standing with one hand outstretched in blessing, the other clutching the side wounded by the spear, from which proceed beams of falling light, red and white in color. An explanation of these colors was given to Sister Faustina by Jesus himself saying, "The two rays represent blood and water."^[2] This has been attributed to the "blood and water" referenced in the Gospel of John, (John 19:34) and which is also mentioned in the optional of the Chaplet. The words "Jesus I Trust in Thee" He gave her a chaplet to be recited and said that it was appropriate to pray the chaplet at three o'clock each afternoon (the Hour of Great Mercy).

FAITH FORMATION

Easter Vigil Sacraments

What a lovely Easter Vigil celebration! James Barnes, Sean Hannan, and Justin Timmerman were Baptized, Confirmed, and received their First Eucharist. Karen Gross, James Taylor, and Anna Vollbrecht were received into Full Communion with the Catholic Church when they received the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. Cory and Michelle Edwards completed their Sacraments of Initiation in the Catholic Church when they received the Sacrament of Confirmation. Blessings to all of these children of God! We appreciate our team of RCIA facilitators: Beth and Peter McFadzen, Deacon Joe Senglaub, and Fr. Dan Volkert. It has been a beautiful journey of faith for all of these people and their families!

Holy Spirit

We rejoice in the Resurrection of Jesus at Easter and celebrate the Easter season right up to Pentecost. What a glorious time to keep talking about the love of God we've witnessed during Lent and through Holy Week. Come learn more about the Holy Spirit. Small groups will meet for six weeks between Easter and Pentecost to share how we can work with the grace of the Holy Spirit to enflame our hearts with God's love by learning more about the role of the Holy Spirit, living in the Holy Spirit, obstacles to living there, and gifts and fruits of the Spirit. Please sign up on line on the website (or call Mary Kral to sign up) so we know how many books to order ($10 cost).

Mondays, 9-10:30am, St Bruno Parish Room beginning April 9

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

This Sunday is the Second Sunday of Easter, also called Divine Mercy Sunday. The devotion was promoted by Pope John Paul II on April 30, 2000. This was the canonization of a special saint who received the message of Divine Mercy from Jesus. Which saint was this?

- a) Maximilian Kolbe
- b) Gemma Galgani
- c) Faustina Kowalska
- d) Katharine Drexel

Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: What is the story behind Divine Mercy Sunday?

Answer: In Poland during the early 1930s, Jesus appeared to a religious sister, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska. These private revelations had one key theme: the love and mercy of God. The relevance of this message was evident then and would continue to resound in importance throughout the social and political upheaval of the 20th century.

One of Jesus' requests was the institution of a feast of God's mercy. St. Faustina records in her diary, "I desire that the Feast of mercy be a refuge and shelter for souls? let no soul fear to draw near to me? It is my desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter" (Diary, no. 699). After St. Faustina's canonization in 2000, the Vatican declared that the Second Sunday of Easter would be known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

The answer is : c

St. Faustina (1905-1938) was a Polish nun and mystic. When Jesus appeared to her, He asked her to promote the devotion to His Divine Mercy. He promised special grace related to the devotion of Divine Mercy and encourages us to offer forgiveness to others.

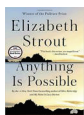

Pray for all military personnel and their families. May God keep them safe in his hands.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Second Sunday of Easter

In the Gospel today, Jesus stands in the midst of us and says: "Peace be with you!"

During Mass we turn to each other and say "Peace be with you!" As you put your gift into the St. Vincent de Paul poor box you say "Peace be with you!" to those who are poor and hungry.

Sharing the Gospel For the Kids

After Jesus died, his disciples were afraid the Jewish leaders would kill them, too. They hid together in one room. They locked the doors and windows. Then Jesus appeared in front of them. They were not afraid any more. When you are afraid, Jesus will help you too. Tell him why you are afraid. Believe in Jesus. He will give you everything you need. He wants you to live with him forever in heaven.

Prayer

Jesus, I believe in you. Lead me to your heavenly home.

Mission for the Week

I will ask Jesus to help me and my family when we are afraid.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What does it take to believe that something is real? We live in an age of computer technology complete with things like Photoshop and other programs that can enhance photographs, create realistic images, and mimic artistic renderings. When looking at a picture of something, we find ourselves wondering if what we are seeing is real or just the result of technological creativity. Early believers came to believe because of what they witnessed in these new communities of faith. They saw people authentically living out Jesus' command to love and to show mercy. What do people witness when they see us in action?
