GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Now what?" It's a difficult thing to hear, isn't it? The train comes late, a child unexpectedly cries, and the latest public policy debate flares up in the news. Life throws us curveballs, and we have no choice but to adapt. Jesus and the Apostles find themselves in that exact situation in today's Gospel.

The Apostles have returned from their two-by-two missionary journey. As Jesus hears all of their stories, he knows they need time to recover and refresh. "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Their wilderness retreat is short-lived, however, as eager crowds discover their location. Jesus is well aware of the needs of his disciples. Still, as he looks out at the crowd, "His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd." The rest break is over. "He began to teach them many things."

For those of us who have experienced a taste of much-needed relaxation only to have it taken away abruptly, perhaps we surmise what the Apostles might have been feeling in that moment. But Jesus isn't being inconsiderate of the Apostles' needs. He offers them - and us - a lived lesson. St. John Paul II wrote, "The whole of Christ's life was a continual teaching: his silences, his miracles, his gestures, his prayer, his love for people, his special affection for the little and the poor, his acceptance of the total sacrifice on the Cross for the redemption of the world" (On Catechesis in Our Time, 9). In Jesus' choice to teach, we see all of these things: sacrificial love, concern for the marginalized, and priority of people's needs over personal preference. These aren't abstract ideals. They're lived realities as we strive to live and love like Jesus. When a new obstacle confronts you in your life, how do you respond?

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

Many people identify with saints due to their connection with difficult health conditions. In this category would be saints like Peregrine, the patron of those who suffer with cancer and Lucy, the patron saint of those with eye conditions. St. Dymphna is the patron saint of those who struggle with

| c) muscle dysfunction | d) heart disease. |

Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: July 26 is the feast of Joachim and Anna. Who are they and what do we know about them?

Answer: Joachim and Anna are the parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, yet there is absolutely no biblical reference to them whatsoever. So where do we get their names, and what is their story?

Their names are found in an apocryphal (hidden) gospel known as "The Infancy Gospel of James." Apocryphal, or hidden gospels, consist of accounts of Jesus' life that were ultimately not accepted as inspired works, and thus were not included in the Bible. However, they sometimes captured the Christian imagination, spilling into the devotional dimension of the community.

James' infancy gospel begins with the parents of Mary and their desire for a child. In their prayer and petitions to God, they are heard and given the blessings of a child, whom they named Mary. While we have no idea who Mary's parents really were, the fact that we celebrate the feast of Joachim and Anna indicates that the bond of family love is important in the Christian life.

Long before Grandparents' Day was established, the church had a feast that honored the presumed grandparents of Jesus. While their names are part of non-inspired apocryphal legends, the fact of the Savior's human ancestry is not. Christ, the incarnate Word, dwelt among us in the flesh in a human family. In honoring the grandparents of Jesus, we really proclaim our faith in the Incarnation -- God becoming human!

ALPHA IS COMING!

"Why am I here? Is there more to life than this?"

Alpha offers the opportunity to investigate those questions through food, fellowship, a talk, and discussion with others searching for the answers just like you. Come and see this fall. Watch the bulletin and parish website for more information. In the meantime, here's what a few Alpha guests had to say about their experience:

People are at different places on their spiritual journey.

It's a comfort that other people have similar concerns.

Learn what other people feel about their faith.

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

The answer is : b

St. Dymphna lived in the 7th century in Ireland. Her father was a Pagan Irish King and her mother was a Christian. Dymphna was killed by her father. After her death, there were many reports of miraculous healings of the mentally ill.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples to "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Vincent de Paul, a great man of action was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God's love overflowed into practical love for the poor.

Please say a special prayer for the poor and forgotten, as you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box.

Sharing the Gospel For the Kids

Have you ever just wanted to be alone for a while? Jesus and his disciples knew what that felt like. They wanted to be alone to talk and rest, but crowds of people were surrounding them. Even when Jesus and his disciples tried to slip away unnoticed, people followed them anyway. They arrived only to find more crowds of people. This was certainly not the quiet time they had planned on. Being patient and kind, Jesus gave up what he wanted, and he began to teach the crowds.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you that Jesus gave up what he wanted, just so he could help other people. Help me to follow his example. Amen.

Mission for the Week

Spend some alone time with Jesus tonight. If you get interrupted because someone else needs help, that's okay. Go help, and then come back to your alone time with Jesus.

LIVE THE LITURGY -

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The many images we have of God help frame our relationship with Him. Have we ever imagined Jesus so deeply moved with emotion and engulfed with pity for us? We often are sheep without a shepherd who are lured by the emptiness of worldly attractions and superficial desires. We become lost. God, in the depth of His being, is deeply moved by our pain, loneliness, and heartache. God does not judge or condemn. He loves and is mercy itself. He knows firsthand the pain that comes with being lost and alone and desires to teach us about His merciful love. Do we want to be taught? Listen to God's word and be open to God's presence in the Eucharist.

St. Bruno Prayer Shawl Ministry

The St. Bruno Prayer Shawl Ministry will be 10 years old on July 24.

One of the parish's most active ministries, it has met weekly, year round since its inception, and crafted almost 1000 prayer shawls that are offered to those struggling with the loss of a loved one, those facing serious illness, or some other devastating event. A card enclosed with each shawl carries the opening message "May this prayer shawl enfold you in warmth, comfort, healing and peace", and concludes "This prayer shawl was made just for you with our love and prayers. St. Bruno's Prayer Shawl Ministry." You do not have to be a member of St. Bruno to receive a shawl, as they are freely offered to individuals outside our community. They have received many heart-felt notes of appreciation from recipients of these shawls.

They have also created baby blankets that are given at baptisms, hundreds of hats and mittens that have been taken to St. Ben's by Deacon Joe and baby booties sent to Life's Connection. Please contact Yvonne Hickey at jonvon@execpc.com or (262)443-7934 for more information.
