PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
To engage our Parish Family in continuing the loving and reconciling ministry of Jesus Christ. through Worship, Witness and Works.

PARISH COUNCIL NOMINEES FOR TODAY'S ELECTION

All parishioners are invited to vote for two candidates in today's election of Parish Council representatives. The three-year terms of Heather Fink, who presently serves as chairman of the Parish Council, and Bob Meadows are expiring. We are most grateful to Heather and Bob for their dedicated service to St. Michael's!

Parishioners of St. Michael's for six years, Jamila Abdishi-Brown and her husband Bruce have been married for 27 years. They are the proud parents of three daughters, Leila, Liliana and Lucia, whom they adopted from Guatemala as infants. All three of the girls attend Guardian Angels Catholic School where Jamila is a member of the Parents and Family Association Board. Prior to joining St. Michael's., the Browns were active members of Espiritu Santo where Jamila served on the Parish Life Committee. She is a pharmaceutical representative and enjoys running and working out in her spare time. She is honored to be nominated to serve on the Parish Council and if elected, will do her best to serve to the greatest capacity in that role.

A native of Wisconsin, Don Budd and his wife of 52 years, Corinne retired from the floral business and moved to Florida in 2000. They attended several other local Catholic Churches before choosing St. Michael's as their home parish. After growing up without an organized religion, Don read up on various religions and chose Catholicism for its well-documented, factual history. He was received into Full Communion in our Church in 1963. In Wisconsin, Don belonged to St. Andrews where he served as a Eucharistic Minister and usher, and where he taught Confirmation Class for two years in addition to coaching various sports and acting as a Boy Scout troop leader. He and Corinne have three adult children and four grandchildren. Here at St Michael's, Don serves as a Eucharistic Minister and weekday Altar Server and would welcome the opportunity to represent you on our Parish Council.

A parishioner at St Michael the Archangel since relocating to the Clearwater area in 2003, Clara Moll is married to Glenn Adams. Their two children: Clara Marie and Lewis, served as Altar Servers for many years . Clara coordinated the annual Father/Daughter Dance for many years and serves as a Eucharistic Minister. Clara and her family find St. Michael's to be a great community where they enjoy the fellowship and friendship that exist in all the ministries. Clara has served two one-year appointed terms on our Parish Council and believes that being a member of the Parish Council is a welcome opportunity for her to contribute to the church she loves so well.

Ellen Poniewaz and her husband Stan moved to Florida five years ago and immediately fell in love with their new parish family here at St. Michael's. Married for 50 years and originally from St. Louis, MO, Ellen and Stan have five children and five grandchildren. Ellen holds a BSN from Maryville University and worked as a pediatric nurse for twenty-nine years. Ellen is elated to have met so many warm and friendly people at St. Michael's where she is a member of the Women's Club and the Habitat Faith Build Team, as well as a Eucharistic Minister. She also volunteers with Carelift at Morton Plant Hospital and is an associate with the Sisters of Notre Dame. Having previously served on her Parish Council at St. Francis of Assisi in Luebbering, MO, and two appointed one-year terms on our St. Michael Parish Council, Ellen would be greatly honored to continue to serve.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

In chapter 12 of St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians, we get a lesson in ecclesiology, or what it means to be Church. Paul wants to stress the importance of the unity of the Church. The Church is Christ's body and the marker of a healthy body is that every part performs its own function for the good of the whole. But unity does not mean Uniformity; therefore, within the Church there are many different gifts and functions. Most important is the recognition that every one of them is a gift of the Holy Spirit and given not for the glory of the individual member but rather, for the good of the whole.

Paul begins by saying that all gifts come from the Holy Spirit and it is his belief that they ought to be used in God's service. But we cannot define the idea of gifts too narrowly. Gifts are not limited to things like speaking, preaching, praying, teaching and writing - as important as these gifts are. The gifts of the person who works with their hands are just as important: the mason, the carpenter, the electrician, the plumber all have their special gifts which are from God and can be used for Him. As pastor, I see people on a daily basis who simply have a deep desire to be of service to God's Church and to their fellow human beings.

Whether it is the talents of the St. Michael's Women's Group having their rummage sale or Fashion Show to support the parish, or a group of parishioners joining in the building of a home for Habitat for Humanity, or a sacristan taking special care of the sacred vessels used at Mass, these are but a few examples of the gifts with which we glorify God.

On this Pentecost, which is often referred to as the birthday of the Church, I suppose we could say that ecclesiology is all about how we as a people put our various gifts together to glorify the God who gave us these gifts through worship and the service of our brothers and sisters.

Sincerely in Christ,

Rev. Gary J. Toetz

Eucharistic Exposition

YOUR LIBRARY

Come join us after the 11 AM Mass today in our Parish Library for an engaging movie. It is about a man named Paul, who is caught between The Way and The World. However, a terrible accident and a miraculous discovery take Paul off course and onto a road of self-discovery where he learns to live and love The Way. The movie begins at 12:15 PM, is 100 minutes in length, and as always, complimentary refreshments will be served. Parish Library: Room #13.
