Say "YES" to the Holy Spirit

What did Mary do? She said "yes" to the Holy Spirit. And in that "yes," the Holy Spirit filled her with new life. The Early Church called Mary Theotokos, which is Greek for "God-bearer." She allowed her Creator to act in her and accomplish great things through her. In giving birth to God's son, Mary gave new life to the whole world. We're called to follow her example, each of us in his or her own way. Hearing the Gospel isn't enough. Talking about our faith isn't enough. We have to do something about it. Each of us, in a personal way, needs to be a kind of Theotokos, a God-bearer. The seed of faith has to bear fruit in a life of Christian action, a life of personal

This is why this Pentecost celebration is so important. Pentecost is the birthday of the Church. Pentecost is our birthday as a believing people. The Church, like Mary, is about new life. The Holy Spirit filled Mary with new life at the Annunciation, and Mary gave birth to Jesus. The Holy Spirit filled the Apostles with new life at Pentecost, and they immediately gave birth to a new era through their preaching and example.

God relentlessly creates new life through each of us - if we allow Him to. We're meant to be fertile. We're meant to bring others to new life in Jesus Christ. The "Acts of the Apostles" should continue today in the witness of our own lives.

Pope John Paul II explained Pentecost in the following way in his 1986 encyclical Lord and Giver of Life: The "new 'coming' of Christ, this continuous coming of [the Lord] in order to be with His Apostles [and] with the Church, this 'I am with you to the close of the age' . . . occurs by the power of the Holy Spirit, who makes it possible for Christ, who has gone away, to come now and forever in a new way . . . In [the Eucharist and the other sacraments], Christ, who has gone away in His visible humanity, comes, is present and acts in the Church in such an intimate way as to make it His own body. As such, the Church lives, works and grows 'to the close of the age.' All this happens through the power of the Holy Spirit" (61).

Pentecost is not just the birthday of the Church. It's also the feast day of the Holy Spirit, who set the Apostles on fire with zeal in the Upper Room and who opened the minds in the crowd which first heard them preach . . . and who has guided and renewed the life of the Church for 2,000 years. We can only celebrate this Great Jubilee because the Holy Spirit first conceived Jesus in the womb of Mary. We can only celebrate the Great Jubilee because the Holy Spirit has never stopped sustaining the mission of the Church. Furthermore, just as He strengthened and encouraged the first Apostles, so too He will strengthen and encourage each of us - if we let Him.

The Little Church Outside

Have you noticed the little church posted outside of the main entrance to the church? To celebrate the 175th Anniversary of the Milwaukee Archdiocese, one of the activities is walking different routes. St. Bruno Parish happens to be the last stop on the Blue Route. For more information on the walking/biking routes, go to archmil.org The little church was decorated by the Bridge Family. They went out to the old St.

Bruno's to take pictures, and spent MANY hours creating the beautiful replica. Inside the church you can pick up a passport and stamp it (if you decide to walk the blue route). There is also a flier with St. Bruno facts and history.

Here is some information on our flier:

St. Bruno Parish has been a fixture in the area since 1852.

Our founding fathers, a group of German Catholics, settled here around 1841. The original church, constructed of logs was built in 1852. It was replaced by a brick church which still stands on Hwy Z operating from 1887-1955. In 1956 St. Bruno Parish moved into the village of Dousman on the present site, and the school opened in 1961. The current church building was finished in 2005. St. Bruno Parish is one of the older parishes in the Archdiocese.

A people rooted in faith, St. Bruno Parish is very proud of the sons and daughters who answered the call to vocations. From this remote, rural parish, have come 7 priests, 5 Sisters, and 4 deacons. Of these 7 priests, most recent are our 3 Strand brothers: Fr. Luke Strand, Fr. Jacob Strand, and Fr. Vincent Strand.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Why do we celebrate Pentecost when we do?

Answer: The book of Acts unpacks the events immediately following Jesus' ascension into heaven. The Apostles and other disciples were told to pray in Jerusalem and await another outpouring of the Holy Spirit. As the weeks ticked on, the Jewish Festival of Weeks approached. This festival took place 50 days after Passover and celebrated the giving of the law on Mount Sinai. The Festival of Weeks (or "Pentecost" in Greek) was a great pilgrimage feast, with Jews from all over the ancient world convening on Jerusalem for the celebration.

It was on Pentecost that God chose to send the Holy Spirit. Here, the new law of love was etched into the hearts of the disciples. As he burst out onto the balcony above the multinational crowd, Peter proclaimed the message of the resurrection, and the Holy Spirit enabled every listener to hear in their native language. 3,000 people were baptized that day! The disciples - and every baptized person - receives the gifts and zeal necessary to bring a new message of salvation to the people of God.

The Staff at St. Bruno Parish would like to thank John Kimpel for sharing his talent of photography with our parish. John is responsible for all the beautiful pictures taken at confirmation and communion.

We (and participating families) are grateful for your time and talent!

Grief Support Sessions

St. Bruno's Circle of Life Bereavement Ministry will offer Bereavement Support Sessions on Tuesdays, June 4 through July 30, from 6:30 to 8:30 PM.

Are you experiencing feelings of sadness and sorrow due to the loss of a loved one or do you know someone who is grieving? Grieving is very hard work, and time alone will not heal your grief. St. Bruno's Circle of Life will host a series of grief support sessions on Tuesdays beginning June 4 through July 29, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

These sessions will help with understanding the rhythms of the grieving process. Gathering with others who are dealing with the emotions of loss may be the first step needed to move toward healing. Whether you have had a loved one die recently or a while ago, you are welcome and encouraged to attend.

There is more information on the parish website, the kiosk in the Gathering Place or call Peggy Knepprath, 262-424-4567 or Sandy Mayernick, 262-968-4422.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Pentecost Sunday

Today as we celebrate Pentecost the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God's presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them.

Sharing the Gospel with Kids

The disciples must have missed spending time with Jesus after he went back to heaven. But they knew that the Holy Spirit would always be with them, helping them remember what Jesus taught them. The disciples kept learning about God and kept growing closer to him. The Holy Spirit will help you remember Jesus, too.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for sending the Holy Spirit.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When faced with a decision or a dilemma, where do we turn? Whenever we have to discern the proper course of action, the Holy Spirit is available as our advocate and guide. As Christians, we look not to our world for direction but to God. The gifts of the Holy Spirit are given to help us find our path to proper thought and conduct.

Wisdom, right judgment, knowledge, understanding, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord are all perfect tools for discernment. These gifts allow us to keep our relationships and perspective in proper order. It is the Holy Spirit who opens our eyes to see that which we would otherwise overlook and opens our hearts to receive those people who would otherwise be ignored. Ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten you today.
