Our Mission Statement

We, the Catholic Community of St. Pio, inspired by the Holy Spirit, celebrate the Eucharist with hope, to share our faith, love, and the Good News of Jesus Christ through outreach and fellowship.

"Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied.
Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh."
Lk 6:21

FAITH FORMATION

I want to offer a "HUGE" THANK YOU for all who gave to the Souper Bowl of Caring collection for the poor, homeless and impoverished last weekend. We collected $1,763.00 and are so grateful for your generosity. So many from St. Vincent de Paul and Covenant House of Detroit, will benefit in so many ways. Also, thank you to the students from the Middle School Ministry, Jacob Hart, our announcer, along with our contestants, Jayden Mailloux and Madeline Vanderford, for your time and talents. I want to thank Camren Johnson and Lucas Sides for collecting as "pot holders". Great Job to all! May you all be filled with the joy of Jesus for serving His people in need. There will be a meeting for the parents of the First Communicants on Monday, February 14th at 4:30 p.m. in the Faith Formation Conference Room. Only one parent needs to attend. Hope to see you all there.

Due to inclement weather on February 3rd, the "Circle of Grace" class for Middle School Ministry will be February 17th.

The next Young Adult Ministry meeting will be on February 23rd, 2022, at 7:00 p.m. in the Youth Room.

Many Blessing to all!

Faith Formation Director

Musical Notes...

Today, we celebrate the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time. As a prelude to this weekend's masses, I chose "Sanctuary" by Vince Ambrosetti. (Oh, how I wish this song was in our hymnal!) Over the years, I've had the privilege of participating in a number of Missions led by Vince Ambrosetti. He is a very talented singer/songwriter for the Catholic Church and a very inspiring speaker. "Sanctuary" just might be my favorite of all of his songs. Vince sang this song during Communion at Mother Teresa's funeral in Calcutta, India.

I hope that the message of this song will support the readings today. Most especially the first reading, from the prophet Jeremiah, that those who trust and hope in the Lord receive the strength to bear life's difficulties.

Chorus: In ev'ry age, in ev'ry time, in ev'ry place, O Lord.
You have been our refuge, You have been our strength;
shelter from the storm, our sanctuary sure.
Verse 1: Always you are here, sharing all our trials.
You comfort us, You nourish us, You challenge us to grow.
Constant is your love, endless is Your care.
Through ev'ry pain, through ev'ry doubt,
we know that You are here!

Whatever challenges you face in the days, weeks and months ahead, may you place your trust in the Lord. May he be your refuge, your strength, your shelter and your sanctuary!

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

World Marriage Day, occurring each year on the second Sunday of February, honors the lifelong commitment of husband and wife. Not only is marriage a gift to us from God, but it truly is also a gift from us to Him as we make our marriages a priority and become more and more ONE as husband and wife. Great marriages are built on mutual respect, abundant admiration, and never ending LOVE and GRACE. Marriage is the backbone of your family. Spouses stand by one another on good days and even closer on bad days. You are beautiful not because you are perfect. You are beautiful because despite your imperfections, you have chosen to love each other.

May you continue to be blessed in your years together as husband and wife. Congratulations!

Tina Bullis

What is the Question?

What has been the most difficult challenge you faced in your life? Many difficult human experiences can "turn up the heat" in our lives, causing us to question the why of things or even fall into despair. Some people just somewhat passively accept what life brings, even death, and chalk difficult experiences up to happening "because they do." They seemingly endure and move on. Taking life at face value, there really is no ultimate meaning to things. It's easier to ignore that inner prompting calling us to understand why. It's there whether we admit it or not. To question or not to question — that is the question! People sometimes give up the God search because it causes too many questions. Once we open the door to the possibility of God's existence, then all of the awkward, challenging, and tragic pieces of life have to find their place.

It gets messy. But the search is so important to living. We can easily dry up and become arid, abandoning any hope for purpose and meaning because it's too difficult and non-rational at times. In searching for answers to the how and why of life, human beings also embark on a search for God. When one finally stumbles upon the real living tangible presence of God, then that discovery allows life's ironies and tensions to be held side by side with the all-encompassing totally unconditional, unmerited love of God! Then when life's heat gets turned up, difficulties and challenges abound, dryness and heartache become the norm, the soul remains in joyful repose. There is no fear.

The beatitudes celebrate life's ironies and tensions, holding them all together in the Kingdom of God. Poverty, hunger, weeping, being insulted and hated are not things we would normally associate with being God's friends. But they are! In fact, those who experience these uncomfortable realities of life are actually better off than those who do not. This is what makes Jesus' message so intriguing! Don't give up questioning. Questioning the apparent inequities and polarities of human experience will certainly challenge one's faith. But it's the only way to deepen it.

@LPi

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they who hunger
and thirst for righteousness,
for they shall be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure of heart,
for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they shall be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

PRAYER TO Padre Pio FOR HEALING

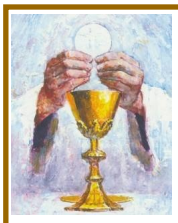
Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, obedient father, you loved the sick and infirm more than yourself because in them you saw Jesus. In the name of God you performed miracles of healing in body, soul and mind.

Your intercession with God healed the ills of past and present and strengthened people to respond with confidence to future challenges. Those who came to you regained a sense of spiritual integrity as you rekindled hope in their lives, and encouraged them to renew the spirit in their hearts.

Through the intercession of Our Heavenly Mother, may we experience your powerful assistance and be healed in our bodily and spiritual needs. Gratefully give praise and thanks to God for all His blessings.

Amen



Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Pray to St. Michael for protection against the power of evil, and to bring us closer to God.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares
of the devil.

May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
And the other evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
for the ruin of souls.

Amen
