A VIEW FROM THE PEW

A Pentecost Prayer

Welcome Holy Spirit

In the silence of a dark night's fearful thought you come.

You are comfort in the sleepless worries,

Gentle in the rising doubts,

Forgiving all our handmade hurts,

Patient in our pointless hurry,

Counseling as the waves come crashing,

"Be still and know that I am God."

Wonderful counselor, comforter, God with us,

You will never abandon us.

You will always be with us.

Your promises are sure.

Help us to give like you, forgive like you, live for you.

Amen!

"And when the days of Pentecost were drawing to a close, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a violent wind coming, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them parted tongues as of fire, which settled upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in foreign tongues, even as the Holy Spirit prompted them to speak (Acts 2, 1-4)."

Today at Mass, particularly at holy Communion, the power of the Holy Spirit will come down upon us; fiery tongues will not be seen, but invisible tongues of fire will not be absent. There was still another external manifestation of the Holy Spirit; the apostles and disciples were enabled to speak various languages

After the roar of the wind many of Jerusalem's pilgrims hurried to the Cenacle. Pentecost was one of the three festivals which obliged all Jews to be present in Jerusalem. Jews from distant lands, and Jewish converts from paganism too, attended these feasts. As a result, a colorful crowd speaking a variety of languages surrounded the house. Now the apostles, who so shortly before hid in fear behind locked doors, came forth and courageously walked among the multitude speaking to each in his native tongue. It was indeed amazing! Galileans, and multilingual?

Stewardship Corner: What is money? We use the gifts of time and talent in the secular world and we receive money in exchange. We can use money to trade for goods and services that others produce as they use their gifts of time and talent. Money is another form of the gifts of time and talent. The disciple recognizes money (wealth) as a gift to be shared.

GOAL 500 Hygiene Kits

Hygiene Kit Drive
FOR THE HOMELESS

Please support our Hygiene Kit Drive for the homeless. With your support we can help the homeless by giving basic supplies to help them avoid physical and dental health problems. Perhaps even more importantly, we can help them retain their dignity during this trying time in their lives. We will provide you with a gallon size Ziploc bag with instructions that explain suggested items you should put in the bag. Ziploc bags are available at the entrance of the church. Thank you for supporting the Hygiene Kit Drive for the homeless.

Please place your donated Hygiene Kits in the basket at the entrance of the church

Memorial of St. Barnabas

Let Good Come Out of Conflict

Barnabas isn't one of the 12 apostles and not mentioned in the Gospels, but he's a big star in Acts of the Apostles — he was best friends with St. Paul on their evangelical journeys through Asia Minor. Their friendship, however, fell into disagreement and they eventually parted company. Church relationships are not always a tight fit. Differences can block close friendships. At the same time, diversity in the community is the energy of creativity. How might good come from a conflicted relationship in your community?

"Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."
