A Note from Our Pastor,

As we proceed into the final days of October we turn to Mary our Blessed Mother and, I hope, make some time to pray the Rosary. It is a wonderful prayer where we focus on key moments in the life of Jesus, Mary's Son, while praying the "Hail Mary" repeatedly to slow ourselves down and focus our minds and hearts on each of the events in Christ's life, perhaps putting ourselves into each scene and imagining Christ looking into our eyes and hearts and drawing us ever more deeply into His love. The Latin phrase "Ad Iesum per Mariam" ("To Jesus through Mary") captures what the Rosary is all about. Our children in Faith Formation this past week prayed together a "Living Rosary" which, I hope, will help them to become more familiar with this great prayer, and make it a regular practice in their lives and in their families, if it is not already such.

At last Sunday's Parish Pastoral Council meeting, and in anticipation of the Evening of Reflection and Workshops for our Liturgical Ministers this coming Tuesday evening from 7 until 8:30pm, we had a discussion about the importance of deepening our reverence for the Mass. It was suggested that we should all strive to get to church at least a few minutes before Mass begins, so as to quiet ourselves down and help sharpen our focus for the sacred mysteries about to be celebrated. There was also the reminder that when we pass in front of the Tabernacle which contains the sacred Body of Christ, we should all perform some act of reverence, which, for those physically able or not carrying objects to be used at Mass, would entail a genuflection, bending down on one knee. For those with physical limitations or carrying such objects, bowing at the waist or bowing of the head would be acceptable. The Holy Eucharist, after all, is truly the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, and deserves the respect and reverence that we all owe to the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Palardy

Communion for the Homebound

Please call Lisa Gulino, our Pastoral Associate at 617-698-2439 X 209 and she will arrange for a minister of communion to bring Eucharist to you.

Last weekend, at the Mass of Anointing, Fr. Makos, Deacon Simchock, Fr. Palardy, Fr. O'Riordan and Fr. McLaughlin laid hands on those seriously and/or chronically ill and those preparing for or recovering from surgery and anointed them with the Oil of the Sick which was blessed by Cardinal Seán O'Malley during Holy Week. Afterwards, participants enjoyed a luncheon and fellowship in the Gathering Space. Thank you to our Hospitality Committee for all their efforts in hosting the luncheon.

THEME: God knows and sees our hearts.

As you hear the word proclaimed today, what word or phrase strikes you? In this parable, what image comes to mind for you?

Gospel : Luke 18:9-14

Jesus addressed this parable
to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else.
"Two people went up to the temple area to pray;
one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector.
The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself,
'O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity—greedy, dishonest, adulterous—or even like this tax collector.
I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.'
But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven
but beat his breast and prayed,
'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.'
I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former;
for whoever exalts himself will be humbled,
and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Pastoral Planning

October 27 ~ Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

The Pharisee in today's gospel did not really go to pray; he went to inform God how good he was. The tax collector on the other hand prayed with humility, "O God, be merciful to me a sinner." This parable tells us important things about prayer. When praying, don't hold yourself above others, as the Pharisee did, instead pray with humility, see yourself like others—a sinner among sinners all in need of God's mercy! Take time to pray this week, calling to mind the words of the psalmist: "The Lord hears the cry of the poor."

THE WEEKLY UPDATE

The Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2019 was included in last week's Bulletin. Hopefully you have had a chance to take a look at it, since it is important for us all to understand where our financial resources come from and where and how they are spent. This is especially important as we prepare for our Grand Annual Appeal which will begin next week. As the report indicates, the Grand Annual is our second largest source of revenue next to our Weekly Offertory, so your support is critical to the parish's fiscal stability. Our Weekly Bulletins are posted on our web site, so if you did not happen to get a copy of the Bulletin you can find it and the Annual Report at www.stagathaparish.org. Extra copies are also on the table in the front foyer of the Upper Church. We did want to call one inadvertent omission to your attention. The list of Finance Council members did not include Mr. Gene Boylan, who is a recent addition to the Council and a vital part of its composition. Our apologies to Gene who adds so much to the Council's deliberations.

The recent extremely windy weather took a bit of a toll on the parish, but it was nowhere near as serious as it could have been. Before the storms came we had removed several large dead trees and done aggressive trimming around the Church and over the playground next to the Rectory. Nevertheless the wind did dislodge two of the lanterns outside the side entrances to the Church and completely shredded the flag. Fr. Palardy gallantly rescued the lanterns last Saturday afternoon, but we weren't so lucky with the flag which had gotten hopelessly tangled at the very top of the pole. Fortunately, Jeff Hunt from Richard Hunt Landscaping came down with his truck on Saturday to remove the flag for us free of charge.

In addition to the Weekly Offertory below. An additional $3,887 was contributed to the Second Collection for World Mission Sunday. Thank you.

The Sacred Pause

Lisa M. Gulino—Pastoral Associate

Part 1 – The Mass

Last week I proposed reflective time in preparation for the Church's new year and to give a resounding YES to the joy of faith. Let's prepare for Advent by thinking about the Mass. Advent is a time to increase our longing for Christ and to remember that the Son—God in the flesh—became man precisely that we might know and experience the nearness of our God. The Mass brings Christ to our altar surrounded by the heavenly angels and the communion of saints—those who have gone before us. Yes—in the Mass God is near—so near in fact he becomes our food!

Admittedly, I am sure my late parents are chuckling at the prospect that I am writing about the Mass. After all, they surely remember this five-year old Italian self, singing joyfully and loudly, "Lasagna in the highest." With the patience of Job, Mom quietly instructed me to sing "Hosanna."

Can't I worship God in my own way? Yes, and we should. However, we are social beings—made for relationships: with God, one another, and all of Creation. We are also creatures who need habit and repetition to grow. When we understand more fully the Mass, we discover a rhythm and form for our life. It is the Mass where we meet one another as neighbors and together…

- We hear the Divine Word in order to unite in a common faith and discover who God is and who we are in God: "Indeed, the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart." (Heb 4:12) Jesus is present in the Scriptures.
- We present simple gifts of creation—bread "the fruit of the earth and work of human hands" and we receive infinitely more—"the bread of life"—Jesus is present in the Eucharist. Through water and wine "we come to share in the divinity of Christ." (Eucharistic Prayer 1)
- We participate in the celebration of the "Lord's Supper"—and join with Christ to give thanks and praise to the Father.

Going to Mass is not fundamentally about my unique spiritual experience, but about giving over part of myself in love to all other believers so that together we can manifest Christ's love for the world.*

*O'Malley, Timothy P. Bored Again Catholic: How the Mass Could Save Your Life. (p. 18).

Evening of Reflection For Liturgical Ministers

Tuesday, October 29 • 7:00–8:30 PM in the Main Church

For all active and new Liturgical Ministers—an Evening of Reflection and Breakout Workshops. When one comes to serve the Lord in such an important capacity as a Liturgical Minister, there is to be ongoing Spiritual Enrichment and Formation to be certain that we continue to grow in love with the God who calls us into service.

Anyone who serves during the Mass is encouraged to attend the first part of the evening: Opening Prayer and Keynote by Fr. William Murphy.

Starting at 7:45 PM there will be breakout sessions. There will be Refreshments & Fellowship immediately following. Please do stay, it is important we continue to "break bread" together—in fellowship.

At all the Masses, November 23 –24 we will have a Commissioning of those who serve during the Liturgy.

If you haven't already registered, please RSVP to Lisa Gulino at lgulino@stagathaparish.org.

Thank you for being Christ to others in your service. Your ministry is very much appreciated.

GIFT CARD DONATIONS REQUESTED

Dear Parishioners,
As we approach the holidays we are asking for support of the food pantries in our area.

Stop & Shop and other local supermarkets offer food gift cards to purchase in 15, 20, and 25 dollar amounts. Part of St. Agatha's ongoing outreach is to offer assistance to those in need around the holiday season. These gift cards allow individuals to buy turkeys, ethnic meats, desserts and traditional foods for their holiday.

I have found great appreciation from our clients who have received gift cards at St. Matthew's Food Pantry in Dorchester. We have used gift cards instead of giving turkeys at Thanksgiving and they are a greatly appreciated option.

Please place any gift card donation in the Offertory basket.

Thanks,
Rich Green, Pantry Director
