Live the Liturgy

We only have so much psychological and spiritual energy. We easily get tired. Responding to life's demands and people's needs can really zap us of all our energy. Discouragement, anger, frustration, exhaustion, helplessness. and even apathy can run wild. We ca find ourselves bitter and irritated by the fact that we have to do it all again. We need to rest, connect and focus. Deserted places, free of unnecessary distractions and demands, are great places of refreshment and we all need them. Desiring to be alone for a bit and rest does not indicate selfishness. Rather, it radiates wisdom. God is the source of all we do and the satisfaction of every human heart. If we are going to use the gifts God gave us well, then we have to make sure our batteries are recharged and replenished.

Jesus invites us to go to a desert place to rest and pray. Where is yours? LPI

ADORATION

Adoration will resume weekly on Thursdays after the noon Mass.

Pope Francis Prayer for July

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer You my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians.

Religious Podcast Review "The Heart of a Shepherd" Episode 133

This is a review of the podcast "You Were Born for This" with Fr. John Riccardo at www.ActsXXIX.org. In this recent podcast Rev. John Riccardo speaks with Archbishop Alexander K. Sample on the evangelization of the Church. I first became acquainted with Fr. Riccardo when I was preparing some children for RCIA. He has a program of classes available online from his parish, Our Lady of Good Counsel, in Plymouth, Michigan. He did such a great job there that he was tasked by his Bishop to lead a program for Evangelization for five years. Part of that job has him traveling to parishes to help renew the message of the Kerygma with God's people.

This episode of his podcast is worth your time to listen to it. Archbishop Sample explains his desire to help move the church from living in the gray area of uncertainty to a more united message of our redemption through the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross in atonement for our sins bringing us to new life. It is a wonderful message of hope for a world floundering in fear and disappointment after the recent challenges in our society. Together they share the hopeful message about men of faith who surrender to the Will of God with complete obedience. It cannot be an easy thing to do. But the challenge was made to us to do just that. Archbishop Sample suggested that praying the Surrender Novena every day can change your heart, too. You can find it on YouTube: Surrender Novena (All 9 Days) - Let Jesus Take Care of Everything - YouTube. For more information on this podcast and others in this series go to Father Riccardo's website: You Were Born for This Podcast — ACTS XXIX.
