A Note from Our Pastor,

This coming week we have many intentions to include in our prayers.

Last Wednesday we began the week of Prayer for Unity among Christians. Let us ask our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ to guide us all in recognizing the gift of Christian faith and baptism that all Christians share, and to aid us in our efforts to bring the principles of Christ's Gospel to bear in our society. May we work together with our Christian brothers and sisters and other people of good will to uphold the innate dignity of every human being as a child of God, created in God's own image and likeness, and vigorously oppose the variety of threats to human life on so many levels, particularly among the most innocent and vulnerable. May we beg God for the grace we need to work together and come to the aid of those in our midst who are in greatest need and those who suffer the injustice of being discriminated against because of their race or ethnicity.

In September of 2019 Pope Francis declared that the Third Sunday of Ordinary Time (namely this weekend) should be "devoted to the celebration, study, and dissemination of the Word of God" in the Scriptures. We have been blessed here at St. Agatha's to be hosting the second year of "Walking with Purpose" Women's Bible Study. For women whose schedules do not allow them to participate in the Bible Study and for those of us of the other gender, I'd recommend picking up your Bible at home and reading some of the books of the New Testament, especially the Gospels, St. Matthew's in particular, since this is the Gospel we hear this year at our Sunday Masses, and also the Gospel of St. Mark which is currently being read at our Masses during the week. You might also want to consult a good commentary on the Scriptures. Two that I would recommend are the Jerome Biblical Commentary or the late Fr. Raymond Brown's An Introduction to the New Testament. If you don't want to purchase these commentaries, you can also consult these and others in our Library in the rear of the Gathering Space. As the great Biblical Scholar and Saint Jerome put it, "Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ!" Making some time on a regular basis to read and pray over the Scriptures, especially the New Testament can help us not only come to know Christ better, but also to love Him and experience His reciprocal love for us.

On Monday the 23rd all dioceses in the United States are asked to observe "a day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion." While it is cause for rejoicing that the Supreme Court ruling in Roe vs. Wade has been overturned, as we are well aware, the so-called right to abortion is still in effect in many states throughout our nation, including here in Massachusetts. All that being said, it is imperative that we do our part to support organizations such as Friends of the Unborn and Mother Olga's Sisters of Mary of Nazareth, as well as many other pro-life organizations that help women in challenging circumstances choose life for their pre-born children. We are called upon to show compassion to women who are faced with difficult pregnancies, and to those living with regret at a past abortion for whom the Project Rachel program here in the Archdiocese of Boston offers healing and mercy for those lamenting a previous abortion. Prayer for the conversion of the hearts and minds of those who support abortion is also the order of the day for us all this Monday.

Please remember in your prayers next Wednesday the second group of girls and boys from our School and our Faith Formation Program who will be receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time and for their families who are also invited to receive the Sacrament.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Palardy

FEATURED WEEKLY READING

Read Reflect Respond

THEME: Jesus calls us to follow him; our lives will never be the same.

As you listen to the story of Jesus calling the first disciples, what one word or thought strikes you? What image or insight do you take away from this?

Gospel: MT 4:12-23

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested,
he withdrew to Galilee.
He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea,
in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled:
Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles,
the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light,
on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death
light has arisen.
From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say,
"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew,
casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen.
He said to them,
"Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."
At once they left their nets and followed him.
He walked along from there and saw two other brothers,
James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John.
They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee,
mending their nets.
He called them, and immediately they left their boat
and their father
and followed him.
He went around all of Galilee,
teaching in their synagogues,
proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom,
and curing every disease and illness among the people.

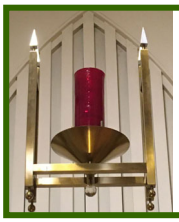
Pastoral Planning

January 22 ~Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings are filled with inspiration and instruction and offers us great words of encouragement! Isaiah reminds us that we no longer walk in darkness. For us, the 'great light' he speaks of is Jesus Christ. In the second reading, Saint Paul urges the community to "be united in the same mind and in the same purpose" and "let there be no division among you." In the gospel, Jesus invites the first Apostles: "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Do you see yourself as a fisher of men/women? Is God inviting you to bring his light, his peace and reconciliation to a difficult relationship or situation? Take God's word with you…let it grow!



For the two week period of January 15–28, the Vigil Candle above the Tabernacle will be lit in memory of Anna Elias. Donated by Phil and Jacqi Gentile. May the light of God's love surround you.

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL COLLECTION: Church in Latin America

This week's second collection supports various pastoral projects throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. The Collection for the Church in Latin America funds the work of evangelization, formation of laity, religious and seminarians, as well as youth ministry and catechesis. SAINT AGATHA CENTENNIAL PRAYER

Saint Agatha, you have guided our parish family by your intercession.

We pray for your guidance for present and future generations to persevere and show witness to our faith.

We pray that you ask the Holy Spirit to be our advocate so that we may say yes to God in total, trusting surrender.

We look to your courage for our own strength to go forward with love in action as Jesus did.

We pray that you ask the Father for protection against the uncertainties we face as we grow as a community strong in faith, hope and love.

Saint Agatha, continue to guide us as we walk with purpose towards Heaven, with a spirit of gratitude and an open heart.

Amen.
