Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOW I HAVE SEEN AND TESTIFIED THAT HE IS THE SON OF GOD.

JOHN 1:34

BAPTISM

As we the Church begin Ordinary Time, we reflect upon the Baptism of Jesus, and its significance in our own lives and communities. The Gospel of John does not narrate the Baptism like the other Gospels. Instead, John the Baptist gives testimony, emphasizing that Jesus has received the Holy Spirit. Jesus will go on to baptize with this same Spirit, as he did immediately after his resurrection (John 20). What might this mean for us, who share in this same Baptism? Today's reading from Isaiah suggests that we are to be a "light to the nations," a people proclaiming and sharing God's love. Paul's greeting to the church in Corinth reminds us that we are simultaneously God's sanctified people and yet continually called to become holy. Baptism begins our journey, where we know the Spirit dwells within, and the same Spirit summons us to full maturity in Christ.

LAMB OF GOD

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist names Jesus as the "Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." This name "Lamb of God" is rich in meaning, and can be interpreted in various ways. From the Old Testament, it evokes the lamb of Passover, linked to God's rescue of the Hebrew people from Egypt. It is also an image of God's faithful servant, as in Isaiah 53 as a "lamb led to slaughter."

We can notice that here Jesus is the Lamb "of God." He is God's own Lamb, belonging to God. Jesus is not a cultic sacrifice to God, or a demand from God. John is presenting a traditional image in a new way. The Lamb "takes away" our sin, both exposing the reality of our sin to us (which we often hide from ourselves), and also forgiving us our sin. This same Lamb is filled with the Holy Spirit, and shares this Spirit to heal our troubled hearts.

LIGHT TO THE NATIONS

Today's first reading is taken from the second of four "Servant Songs" in Isaiah. This Song was written around the time that the people of Israel were near release from their exile in Babylon. Israel, and also the author, had been traumatized by their separation from Jerusalem and their seeming abandonment by God.

At this time of great vulnerability and despair, God gives them consolation and affirmation. God gives the exiles a vote of confidence and an expansion of vision. God will heal their hearts, and give them new energy to be "a light to the nations." Their purpose is not just survival, but to be the means by which God will bring the whole world into communion and harmony with God. For us today, when sometimes our parishes and communities face challenges of shrinkage and survival, perhaps God may similarly energize us, and remind us of the dignity and breadth of our mission.

Pastor's Column

Dear Friends in Christ, 1/15/23

As we settle back into the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time, I wish to reflect upon some ironies. Let's begin with the fact that God does extraordinary things in our ordinary lives. Our faith journey is an extraordinary one that should take an ordered path of discipleship. We began the liturgical year with Advent in preparation for the birth of the Messiah. That four-week season of preparation brought us to a rather short Christmas Season this year, concluding last weekend. Because Christmas and New Years Day fell on a Sunday, we celebrated the Feast of the Holy Family on Fri. Dec. 30th, and celebrated the Feast of the Baptism of the LORD last Monday. Normally these two Feasts Days are celebrated on Sunday. The Baptism of the LORD usually concludes the Christmas Season and begins the 1st Week of Ordinary Time. We've been in green vestments for a week already even though this is the first weekend that you have noticed the change in vestment color.

The prayer event that we had to kick off the Knights of Columbus' Icon of St. Joseph presentation on Wednesday evening was extraordinary. It just happened to take place on the national day of awareness for Human Trafficking prevention. This weekend at the 11am Mass we will have the litany of St. Joseph following Holy Communion. The extraordinary civil rights leader, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., is honored this weekend by our nation with a national holiday. Next weekend our bishop will be here for Confirmation at the 11am mass. All of these extraordinary events and experiences are happening in our ordinary lives in the midst of the liturgical season called Ordinary Time. So let it be clear, the season is not about the ho hum, humdrum every day ordinariness of life. NO! The season is called Ordinary Time because our liturgical life is ordered. When we take part in the sacramental life of the Church we find that the regularity of daily prayer and regular participation at the Eucharistic table is good for the soul. Our spiritual journey is indeed an extraordinary one. This week you will be receiving a letter from me regarding the Catholic Ministry Appeal. The extraordinary works that your generous gifts support are all a part of the ordinary ministries of our Catholic Church.

Peace in Christ,
Fr. Tom J. Anastasia
Pastor

The Parish Office and the Oratory will be closed on Monday, 1/16, in observance of the Martin Luther King holiday.

Our Knights of Columbus are serving COFFEE AND DONUTS in the Cenacle after the Sunday Masses. All proceeds benefit K of C charities.

"The Gospel According to Matthew: The Messiah and the Fulfillment of the Old Testament"
Tuesdays, January 10th through the 31st, from 9:15 AM to 11:15 am in the Cenacle

St. Matthew's Gospel was considered the most influential and popular book among the early Jewish-Christian community. In this 4 part DVD series, Dr. Pitre will explain how the long awaited hopes of the Jewish people are being fulfilled in Jesus and cover topics such as:

* who wrote the Gospel of Matthew
* why there is a long genealogy at the beginning of Matthew & why is it of vital importance to the Gospel's message
* how the Gospel of Matthew clearly makes Jesus out to be a new and greater Moses, David, Solomon and Isaac
* the shocking paradoxes of the Sermon on the Mount and the implications of them for our spiritual life
* how the teachings of St Matthew are relevant to us TODAY
* aspects of Jesus' infancy, public ministry, and last days in Jerusalem that show Him to be the long-awaited fulfillment for which the priests, prophets and kings of old had hoped

This program is open to ALL ~ FREE of CHARGE. No previous Bible Study experience necessary.
NO READING or HOMEWORK REQUIRED. It is not too late to join!

ENTRANCE HYMN #585

Praise to the Lord

LOBE DEN HERREN

1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation!
Come all who hear: Now to his altar draw near,
Joining in glad adoration!

2. Praise to the Lord, above all things so wondrously reigning,
Shelt'ring you under his wings, and so gently sustaining.
Have you not seen All that is needful has been Sent by his gracious ordaining?

3. Praise to the Lord, who will prosper you work and defend you;
Surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend you.
Ponder anew What the Almighty can do
As with his love he befriends you.

4. Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that has life and breath, come now with praises before him!
Let the "Amen!" Sound from his people again,
Gladly with praise we adore him!

FINAL HYMN #740

Sent Forth by God's Blessing

ASH GROVE

1. Sent forth by God's blessing, our true faith confessing,
The people of God from his dwelling take leave.
God's sacrifice ended, O now be extended The fruits of this Mass in all hearts who believe.
The seed of Christ's teaching, our inner souls reaching,
Shall blossom in action for God and for all.
His grace shall incite us, his love shall unite us
To further God's kingdom and answer his call.

2. With praise and thanksgiving, to God who is living,
The tasks of our ev'ryday life we embrace.
Our faith ever sharing, in love ever caring,
We claim as our neigbor all those of each race.
One bread that has fed us, one light that has led us
Unite us as one in his life that we share.
Then may all the living with praises and thanksgiving
Give honor to Christ and his name that we bear.
