Father Logsdon Logging In…

Lent is not only a spiritual time, it is practical. Psychologists have proven that the amount of time needed to form new habits is about 6 weeks. So modern medical science has finally proven what Catholics have been inspired to do for hundreds of years. When we commit ourselves to forming new habits during Lent, we are forging lifelong habits. If there is a bad habit that you would like to change, now is the time.

I have no update on Fr. Arbuckle. As we have been without him for 3 months now, it is looking more and more like we may need to wait until the normal July shuffle for permanent assistance. I am thankful that we have enough priests to cover the weekend masses. Priests may have a greater say in assignments in the future, although the clergy personal board is always open to having conversations with priests.

I do not have an update on the CMA (formally Fruitful Harvest), but hope to give updates at least monthly. I am still waiting to go to the bank and make my contribution, but I have seen a lot of envelopes sent through the office, so we are well on our way.

SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

Website: sevensistersapostolate.org
Mission Statement: That our prayers may find the heart of every priest and bishop.

A call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed everyday for the sole intention of specific priest, i.e. Fr. Logsdon, or bishop—a "holy wasting" (cf. Mt. 26:10) or lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ. The apostolate was started in 2010 in St. Paul Minnesota. Patron Saints: Madonna of the Grapes, St. John Vianney, St. Margaret Clitherow.

Goals and Identity:

1. To do a holy hour every day of the week (7 Holy Hours per week) by seven woman. Ex. Mary on Monday from 7-8am at St. Joseph, Tammy of Tuesday from 10-11pm at Immaculate Conception, etc. — It can be done be each women on her chosen day at anytime of the day, but the DAY she chooses will remain constant. So that the parish priest is being prayed for one hour of every day of every week. The Blessed Sacrament does not need to be exposed it can be done while contained in the Tabernacle. We need 7 ladies to offer up 1 hour per week to pray for our priest.
2. It should be done only for the pastor, and
3. It should ask for the priest's deepening devotion to the Blessed Mother.
4. It is an exclusive hidden prayer group designed strictly for women.
5. The women do not meet in a group, except if a special need arises. — Prayerfully discern if this is right for you. You will be given literature & prayers from the Seven Sisters Apostolate for your Holy Hour. It would also be nice to have a substitute for busy times, sickness, etc.. 8-9 women preferably.
6. Currently we will be praying for Fr. Logsdon, if we get another priest & enough volunteers we will adjust accordingly.

The is open to all women of the Pastorate.
For more info. text preferably or call Mrs. Kevin (Linda) Muhlenkamp at 765-273-8231 or email lindamuhlenkamp@hotmail.com

It would be easier for the world to survive without the sun tan to do without the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. — Padre Pio

CAN YOU RECOMMEND SOME GOOD BRROKS FOR LENTEN SPIRITUAL READING?

On more than one occasion, a coach being interviewed about his team --successful or not--will be asked about the next step. The inevitable response includes something about getting back to basics. Reviewing the fundamentals of the sport strengthens performance and builds confidence.

The best Lenten reading takes us back to the fundamentals. If Lent is the time for the Church to be on retreat, then we should focus on the texts that help us deepen our understanding of our faith. Spend time reading one of the Gospels, and use a Scripture commentary to learn all you can about the passion of Jesus. Read about the lives of the saints, especially your patron saint and that of your parish. Perhaps there is some local candidate for sainthood, like Father Walter Ciszek, SJ, who wrote several faith-inspiring books. Finally, you can use the Catechism of the Catholic Church to learn more about the church's teachings and beliefs. The sections on prayer and the Mass are really great reflections. Focusing on the basics really helps us take another step forward in our faith. We have not only a better understanding of what we believe and practice, but also why we believe. With that belief comes the confidence we need to be better, more faithful witnesses to Christ.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS...

Matthew Bickel, Mary Reinhart, Ted Martin, Minerva Chavez, Harold Lackey, Doris Harshman, Minerva Salazar, Deb Butcher, Todd Leach, Chris Williams, Deb Madler, Dana Brown, Sandi Detro, Devin Loudy, Douglas Millares, Adalyn Schwieterman, all unborn babies, victims of abuse, neglect, natural disasters, influenza, coronavirus, fallen-away Catholics, and others who need our prayers.
